PROSPECTUS DATED 20.05.2022

VOLKSBANK WIEN AG

Debt Issuance Programme

Pursuant to the terms of the programme for the issue of notes (the "Programme") set out in this base prospectus (the "Prospectus" or the "Base Prospectus") and in accordance with applicable law VOLKSBANK WIEN AG (the "Issuer" or "VOLKSBANK WIEN") may issue senior, "ordinary senior" eligible, "senior non-preferred" eligible, subordinated, covered bank bonds, to be issued until the entry into force of the PfandBG on 8 July 2022 in accordance with the Austrian Covered Bond Act, Federal Law Gazette I No. 199/2021 (Pfandbriefgesetz – "PfandBG"), to be issued from the entry into force of the PfandBG on 8 July 2022 in accordance with the PfandBG, subordinated and covered notes in percentage form (the "Notes"). The Notes are governed by Austrian law.

Each issue of Notes will be made using one of the form of terms and conditions described in the section entitled "Terms and Conditions" beginning on page 90 of the Prospectus, which are structured in four different options ("Options") which may contain further sub-options for Notes issued under this Programme (the "Form of Terms and Conditions"). The Form of Terms and Conditions will be supplemented for each Series of Notes by final terms (the "Final Terms") (together, the "Terms and Conditions"), in that the Final Terms will declare by reference one of the variants of the Form of Terms and Conditions to be applicable to the relevant issue and will select the information items optionally set out in the Form of Terms and Conditions and supplement the information items missing from the Form of Terms and Conditions. A form of the Final Terms can be found on the pages 175 et seq of the Prospectus. The relevant Final Terms, together with the relevant Form of Terms and Conditions, if any, constitute the relevant Terms and Conditions for a particular Series of Notes under which the rights and obligations of the Issuer and the Holders arise.

This Prospectus replaces the Prospectus dated 20 July 2021 (the "2021 Prospectus") as of the date of this Prospectus. Notes of the Issuer issued after the date of this Prospectus shall be subject to the provisions of this Prospectus. Issues issued under the Prospectus 2021, i.e. issues of VOLKSBANK WIEN with a commencement date of the offer period from 16 July 2020 up to and including 20 May 2022, whose Final Terms are published on the website of the Issuer (www.volksbankwien.at; currently at <http://kurse.volksbankwien.at/anleihen/volksbank-emissionen>) (the "Old Issues"), may be increased under this Prospectus in such a way that they form a uniform series with such Old Issues and are offered to the public under this Prospectus.

Notes of the Issuer issued as of the date of this Prospectus are subject to the provisions of this Prospectus. This Prospectus has been prepared in accordance with Annexes 6, 14, 22, and 28 of Delegated Regulation (EU) 2019/980, as amended, and has been approved by the Austrian Financial Market Authority (the "FMA" - Finanzmarktaufsichtsbehörde) in its capacity as competent authority pursuant to Article 20 of the Prospectus Regulation in conjunction with the Capital Market Act 2019, as amended.

The correctness of the content of the information provided in this Prospectus is not the subject of the examination of the Prospectus by the FMA within the framework of the legal requirements in this respect. The FMA only approves this Prospectus as meeting the standards of completeness, comprehensibility and consistency imposed by Article 20 of the Prospectus Regulation. Such approval should not be considered as an endorsement of the Issuer and the quality of the Notes that are the subject of this Prospectus and investors should make their own assessment as to the suitability of investing in the Notes. The assessment of the regulatory eligibility of the Notes as own funds under the relevant regulatory provisions is not part of the FMA's approval procedure.

The Issuer has applied for admission of the Programme to trading on the Official Market of the Vienna Stock Exchange. Application may be made for a Series of Notes to be admitted to trading on the Official Market of the Vienna Stock Exchange, which is a regulated market within the meaning of Directive 2014/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 May 2014 on markets in financial instruments and amending Directives 2002/92/EC and 2011/61/EU (Markets in Financial Instruments Directive II - "MiFID II"). Unlisted Series of Notes may also be issued under this Prospectus. The relevant Final Terms applicable to a Series of Notes will specify whether or not such Series of Notes are listed. Each Series of Notes will be represented by a non-digital or digital global note in bearer form (the "Global Note") from the issue date. Each Global Note will be held by or on behalf of a Clearing System until all obligations of the Issuer under the Notes have been satisfied. "Clearing System" means (i) the central securities depository VOLKSBANK WIEN AG - "VOLKSBANK WIEN" with its business address at 1030 Vienna, Dietrichgasse 25, (ii) the central securities depository OeKB CSD GmbH ("CSD") with its business address at 1010 Vienna, Strauchgasse 1-3, (iii) Clearstream Banking AG, Germany, (iv) Clearstream Banking S.A., société anonyme, Luxembourg, and (v) Euroclear Bank SA/NV, Belgium, and any successor in function.

Prospective investors should bear in mind that an investment in the Notes involves risks and that the realisation of one or more risks, in particular any of those described in the section entitled "Risk Factors", may result in the loss of all or a substantial portion of the amount invested. A prospective investor should make its investment decision only after making its own thorough investigation (including its own economic, legal and tax analysis), as any assessment of the appropriateness of an investment in the Notes for the relevant investor will depend on the future development of its financial and other circumstances.

1. RISK FACTORS

1.1 RISKS RELATING TO THE ISSUER AND THE ASSOCIATION OF VOLKSBANKS

Potential holders of Notes (the "Holders") should carefully consider the risk factors described below and other information contained in this Prospectus before deciding whether to invest in any Notes. Potential Holders should note that the risks described below do not include all risks affecting the Issuer. The Issuer describes in this section only those risks currently apparent to it in connection with its business, results of operations and financial condition and prospects and which it considers to be specific to the Issuer and/or the Notes and which, in the opinion of the Issuer, are material to an informed investment decision. Additional risks not currently apparent to the Issuer or not considered by it to be material and/or specific may well exist and any such risk may have the effects described below.

Prospective Holders should also read the detailed information elsewhere in this Prospectus and consult their own advisers (including financial, tax and legal advisers) and make up their own minds before making any decision to invest in Notes.

Any of the risk factors discussed in this section 1.1 may have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's business, results of operations and financial condition or prospects, which in turn may have a material adverse effect on payments of principal and interest (if any) to Holders under the Notes. In addition, any of the risk factors described below may adversely affect the market value of the Notes or the rights of investors under the Notes, which may cause investors to suffer a partial or total loss of their investment.

The Issuer believes that the following factors may affect its ability to meet its obligations under the Notes. Most of these factors are uncertainties that may or may not occur. The Issuer sets out below its view of the likelihood of the occurrence of such uncertainties as at the date of this Prospectus. the estimated net amount

The Issuer believes that the factors described below represent the principal risks associated with the Notes, however, other causes not apparent to or deemed material by the Issuer based on currently available information may also adversely affect the Issuer's ability to service payment obligations of interest (if any) and principal under or in connection with the Notes.

The COVID 19 pandemic as well as the actual developments in Russia and Ukraine may have further effects on the classification and ranking of the following risk factors according to their materiality and probability of occurrence, which, however, are currently not discernible for the Issuer on the basis of the information currently available and do not allow any precise statements to be made in this regard.

The following risk factors are categorised according to their nature (for each category, the most material risks according to the Issuer's assessment, taking into account the negative impact on the Issuer and the likelihood of their occurrence, are listed first):

1.1.1 Risk factors relating to the Issuer's business activities

Economic and/or political developments and/or an economic downswing in Austria may have materially negative effects on the business activities of the Issuer.

The Issuer's business activities are concentrated in the Republic of Austria and to a very small extent (less than 6% of Risk Weighted Assets) also include business in neighbouring countries (Germany or EU countries). As a result, the Issuer's business activities are highly exposed to economic and other factors that influence the Austrian banking market, the creditworthiness of the Issuer's Austrian customers and other factors that affect the Austrian economy in general and the Association of Volksbanks in particular. The current measures to contain the COVID-19 pandemic resulted in a burden on the Austrian economy as well as on the Austrian banking sector and, consequently, on the Issuer and, may also in the future to an extent of which is not yet quantifiable as of the date of this Prospectus. A strong economic downturn (recession) in Austria would therefore inevitably have an impact on the earnings and asset situation of the Issuer and other members of the Association of Volksbanks in the form of higher loan defaults and would also reduce the deposit and securities custody business by new or existing customers.

Despite the concentration of the Issuer's business activities on the Austrian market, current developments in Russia and Ukraine and the associated sanctions against Russia may have an impact on the results of operations and financial condition of the Issuer and other members of the Association of Volksbanks. Rising prices for raw materials and energy and other consumer goods and services, but also the inflation rate possibly remaining at a high level, as can currently be observed due to the acts of war in Ukraine and its effects, may lead to a deterioration in the financial situation of the Issuer's customers and consequently to a deterioration in the creditworthiness of the Issuer's customers as well as to no fulfilment of obligations towards the Issuer and thus have a material negative impact on the Issuer's risk costs.

The COVID-19 pandemic may have a significant impact on the Issuer and/or the Association of Volksbanks and their customers.

The Issuer and the Association of Volksbanks, directly and through their customers, are exposed to certain risks related to the COVID-19 pandemic and related to the measures taken by governments, companies and other entities to prevent the spread of the virus. The rapid global spread of the COVID-19 pandemic and the resulting business restrictions and business cuts have led to a deterioration in the financial conditions of customers of the Issuer and other members of the Association of Volksbanks ("members of the Association of Volksbanks"). This mainly due to the temporary disruption of supply chains, movement restrictions and other measures taken by health authorities and the decline in demand.

As a result, the quality of the Issuer's and other members of the Association of Volksbanks' loan portfolio could suffer or deteriorate.

The Issuer's customers may not be able to repay their loans as agreed or may not be able to do so in a timely manner and/or collateral may become insufficient due to reduced market values, particularly in industries that have been severely affected as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic and government intervention measures (e.g., tourism, hospitality). This could lead to credit losses for the Issuer and other members of the Association of Volksbanks and result in the recognition of increased specific loan loss provisions, which would have a negative impact on earnings. If the economic conditions deteriorate beyond the assessment and provisioning of possible risks from the lending business, this could also lead to credit losses that may exceed the risk provisions.

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic and the related global economic crisis, the Austrian government has already taken unprecedented government intervention measures such as payment moratoria, interest rate caps and other measures interfering with the contractual relationships of the Issuer and other members of the Association of Volksbanks with their customers and suppliers and limiting or reducing the remedies available to collect amounts due, and many other measures, such as border closures and full or partial curfews, etc., have been taken and may continue to be taken in the future to protect their citizens (and their health), economies, currencies or tax revenues, which may result in large budget deficits. Any of these or similar government intervention measures could have a material adverse effect on the earnings of the Issuer and other members of the Association of Volksbanks through a combination of lower interest and fee income, higher risk costs or higher other costs. Government programs or measures may not be sufficient to mitigate the adverse effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on the economy.

The COVID-19 pandemic and governmental measures to contain the COVID-19 pandemic may also have a direct adverse effect on the Issuer's and other members of the Association of Volksbanks' business if employees become ill, are isolated or business premises are closed or locked. Travel restrictions may also adversely affect the Issuer's and other members of the Association of Volksbanks' business, which may also limit the ability of such members of the Association of Volksbanks to maintain existing business by visiting customers in person or to acquire new customers.

The COVID-19 pandemic also caused severe disruptions in the funding and capital markets, which could significantly increase the Issuer's and other members of the Association of Volksbanks' funding costs. In addition, the COVID-19 pandemic could significantly limit access to funding and capital markets or the range of counterparties entering into transactions with the Issuer and other members of the Association of Volksbanks.

The COVID-19 pandemic may also have a material adverse effect on the market value of assets financed by the Issuer and other members of the Association of Volksbanks, serving as collateral for repayment claims and/or included in the Issuer's cover pool. This is due in particular to the risk of high vacancy rates in (or rental defaults in respect of) commercial properties, such as hotels, shopping malls, the cancellation of trade fairs and exhibitions and possible bankruptcies of tenants, guarantors, sureties and other providers of collateral, which may impair the solvency of customers of the Issuer and other members of the Association of Volksbanks and lead to defaults on financing.

The long-term effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on the economy and the labour market are currently difficult for the Issuer to assess. Should the economic conditions deteriorate beyond the expected extent, the above-mentioned effects could lead to a deterioration of the financial conditions of customers of the Issuer and other members of the Association of Volksbanks.

Interest rate volatility may negatively affect the operating result of the Issuer (interest rate risk).

Net interest income represents approximately 40% of the Issuer's operating income (source: own calculations, as per Consolidated Financial Statements 2021). Changes in interest rates may affect the Issuer's interest margin and thus reduce its interest income. Affected by interest rate volatility is the margin between the interest rate that the Issuer must pay on deposits and issues of debt instruments and the interest rate that the Issuer receives on loans granted and other receivables. For example, a decrease in the interest rates that the Issuer charges its customers reduces the interest margin if the interest rates on deposits and other debt cannot be reduced accordingly. An increase in the interest rates charged by the Issuer to its customers may also have a negative impact on its net interest income if fewer funds are borrowed by its customers as a result. For reasons of competition and in order to maintain liquidity, the Issuer may also decide to increase interest rates on deposits without raising interest rates on loans granted accordingly.

Due to the change of Interbank Offered Rates (IBOR) in the course of the implementation of the Benchmark Regulation, successor indicators may deviate from the LIBOR/EURIBOR rates. Therefore, the Issuer may experience changes or even lower income in the interest result.

Continuing Negative interest rates or further interest rate cuts could lead to a deterioration in the Issuer's operating result.

Interest on loans granted and other receivables is partly linked to reference (interest) rates (e.g. EURIBOR). If the relevant reference (interest) rate is negative, the Issuer must pass this on to borrowers. On the other hand, a negative interest rate may not be passed on in Austria for a large part of customer deposits. In addition, the minimum interest rates, if any, anchored in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes also prevent a negative interest rate from taking effect. Negative interest rates could therefore negatively affect the interest margins earned by the members of the Association of Volksbanks and lead to a deterioration of the Issuer's operating results.

There is a risk of impairments of collateral and/or commercial and real estate loans, which could reduce the collateralisation ratio.

Due to changing conditions in the money and capital markets and/or in the yield expectations of investors, changes and material impairments of the collateral and/or the Issuer's loan portfolio may occur. A decline in the market prices of the collateral would lead to a reduction in the collateralisation ratio of the Issuer's existing loan portfolio and to reduced opportunities to realise the collateral in the event of default by the Issuer's borrowers. With total assets of around EUR 32.1 billion, loans and advances to customers for the Association of Volksbanks amounted to around EUR 21.8 billion as at 31 December 2021, compared to collateral values of around EUR 19.1 billion. For VOLKSBANK WIEN AG, loans and advances to customers as at 31 December 2021 amount to approximately EUR 5.45 billion, which are offset by eligible collateral values of approximately EUR 5.1 billion. The balance sheet total of VOLKSBANK WIEN AG amounts to approximately EUR 16.9 billion.

The Issuer may have insufficient access to liquidity to fulfil its payment obligations or such liquidity may only be obtained by the Issuer under unfavourable conditions (liquidity risk/insolvency risk).

The Issuer is exposed to a liquidity risk, i.e. the risk of not having sufficient liquid funds available to fulfil payment obligations (insolvency risk).

In the case of insolvency risk, the Issuer may not be able to meet its payment obligations in full when they fall due. The Issuer is exposed to insolvency risk if liabilities falling due cannot be refinanced (rollover risk), depositors or investors unexpectedly withdraw their money prematurely (call risk), agreed cash inflows are not received or are received late (forward risk) and any additional liquid assets lose value (market liquidity risk).

The liquidity situation of the Issuer may also be negatively affected by the liquidity situation of other members of the Association of Volksbanks. VOLKSBANK WIEN is responsible for liquidity management throughout the Association and acts as a lender of last resort for the credit institutions assigned to it. The assigned credit institutions cover their refinancing requirements via VOLKSBANK WIEN and invest their surplus liquidity. The liquidity situation of the Issuer is therefore significantly influenced by the liquidity situation of the entire Association of Volksbanks.

Due to its business model as a retail bank, the Issuer's risk of insolvency mainly consists of a bank run (call risk). This occurs when customers withdraw large volumes of deposits within a short period of time due to a loss of confidence and, at the same time, alternative refinancing sources are not (or no longer) available to the Issuer.

There is a risk that the Issuer's refinancing possibilities may deteriorate and only be available at higher costs (refinancing risk/funding cost risk).

Refinancing risk or funding cost risk describes the risk of an unexpected increase in refinancing costs. Refinancing costs may increase, for example, due to a negative change in the Issuer's own credit rating or due to an intensified competitive environment for customer deposits for the Issuer as well as due to external factors (such as the COVID-19 pandemic; see the risk factor "The coronavirus ("COVID-19") pandemic may have a significant impact on the Issuer and/or the Association of Volksbanks and their customers.") increase. In the course of the COVID-19 pandemic, the rating for the Association of Volksbanks was changed by the rating agency Fitch, with the Long-Term Issuer Default Rating and the Viability Rating of the Association of Volksbanks being set to "Rating Watch Negative", meaning that there is an increased probability of a negative rating change. The ratings of the Moody's agency remained unchanged. There were also distortions on the capital markets and, as a result, an increase in refinancing costs; a long-term increase in refinancing costs cannot be ruled out in the event of further rating downgrades or capital market distortions.

The Issuer's refinancing options depend in part on the national and international capital markets. The Issuer's ability to find refinancing opportunities in the future at reasonable economic conditions depends on the economic development and situation of the Issuer and the Association of Volksbanks and, in addition, on market-related factors, such as the interest rate level, the availability of liquid funds or the situation of other institutions in the financial sector, over which the Issuer has no influence. The Issuer may not be able to obtain refinancing on reasonable terms on the capital market in the future. If the Issuer is unable to find acceptable refinancing opportunities on the capital market, this could reduce the Issuer's ability to obtain liquidity and consequently limit its ability to make payments on the Notes.

The Issuer's hedging strategies may prove to be ineffective.

The Issuer uses a range of instruments and strategies to hedge against risks. Due to unforeseeable market developments, such as the negative economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, the current developments in Russia and Ukraine or the change of reference values

(e.g. due to the Benchmark Regulation (EU) No. 596/2014), different reference (interest) rates may be applied in the underlying or customer business on the one hand and the related hedge business on the other hand. The resulting basis risk between the two reference (interest) rates may have a negative impact on the result. Such, or other market developments, may have a material impact on the effectiveness of the hedging measures (hedge efficiency) and thus increase the volatility of the Issuer's business results.

1.1.2 Risk factors relating to legal and regulatory risks of the Issuer

There is a risk that the Issuer's obligations under the Association of Volksbanks may have an adverse effect on the Issuer's net assets, financial position and results of operations due to the obligation to make financial contributions (association risk).

VOLKSBANK WIEN as the central organisation, the legally independent Volksbanks and a special credit institution form an association of credit institutions based on an association agreement (the "Association Agreement") on the basis of the approval granted by the European Central Bank (the "ECB") (as the competent authority) pursuant to § 30a BWG. The Association of Volksbanks is based, among other things, on (usually unlimited) mutual assumption of liability (e.g. in liquidity emergencies or in the event of a threatening deterioration in the financial position of a member of the Association of Volksbanks) by the central organisation and the associated credit institutions ("Liquidity and Joint Liability Scheme").

The issuer is obliged to make contributions to a trust fund for the Association of Volksbanks so that (e.g. in the event of a liquidity crisis of a member of the Association of Volksbanks) appropriate (intervention) measures can be taken in accordance with the provisions of the Association Agreement.

In this context, economic difficulties of one or more members of the Association of Volksbanks may have a negative impact on the other members - and thus also on the Issuer - due to the financial contribution obligation. This means that the Issuer must support other members with capital and/or liquidity that would no longer be available to it to carry out its own business activities.

Regulatory changes may lead to higher risk weights, especially in the new standardised approach for credit risk, and may thus have an adverse effect on the capital ratios of the Association of Volksbanks.

Expected regulatory changes include the new revision of Regulation (EU) No. 575/2013 as amended (Capital Requirements Regulation - "CRR"), which is expected to implement a new standardised approach for credit risk. Currently available information on the planned standardised approach for credit risk indicates that the risk weights for certain types of real estate financing will increase. In particular, for those financings of the issuer that are repaid from the cash flows of the financed properties (these represent approximately 7% of all financings at the level of the Association of Volksbanks), this may lead to an increase in the risk weights and subsequently to an adverse effect on the own funds ratios of the Association of Volksbanks.

The Issuer and the Association of Volksbanks are subject to a number of strict and extensive regulatory rules and requirements.

VOLKSBANK WIEN, the legally independent Volksbanks and a special credit institution form the Association of Volksbanks pursuant to § 30a BWG on the basis of the Association Agreement. § 30a BWG refers, inter alia, to the criteria in Article 10(1) CRR.

As Austrian credit institution and association of Austrian credit institutions, the Issuer and the Association of Volksbanks must comply with a number of regulatory rules and requirements at all times which continuously change and become more extensive and stricter.

- EU Banking Package and Reform of the Banking Union

The Banking Union is a system for the supervision and resolution of credit institutions (including the Issuer) on EU level which is based on EU wide rules and currently consists of the Single Supervisory Mechanism and the Single Resolution Mechanism.

On 7 June 2019, a legislative package for amendments of the following EU legal acts regarding the Banking Union ("EU Banking Package") was published:

- (i) Directive 2013/36/EU, as amended (Capital Requirements Directive);
- (ii) Regulation (EU) No 575/2013, as amended (Capital Requirements Regulation);
- (iii) BRRD; and (iv) SRMR.

The EU Banking Package, inter alia, includes the following measures which are a specific and material risk to the Issuer:

- a (binding) leverage ratio requirement for all institutions;
- a (binding) net stable funding ratio;
- revised rules on capital requirements for counterparty credit risk and for exposures to central counterparties;
- a revised Pillar 2 framework; and
- a stricter minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities ("MREL").

In Austria, the corresponding national implementation provisions entered into force with a delay of 29 May 2021, inter alia in the Banking Act ("BWG") and the Restructuring and Resolution Act ("BaSAG").

On 27.10.2021, the European Commission adopted another package of revisions to the CRR and CRD. These new rules aim to ensure that EU banks are better prepared for possible economic shocks, while contributing to Europe's recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic and the transition to climate neutrality. This package is currently being discussed with the European Parliament and the Council.

- Revised BCBS standards

The standards of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision ("BCBS") published on 14 January 2019 are to be transposed into EU law in order to become applicable and include the following topics:

- a revised standardised approach and the internal ratings-based approach for credit risk;
- revisions to the credit valuation adjustment (CVA) framework;
- a revised standardised approach for operational risk;

- revisions to the measurement of the leverage ratio; and
- the finalized revised market risk framework.

The revised BCBS standards are expected (due to a deferral) to take effect from 1 January 2023 and will be phased in over five years.

Compliance with these regulatory rules and requirements, in particular including the ongoing monitoring and implementation of new or amended rules and regulations cause significant costs and additional effort for the Issuer and any (factual or even only alleged) breach of such rules and requirements, such as the EU Banking Package and the amended BCBS Standards, may cause result in major regulatory measures and bear a main legal and reputational risk. [Furthermore, stricter regulatory rules and requirements result in significant capital demand for the Issuer and/or result in constraints and limitations on risk related business and other business of the Issuer; the latter will negatively affect the income and revenues of the Issuer.

The Issuer must comply with its applicable regulatory capital requirements at any time.

The Issuer and the Association of Volksbanks must comply with certain regulatory capital requirements (on an individual and/or consolidated basis) at any time:

- The Issuer and the Association of Volksbanks is required to satisfy the applicable minimum capital requirements pursuant to Article 92 CRR (so-called "Pillar 1 requirements") at all times. This includes a Common Equity Tier 1 ("CET 1") capital ratio of 4.5%, a Tier 1 capital ratio of 6% and a total capital ratio of 8%.
- In addition, the Association of Volksbanks is required to satisfy at all times the capital requirements that are imposed by the ECB following the SREP (so-called "Pillar 2 requirements") ("SREP add-on"), which consists of a minimum own funds requirement and an additional own funds requirement. As of the date of this Prospectus, the SREP add-on for the Association of Volksbanks is 2.50%. In addition, the Association of Volksbanks is required to satisfy the so-called "Pillar 2 guidance".
- Furthermore, the Issuer and the Association of Volksbanks must satisfy at all times the combined buffer requirement within the meaning of § 22a BWG in the form of CET 1 capital. For the Association of Volksbanks, the combined buffer requirement consists of the sum of the capital buffer requirement for compliance with (i) the capital conservation buffer of 2.5%, (ii) the countercyclical capital buffer for relevant credit exposures in Austria of 0.0%, (iii) the systemic risk buffer of 0.5%, (iv) the capital buffer requirement for other systemically important institutions (O-SII) of 0.5% based on the total risk exposure calculated pursuant to Article 92(3) CRR. For VOLKSBANK WIEN AG, the capital conservation buffer of 2.5% and the countercyclical capital buffer for relevant credit exposures in Austria of 0% apply.
- In addition, the Issuer shall meet MREL in accordance with BaSAG/the SRMR upon request of the resolution authority. This MREL target shall be determined by the resolution authority and shall be calculated as the amount of own funds and eligible liabilities (a) of the total risk exposure amount (TREA) calculated in accordance with Article 92(3) CRR; and (b) of the leverage ratio exposure calculated in accordance with Articles 429 and 429a CRR.

In addition, there are further statutory and regulatory requirements, in particular regarding capital adequacy and liquidity, with which the Issuer and/or the Association of Volksbanks must comply. Failure by the Issuer and/or the Association of Volksbanks to comply with applicable regulatory requirements (in particular capital adequacy and liquidity requirements) may result in increased regulatory measures (including the dissolution of the Association of Volksbanks) and (unplanned) additional (quantitative or qualitative) capital requirements for the Issuer and the Association of Volksbanks and/or restrictions and limitations on the Issuer's and the Association of Volksbanks' risk-related business and other business; the latter would have a negative impact on the Issuer's and the Association of Volksbanks' earnings and revenues.

There is a risk for the Issuer and/or the Association of Volksbanks that the fulfilment of the minimum amount of eligible liabilities could lead to a significant additional financial burden.

The Association of Volksbanks is currently required to meet the minimum amount of eligible liabilities at the consolidated level under the Single Resolution Mechanism ("SRM"). These minimum requirements are to be set by the resolution authority and are calculated as a percentage of the amount of own funds and eligible liabilities (a) in the total risk exposure amount (TREA) calculated in accordance with Article 92(3) CRR; and (b) in the leverage ratio exposure calculated in accordance with Articles 429 and 429a CRR. The Single Resolution Board ("SRB"), implemented by decision of the FMA dated 29.03.2022, required the Volksbank Group to meet own funds and eligible liabilities (MREL) on a consolidated basis in the amount of 22.97% of its total risk exposure amount (TREA, plus 3.5% combined buffer requirement) and 5.91% of its total risk exposure measure (leverage ratio exposure - LRE) as of December 31, 2024 and to comply with it at all times thereafter.

If dividends under a participation right issued by VB Rückzahlungsgesellschaft mbH in the course of restructuring measures are affected to the Republic of Austria, the Issuer is obliged to make contributions to such dividends.

In the course of measures to restructure the Association of Volksbanks, a participation right was issued by VB Rückzahlungsgesellschaft mbH (a wholly owned subsidiary of the Issuer) to the Federal Government (Bundesregierung) of the Republic of Austria (the "Austrian Government Participation Right") to fulfil the commitments given vis-à-vis the Republic of Austria to obtain the state aid law approval for the restructuring from the European Commission.

The members of the Association of Volksbanks (including the Issuer) agreed under the existing restructuring agreement to make contributions to the disbursements under the Austrian Government Participation Right. As long as payments on the federal profit participation right are still outstanding, the members of the Association of Volksbanks are restricted in their ability to make profit distributions or measures equivalent thereto to shareholders/cooperative members or holders of participation certificates.

In addition, certain shareholders of the Issuer agreed to transfer certain shares of the Issuer to the Federal Government without consideration as ownership transferred by way of security after receipt of a corresponding statement of purchase by the Federal Government, meaning that the Federal Government consequently holds a total of 25% plus one share in the Issuer.. The Federal Government is obliged to transfer said shares back to the shareholders without consideration, as soon as the sum of the dividends, on the participation right held by the Federal Government, received by the Federal Government and other creditable amounts, as defined in the Restructuring Agreement 2015, reaches EUR 300 million. As of the date of this Prospectus, EUR 100 million of the Austrian Government Participation Right was still outstanding.

VB Rückzahlungsgesellschaft mbH's ability to redeem the Austrian Government Participation Right materially depends on the economic developments of the Association of Volksbanks. If such developments clearly fell short of the expectations and forecasts, this could have a negative impact on VB Rückzahlungsgesellschaft mbH's ability to redeem the Austrian Government Participation. This would continue to restrict certain members ability to make profit distributions or measures equivalent thereto to shareholders/participants or holders of participation certificates.

At the same time, the Issuer and other members of the Association of Volksbanks would be obliged to transfer further ordinary shares in VOLKSBANK WIEN to the Federal Government for free disposal without further consideration. However, this transfer would have no effect on the capital ratios of the Association of Volksbanks as a whole (consolidated view across all members of the Association of Volksbanks).

There is a risk that a credit rating agency suspends, downgrades or withdraws a credit rating of the Issuer and/or the Association of Volksbanks, all of which could lead to a credit and liquidity risk (risk of credit rating changes).

The Issuer has a rating from the credit rating agencies Moody's Investors Service Ltd. and Fitch Ratings, Inc. A credit rating represents an assessment of creditworthiness prepared by a credit rating agency, i.e. a forecast or indicator of the solvency of the Issuer and/or the Association of Volksbanks (in the latter case indirectly also of the Issuer).

A credit rating agency may suspend, downgrade or withdraw a credit rating at any time in justified cases. Any such action may seriously impact the credit rating and liquidity of the Issuer and have an adverse effect on the market price of the Notes. The credit rating of the Association of Volksbanks may also be negatively affected in particular by a deterioration of the creditworthiness of one or more individual members of the Association of Volksbanks. A downgrading of the credit rating may also lead to a restriction of access to funds and, consequently, to higher refinancing costs for the members of the Association of Volksbanks, including the Issuer. A credit rating may also be suspended or withdrawn if the Association of Volksbanks or the Issuer were to terminate the agreement with the relevant credit rating agency or to determine that it would not be in its interest to continue to supply financial data to a credit rating agency.

A suspension, downgrade or withdrawal of a rating of the Association of Volksbanks may undermine confidence in the Issuer, increase the Issuer's refinancing costs, restrict access to refinancing and capital markets or restrict the range of counterparties to enter into transactions with the Issuer.

If the credit rating of the Issuer's covered bonds (fundierte Bankschuldverschreibungen) would no longer be an investment grade ("Investment Grade") rating, the Issuer's covered bonds could no longer be deposited at the ECB as collateral, which could lead to a liquidity.

If the relevant conditions are met, the resolution authority shall apply resolution actions in relation to the Issuer.

Directive 2014/59/EU, as amended ("BRRD", Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive) and Regulation (EU) No. 806/2014, as amended ("SRMR", Single Resolution Mechanism Regulation) form the main legal basis for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions (including the Issuer) in the Banking Union.

If the conditions for resolution are met, the resolution authority shall take resolution actions (i.e. resolution tools and resolution powers) in relation to the Issuer in order to be able to exercise an orderly resolution, if the Issuer is failing (or likely to fail) and to preserve the financial stability.

The conditions for resolution of the Issuer are:

- the determination that the Issuer is failing or likely to fail has been made by the competent authority or the resolution authority; and
- having regard to timing and other relevant circumstances, there is no reasonable prospect that any alternative private sector measures, or supervisory action, including early intervention measures or the write-down or conversion of relevant capital instruments and eligible liabilities taken in respect of the Issuer, would prevent the failure of the Issuer within a reasonable timeframe; and
- a resolution action is necessary in the public interest.

The resolution authority has so-called resolution powers, which it may exercise individually or in any combination in relation to or for the preparation of the application of a resolution tool in relation to the Issuer. The various resolution tools are: (i) the sale of business tool; (ii) the bridge institution tool; (iii) the asset separation tool; and (iv) the bail-in tool.

By applying the bail-in tool the resolution authority may write down eligible liabilities in a cascading contribution to loss absorption of the Issuer or convert them into instruments of ownership. Moreover, the resolution authority can separate the performing assets from the impaired or under-performing assets and transfer the shares in the Issuer or all or part of the assets of the Issuer to a private purchaser or a bridge institution without the consent of the shareholders.

1.1.3 Risk factors relating to other risks affecting the Issuer

The Issuer and the Association of Volksbanks are exposed to the risk that certain strategic measures cannot be implemented and/or even if they are implemented, that such measures might not achieve the envisaged effects.

The macro-economic environment, and particularly the low interest rate levels, require a tightening of the cost structure as well as an increase of productivity within the Association of Volksbanks. In order to achieve this inter alia further cooperation-models within and outside the Association of Volksbanks are being evaluated. Further strategic measures may be required to be taken in order to tighten the cost structure and increase productivity within the Association of Volksbanks. Due to the governance structure within the Association of Volksbanks, there is risk that these and/or other strategic measures cannot be implemented if one or more members of the Association of Volksbanks do not consent to such measures. If any of these risks occur, this could materially negatively affect the Issuer and the Association of Volksbanks and could thus, limit the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes.

The Issuer and the Association of Volksbanks are exposed to the risk that certain strategic measures may not be implemented and/or, even if implemented, may not achieve the expected effects.

The macroeconomic environment, and in particular the low interest rate environment, require a streamlining of the cost structure and an increase in productivity of the Association of Volksbanks. To this end, further cooperation models within and outside the Association of Volksbanks are being evaluated, among other things. Further strategic measures to streamline the cost structure and increase the productivity of the Association of Volksbanks may become necessary. Due to the organisational structure of the Association of Volksbanks, there is a risk that these and/or other strategic measures cannot be implemented if one or more members of the Association of Volksbanks do not agree to such measures. The occurrence of any of these risks could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer and the Association of Volksbanks, and therefore on the Issuer's ability to meet its obligations under the Notes.

The occurrence of sustainability risks may have a negative impact on the value of assets or on the net assets, financial position and results of operations as well as the reputation of the Issuer and/or the Association of Volksbanks.

Sustainability risks refer to events or conditions relating to climate, the environment, social issues or corporate governance, the occurrence of which could have a negative impact on the value of assets or on the net assets, financial position and results of operations as well as the reputation of the Issuer and/or the Association of Volksbanks. Sustainability risks arise because climate, environmental, social and corporate governance concerns may affect counterparties, customers and other contractual partners of the Issuer and/or the Association of Volksbanks. For example, physical risks may arise as a result of changes in climatic and/or environmental conditions (e.g. environmental disasters, extreme weather events) or transition risks as a result of the adjustment process towards a lower-carbon and more environmentally sustainable economy (e.g. additional investment needs, depreciation of fixed assets, costs due to political measures to protect the climate and the environment, new technologies).

Significant unexpected losses may occur due to inadequacies or failures of internal processes, people, systems or external events (operational risk).

Operational risk is understood by the Issuer as the risk of unexpected losses occurring as a result of the inadequacies or failure of the Issuer's internal controls, processes, people, systems or external events, including legal risk. Legal risk is understood by the Issuer to mean, for example, the lack of authority of a counterparty of the Issuer to enter into a transaction, contractual deficiencies or incomplete documentation of transactions, which may result in claims of the Issuer arising from transactions being legally unenforceable. Such operational risks include the risk of unexpected losses for the Issuer as a result of individual events arising, inter alia, from defective information systems, inadequate organisational structures or ineffective control mechanisms. Such risks also include the risk of higher costs or losses for the Issuer due to generally unfavourable economic or trading trends. Damage to the Issuer's reputation that it could suffer as a result of one of these events also falls into this risk category.

If operational risk occurs, this may lead to unexpectedly high losses and consequently significantly reduce the Issuer's ability to make payments under the Notes and have a materially negative impact on the market price of the Notes.

1.2 GENERAL RISKS IN CONNECTION WITH THE NOTES

Potential holders of Notes which are the subject of this Prospectus and the relevant Final Terms should consider the risk factors described below which are specific to the Notes and material to making an informed investment decision and should only make such a decision on the basis of this entire Prospectus, including the relevant Final Terms and the Issue Specific Summary.

No person should acquire the Notes without having a thorough understanding of the operation of the relevant Note and being aware of the risk of possible loss. Each potential Holder should carefully consider whether an investment in the Notes is suitable for it in the circumstances and in light of its personal circumstances and financial position.

Prospective investors should also read the detailed information elsewhere in this Prospectus and consult their own advisers (including financial advisers, accountants, tax and legal advisers) and make up their own minds before making any investment decision.

Terms and expressions defined in section "5 Terms and Conditions" shall have the same meanings in this section "1.2 General Risks in connection with the Notes".

The following risk factors are categorised according to their nature (for each category, the most significant risk factor is listed first):

1.2.1 Risk factors relating to the interest rate structure of the Notes

Holders of fixed rate Notes or Notes with fixed rate periods with respect to such periods bear the risk that the market price of such Notes will decline due to changes in the level of market interest rates.

Holders of fixed rate Notes (or Notes with fixed rate periods in respect of such periods) bear the risk that the market price of such Notes will decline due to changes in the level of market interest rates. While the nominal interest rate on fixed rate Notes is fixed in advance during the term of such Notes (or, in the case of Notes with fixed rate periods, with respect to such periods), the interest rate in the capital markets for comparable Notes (the "market interest rate level") typically changes daily and causes the market price of the Notes to change daily.

As the market interest rate level fluctuates, the market price of fixed rate Notes or fixed period Notes typically changes in the opposite direction from the market interest rate level. If the market interest rate level rises, the market price of fixed rate Notes or Notes with fixed rate periods typically falls until the yield on such Notes is approximately equal to the market interest rate level.

Interest rate risk arises when fixed rate Notes or Notes with fixed interest periods are sold before final maturity. The longer the period to final maturity of fixed rate Notes or fixed period Notes and the lower the interest rate of fixed rate Notes or fixed period Notes, the greater the fluctuations in the market price of fixed rate Notes or fixed period Notes when market interest rates change. The same applies to Notes with an increasing fixed interest rate (step-up Notes)

if the market interest rates for comparable Notes are higher than the interest rates applicable to such Notes.

Changes in market interest rates have a greater impact on the market prices of Zero Coupon Notes than on the market prices of other Notes.

Zero Coupon Notes do not have a coupon. A Holder of Zero Coupon Notes bears the risk that the market price of such Notes may decline due to changes in the level of market interest rates. The market price of Zero Coupon Notes behaves more volatile than the market price of interest-bearing Notes and is more sensitive to changes in the level of market interest rates than interest-bearing Notes of similar maturity. Zero Coupon Notes may therefore experience a significantly higher adverse impact on their market price due to changes in market interest rates.

Holders of floating rate Notes or Notes with floating rate periods with respect to such periods bear the risk of fluctuating interest rate levels and uncertain interest income.

Holders of floating rate Notes (or floating rate Notes with respect to such periods) bear the risk of fluctuating market interest rate levels and uncertain interest income. Because of the fluctuating level of market interest rates, it is not possible to determine in advance the yield on floating rate Notes or Notes with floating rate periods with respect to such periods. If floating rate Notes or Notes with floating rate periods are structured with respect to such periods in such a way that they contain multipliers (participation factors), maximum interest rates or minimum interest rates, or a combination of such features, the market price may be more volatile than that of floating rate Notes or Notes with floating rate periods that do not contain such features.

The performance of floating rate Notes or Notes with floating rate periods with respect to such periods depends in particular on the development of the market interest rate level, the supply and demand on the secondary market and the creditworthiness of the Issuer. Changes in one or more of these factors may therefore lead to fluctuations in the market price of these Notes. Changes in the level of market interest rates during an interest period may also adversely affect the level of interest in subsequent interest periods.

In the case of Notes with a fixed-to-floating or a fixed-to-fixed interest rate, the interest rate after switching from a fixed interest rate to a floating interest rate or another fixed rate may be less advantageous for Holders than the previously fixed interest rate.

The change from a fixed to a floating interest rate or from one fixed interest rate to another fixed interest rate affects the market price of the Notes. When switching from a fixed to a floating interest rate or from one fixed to another fixed interest rate, the floating or the fixed interest rate may be lower than that of the fixed interest period and that of a comparable floating or fixed rate Note.

In the case of Notes with a target coupon, the Holder bears the risk of early redemption as soon as a certain interest amount is reached.

If Notes include a target coupon, the Holder bears the risk of early redemption once the aggregate interest paid under such Notes reaches a certain amount. This may adversely affect the Holder's liquidity planning. As a result of the early redemption, the Holder may lose expected income, as the amount it receives upon early redemption may be lower than the market price and/or the redemption amount of the Notes (see also the risk factor "In the case of Notes with a right to early redemption by the Issuer, the Holder also bears a higher market price risk (risk of early redemption) in addition to the risk of early redemption.").

Changes in Benchmarks upon which the Notes may be based may have a material adverse effect on the market price of and payments under the Notes.

The Euro Interbank Offered Rate (EURIBOR), ICE Swap Rates and comparable indices may be used as reference (interest) rates, so-called benchmarks, in relation to the Notes. These benchmarks may qualify as a benchmark ("Benchmark") within the meaning of the Benchmark Regulation, the provisions of which have largely been applicable since 1 January 2018. Under the Benchmark Regulation, a Benchmark cannot be used as such if its administrator has not applied for approval, is not registered or is not domiciled in any EU Member State, as a result of which (depending on applicable transitional provisions) the conditions for equivalence are not met, it is not recognised pending such decision or it is not approved for such purposes. Consequently, it would not be possible to continue to use a Benchmark as a reference (interest) rate for the Notes. In such a case, the Notes could be adjusted, delisted or otherwise affected, depending on the relevant Benchmark and the relevant Final Terms.

In addition to the aforementioned Benchmark Regulation, there are a variety of other proposals, initiatives and studies that may impact Benchmarks. As a result of the implementation of one or more of these potential reforms, the manner in which the Benchmarks are administered could change, causing them to function differently than in the past, or Benchmarks could be eliminated altogether, or there could be other consequences that are not currently foreseeable.

Any changes to a Benchmark as a result of the Benchmark Regulation or other initiatives could have a material adverse effect on the cost of funding a Benchmark or on the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the establishment of a Benchmark and complying with such rules and requirements. Such factors could have the effect of discouraging market participants from continuing to administer or participate in certain Benchmarks. Further, these factors could change the rules and methodologies used for certain Benchmarks, adversely affect the operation of a Benchmark or result in the elimination of certain Benchmarks. Potential investors should be aware of the risk that any changes in the relevant Benchmarks could have a material adverse effect on the market price and payments under the Notes.

Notes that have certain features that are advantageous to Holders, such as a minimum interest rate, may also have features that are disadvantageous to Holders, such as a maximum interest rate or a higher issue price.

Floating rate Notes and Notes that have floating rate periods may have certain features that are beneficial to Holders, such as a minimum interest rate, but typically also have features that may be more detrimental to Holders (such as a maximum interest rate or a higher issue price) than the features of comparable Notes that do not have a minimum interest rate. If a maximum interest rate has been set, the level of the floating rate will never rise above it and therefore the Holder will not be able to benefit from a favourable movement in the reference (interest) rate above the maximum interest rate. The yield on the Notes could therefore be considerably lower than that of similarly structured Notes without a maximum interest rate.

1.2.2 Risk factors relating to the ranking of the Notes

1.2.2.1 Risk factors regarding Covered Bank Bonds¹

To the extent that claims of Holders of the Covered Bank Bonds are not covered by the assets of the relevant cover pool, the Holders are exposed to the risk of statutory loss absorption.

The Single Resolution Mechanism shall provide the relevant resolution authorities with uniform and effective resolution tools and resolution powers in order to achieve the resolution objectives.

The main resolution tool is the bail-in tool. When applying the bail-in tool, the resolution authority shall exercise the write-down and conversion powers in accordance with the following sequence (also called "loss absorbing cascade"): (i) CET 1 items; (ii) AT 1 instruments; (iii) Tier 2 instruments; (iv) subordinated debt that is not AT 1 or Tier 2 capital; (v) unsecured claims resulting from debt instruments which meet the conditions pursuant to § 131(3)(1) to (3) BaSAG (so-called "non-preferred senior debt instruments"); and (vi) the rest of bail-inable liabilities (such as any liabilities under the Covered Bank Bonds which are not covered by the assets of the relevant cover pool) in accordance with the hierarchy of claims in bankruptcy proceedings, including the ranking provided for deposits in § 131 BaSAG, to the extent required.

To the extent claims of Holders under Covered Bank Bonds are not covered by the assets of the relevant cover pool, these claims may be subject to the bail-in tool and thus be fully or partially written down or converted into instruments of ownership. For the avoidance of doubt, the aforesaid applies also to claims under Covered Bank Bonds which are not covered by the assets of the relevant cover pool issued as green bonds or social bonds.

In case of an insolvency of the Issuer, certain deposits and certain other claims have a higher ranking than claims resulting from the Covered Bank Bonds if and to the extent their claims are not covered by the assets of the relevant cover pool.

According to § 131 BaSAG, in bankruptcy proceedings opened over the Issuer's assets, the following insolvency hierarchy applies to deposits and senior unsecured claims:

- (a) (i) covered deposits; and (ii) deposit guarantee schemes subrogating to the rights and obligations of covered depositors in insolvency;
- (b) (i) that part of eligible deposits from natural persons and micro, small and medium-sized enterprises which exceeds the covered deposits; and (ii) deposits that would be eligible deposits from natural persons, micro, small and medium-sized enterprises if they are not made through branches (located outside the EU) of institutions established within the EU;
- (c) the liquidity reserve within a liquidity association and a credit institution association pursuant to § 30a BWG, in each case, to the extent required by § 27a BWG;
- (d) ordinary unsecured claims (such as any claims under the Covered Bank Bonds which are not covered by the assets of the cover pool); and

¹ The risk factors in this section 1.2.2.1 apply to Covered Bank Bonds to be issued until (but excluding) the PfandBG enters into force on 8 July 2022.

- (e) unsecured claims resulting from debt instruments which meet the conditions pursuant to § 131(3)(1) to (3) BaSAG (so-called "non-preferred senior debt instruments"), i.e. debt instruments that meet the following conditions: (i) the original contractual maturity of the debt instruments is of at least one year; (ii) the debt instruments contain no embedded derivatives and are not derivatives themselves; and (iii) the relevant contractual documentation and, where applicable, the prospectus related to the issuance explicitly refer to the lower ranking under § 131(3) BaSAG.

To the extent the assets of the respective cover pool are not sufficient to satisfy all claims of the Holders under the Covered Bank Bonds, Holders may claim such amounts in case of bankruptcy proceedings opened over the assets of the Issuer, but only taking into account the ranking of claims pursuant to § 131 BaSAG. Therefore, in case of bankruptcy proceedings and any comparable proceedings (such as resolution proceedings) opened in relation to the Issuer, any claims resulting from the Covered Bank Bonds which are not covered by the assets of the relevant cover pool are junior to the claims listed in points (a) to (c). For this reason, any payments on any claims resulting from the Covered Bank Bonds which are not covered by the assets of the relevant cover pool would only be made, if and to the extent any senior ranking claims have been fully satisfied. This insolvency hierarchy is also relevant for the sequence of write-down and conversion where the Issuer is placed under resolution.

The cover assets for the Covered Bank Bonds or the liquidity buffer may not at all times be sufficient in order to cover the Issuer's obligations under the Covered Bank Bonds or replacement values might not be added in due time to the cover fund.

The Covered Bank Bonds are covered (gedeckt) by assets (Vermögenswerte) which meet the requirements set out in the FBSchVG. Payment claims of Holders of the Covered Bank Bonds are collateralized by different (types of) cover pools (Deckungsstöcke) with different cover assets (Vermögenswerte).

In the event of insolvency or enforcement proceedings regarding the Issuer or its assets, the relevant cover assets are separated from the Issuer's other assets and may not be used to satisfy claims of creditors of the Issuer other than the Holders of Covered Bank Bonds which are covered by these cover assets.

However, the cover assets of the relevant cover pool for the relevant Covered Bank Bonds could not at all times be sufficient to cover the obligations under the respective Covered Bank Bonds or replacement values could not be added in due time to the relevant cover pool. The relevant cover pools are managed separately and do not collateralise all Covered Bank Bonds, but only those, which are allocated to the relevant cover pool. Accordingly, investors cannot rely that assets of another cover pool, to which their Covered Bank Bonds are not allocated, may be used to satisfy their claims.

The Covered-Bank-Bonds could be redeemed after their Maturity Date.

The relevant final terms of the Covered Bank Bonds may provide that their term is extended to the Extended Maturity Date, if the Issuer is unable to pay the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Covered Bank Bonds on the Maturity Date. In such case, the Issuer will without delay, but in any case not later than a defined number of business days prior to the Maturity Date, inform the Holders that an extension of the term of the Covered Bank Bonds has occurred by publishing a notice which will specify the Extended Maturity Date.

Therefore, Holders must not expect repayment of the outstanding aggregate principal amount on the (original) Maturity Date of the Covered Bank Bonds and are not entitled to terminate the Covered Bank Bonds if the term of the Covered Bank Bonds is extended. However, such extension of the maturity shall not constitute a default and the Holders shall not receive any compensation for such extension (other than interest accruing). Furthermore, Holders may receive lower interest payments during such extended period, provided that the Covered Bank Bonds are no zero coupon covered bank bonds, as the relevant applicable rate of interest may be lower than the rate of interest which applied in the preceding interest periods.

Furthermore, the maturity extension set forth in § 22 PfandBG also applies ex lege to issuances of Covered Bank Bonds which do not provide for an explicit maturity extension in their terms and conditions. As a maturity extension must not change the sequence of the original maturity schedule of the covered bond programme if a maturity extension for a specific Series of Covered Bonds or Covered Bank Bonds is triggered, if applicable, the maturity of other Series of Covered Bank Bonds within a covered bond programme would be deemed postponed (regardless of whether they provide for maturity extension structures or not), for so long as is necessary to maintain the sequence of the original maturity schedule. As a result, Holders of such other Series of Covered Bank Bonds whose maturity date would fall within the period of the maturity extension of a specific Series of Covered Bank Bonds or Covered Bonds are exposed to the risk that, if applicable, the maturity of their Covered Bank Bonds is extended, even where the terms and conditions did not foresee an extension of maturity, and in such case they will not receive repayment of the principal amount as expected on the initial maturity date. Such Holders will only receive their principal amount on a later date once all payments under the specific Series of Covered Bank Bonds or Covered Bonds for which the maturity extension was triggered have been serviced in full on the Extended Maturity Date determined for such Series of Covered Bank Bonds or Covered Bonds. Such an extension of maturity and payment deferral would not constitute an event of default for any purpose and would not give the Holders of such Covered Bank Bonds a right to accelerate or terminate the Covered Bank Bonds. Holders should also be aware that the delayed repayment of their Series of Covered Bank Bonds after a maturity extension in the above described circumstances might result in the available assets of the cover pool being reduced or depleted, thereby causing a maturity extension of the Covered Bank Bonds of the respective Holders or, in a worst case, an insufficiency or insolvency of the cover pool.

Finally, as a maturity extension pursuant to § 22 PfandBG is to be initiated by a special administrator, and the Extended Maturity Date will be set by such special administrator without the Issuer having any right of approval in it, Holders should be aware that they have no right to request (or reject) such a maturity extension, and therefore no maturity extension might be made (or a maturity extension might be made despite the wish of a Holder) and cover pool assets might be liquidated at a time of market disruptions and/or low prices, resulting in the liquidation proceeds being less than if the maturity had been extended (or not extended) by the special administrator.

The lending limit for residential properties in the cover pool for Covered Bank Bonds could be increased.

The Issuer's Articles of Association currently provide that a lending limit of 60% applies in principle to all cover assets of the cover pool for funded bonds. After the PfandBG comes into force on 08.07.2022, the Issuer could continue the existing cover pool for issues of Covered Bank Bonds under the FBSchVG for the issue of Covered Bonds under the PfandBG. The consequence of this is that existing issues of Covered Bank Bonds under the FBSchVG after 08.07.2022 could be collateralized by a cover pool with a lending limit of up to 80% (instead of 60% at present) for residential property (pursuant to Article 129 CRR), whereby the exact date of the increase of the lending limit is still open as at the date of this Prospectus. Thus, Holders of Covered Bank Bonds issued under this Prospectus prior to 08.07.2022 (this includes Covered Bank Bonds whose aggregate principal amount is increased) are exposed to the risk that after 08.07.2022 a lending limit of up to 80% for residential property could also apply to the cover pool of their Covered Bank Bonds.

1.2.2.2 Risk factors relating to Covered Bonds²

To the extent that claims of Holders under the Covered Bonds are not covered by the assets of the cover pool, the Holders are exposed to the risk of a statutory loss sharing obligation.

The Single Resolution Mechanism shall provide the relevant resolution authorities with uniform and effective resolution tools and resolution powers in order to achieve the resolution objectives.

The main resolution tool is the bail-in tool. When applying the bail-in tool, the resolution authority shall exercise the write-down and conversion powers in accordance with the following sequence (also called "loss absorbing cascade"): (i) CET 1 items; (ii) AT 1 instruments; (iii) Tier 2 instruments; (iv) subordinated debt that is not AT 1 or Tier 2 capital; (v) unsecured claims resulting from debt instruments which meet the conditions pursuant to § 131(3)(1) to (3) BaSAG (so-called "non-preferred senior debt instruments"); and (vi) the rest of bail-inable liabilities (such as any liabilities under the Covered Bonds which are not covered by the assets of the relevant cover pool) in accordance with the hierarchy of claims in bankruptcy proceedings, including the ranking provided for deposits in § 131 BaSAG, to the extent required.

To the extent claims of Holders under the Covered Bonds are not covered by the assets of the relevant cover pool, these claims may be subject to the bail-in tool and thus be fully or partially written down or converted into instruments of ownership. For the avoidance of doubt, the aforesaid applies also to claims under Covered Bonds which are not covered by the assets of the relevant cover pool issued as green bonds or social bonds.

² The risk factors in this section apply to Covered Bonds to be issued from (and including) the entry into force of the PfandBG on 8 July 2022.

In case of an insolvency of the Issuer, certain deposits and certain other claims have a higher ranking than claims resulting from the Covered Bonds if and to the extent their claims are not covered by the assets of the relevant cover pool.

According to § 131 BaSAG, in bankruptcy proceedings opened over the Issuer's assets, the following insolvency hierarchy applies to deposits and senior unsecured claims:

- (a) (i) covered deposits; and (ii) deposit guarantee schemes subrogating to the rights and obligations of covered depositors in insolvency;
- (b) (i) that part of eligible deposits from natural persons and micro, small and medium-sized enterprises which exceeds the covered deposits; and (ii) deposits that would be eligible deposits from natural persons and micro, small and medium-sized enterprises if they are not made through branches (located outside the EU) of institutions established within the EU;
- (c) the liquidity reserve within a liquidity association pursuant to § 27a BWG and within a credit institution association pursuant to § 30a BWG, in each case, to the extent required by § 27a BWG;
- (d) claims of ordinary senior unsecured creditors (such as any claims of Holders under the Covered Bonds which are not covered by the assets of the relevant cover pool); and
- (e) unsecured claims resulting from debt instruments (unbesicherte Forderungen aus Schuldtiteln) which meet the conditions pursuant to § 131(3)(1) to (3) BaSAG (so-called "non-preferred senior debt instruments"), i.e. debt instruments that meet the following conditions: (i) the original contractual maturity of the debt instruments is of at least one year; (ii) the debt instruments contain no embedded derivatives and are not derivatives themselves; and (iii) the relevant contractual documentation and, where applicable, the prospectus related to the issuance explicitly refer to the lower ranking under § 131(3) BaSAG.

To the extent the assets of the relevant cover pool are not sufficient to satisfy all claims of the Holders under the Covered Bonds, Holders may claim such amounts in case of bankruptcy proceedings opened over the assets of the Issuer, but only taking into account the ranking of claims pursuant to § 131 BaSAG. Therefore, in case of bankruptcy proceedings opened over the assets of the Issuer, claims of Holders under the Covered Bonds which are not covered by the assets of the relevant cover pool would be junior to claims listed above in points (a) to (c). Therefore, they will only receive payment of such claims if and to the extent that their claims (which are senior to them) have been discharged in full. This insolvency hierarchy is also relevant for the sequence of write-down and conversion where the Issuer is placed under resolution.

If the relevant Final Terms provide for conditions for a maturity extension, Covered Bonds may be redeemed after their Maturity Date and in case a maturity extension for a specific Series of Covered Bonds or Covered Bank Bonds is triggered, if applicable, Holders of other Series of Covered Bonds whose maturity date would fall within the period of the maturity extension of a specific Series of Covered Bonds or Covered Bank Bonds will not receive their principal amount as expected on the relevant maturity date.

The relevant Final Terms may provide that upon the occurrence of the objective trigger event (as set out in the Terms and Conditions of the Covered Bonds) the maturity of the Covered Bonds will be postponed once by up to 12 months to the Extended Maturity Date. In the event of a maturity extension, repayment of the outstanding aggregate principal amount will be postponed and, notwithstanding the statutory regime on acceleration and liquidation of the cover asset pool, shall become due and payable on the Extended Maturity Date, together with accrued interest, if any, to, but excluding, the Extended Maturity Date. In such case, interest will continue to accrue on the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Covered Bonds during the period from, and including, the (original) Maturity Date to, but excluding, the Extended Maturity Date at the relevant rate of interest set out in the relevant Final Terms and will be payable by the Issuer on each Interest Payment Date from, and excluding, the (original) Maturity Date to, and including, the Extended Maturity Date (each as set out in the relevant Final Terms) in accordance with the relevant Terms and Conditions of the Covered Bonds. However, such extension of maturity will not constitute an event of default and Holders will not receive any compensation for such extension (other than that interest will accrue). The Holders shall not be entitled to any further interest payments as from the Extended Maturity Date. Thus, Holders must not expect repayment of the outstanding aggregate principal amount on the (original) Maturity Date and are not entitled to terminate the Covered Bonds if the term of the Covered Bonds is extended. Furthermore, Holders may receive lower interest payments during such extended period as the relevant applicable rate of interest may be lower than the (respective) rate of interest which applied in the preceding interest periods.

Furthermore, a maturity extension must not change the sequence of the original maturity schedule of the covered bond programme. Consequently, if a maturity extension by up to 12 months for a specific Series of Covered Bonds or Covered Bank Bonds is triggered, if applicable, the maturity of other Series of Covered Bonds within a covered bond programme shall be deemed postponed (regardless of whether they provide for maturity extension structures or not), in each case, for so long as necessary to maintain the sequence of the original maturity schedule. As a result, Holders of such other Series of Covered Bonds whose maturity date would fall within the period of the maturity extension by up to 12 months of a specific Series of Covered Bonds or Covered Bank Bonds bear the risk that, if applicable, they do not receive their principal amount as expected on the relevant maturity date. Such Holders will receive their principal amount on a later date once all payments under the specific Series of Covered Bonds or Covered Bank Bonds for which the maturity extension was triggered have been serviced in full on the Extended Maturity Date determined for such Series of Covered Bonds or Covered Bank Bonds. Such payment deferral for the other Series of Covered Bonds does not constitute an event of default of the Issuer for any purpose and does not give the Holders of such other Series of Covered Bonds any right to accelerate or terminate the Covered Bonds. Holders should also be aware that the repayment of another Series of Covered Bonds after a maturity extension by up to 12 months of such Series of Covered Bonds or Covered Bank Bonds might result in the available assets of the relevant cover pool being reduced or depleted, thereby causing the necessity of a maturity extension of the Covered Bonds of the respective Holders.

Finally, as a maturity extension will be initiated by a special administrator, and the Extended Maturity Date will be set by such special administrator without the Issuer having any discretion in it, Holders should be aware that they have no right to request such maturity extension, and it therefore might occur that no maturity extension will be made and cover pool assets might be liquidated at a time of market disruptions and/or low prices, resulting in the liquidation proceeds being less than if the maturity had been extended by the special administrator.

The cover assets or the liquidity buffer for the Covered Bonds may not at all times be sufficient to cover the Issuer's obligations under the Covered Bonds and/or replacement values may not be added in due time to the relevant cover fundpool.

Covered Bonds are secured or covered (gedeckt) by assets (Vermögenswerte) which meet the requirements set out in the PfandBG. Payment claims of Holders of Covered Bonds are collateralized through different (types of) cover pools (Deckungsstöcke) with different cover assets (Vermögenswerte).

In the event of insolvency, resolution or enforcement proceedings regarding the Issuer and/or its assets, the relevant cover assets are separated from the Issuer's other assets and may not be used to satisfy claims of creditors of the Issuer other than the Holders of Covered Bonds which are covered by these cover assets.

However, the cover assets of the cover pool relevant for the respective Covered Bonds may not at all times be sufficient to cover the obligations under the respective Covered Bonds or replacement values may not be added in due time to the relevant cover pool. Furthermore, loan receivables that will be originated after 8 July 2022 may only be entered in the cover register as cover assets with the consent of the borrower. Without the legally required consent, an entry is not deemed to have been made, and in such case loan receivables entered in the cover register would cease to be cover assets and thus other cover assets or replacement assets which an Issuer might not necessarily have available at all times would need to be added to the cover pool.

The cover pools are managed separately and do not collateralize all Covered Bonds, but only those which are allocated to the relevant cover pool. Accordingly, investors should not rely on the assets of any other cover pool than the one to which their Covered Bonds have been allocated to being used to satisfy their claims.

There is also the risk that no or a not sufficient liquidity buffer within the meaning of § 21 PfandBG will be built up from assets eligible to cover the net liquidity outflow of the covered bond programme for the Covered Bonds. Also, even if such liquidity buffer can be built up, it may not at all times be sufficient to cover the net liquidity outflow of the covered bond programme.

1.2.2.3 Risks in connection with the senior Notes

Holders of the senior Notes are exposed to the risk of statutory loss absorption.

The Single Resolution Mechanism shall provide the relevant resolution authorities with uniform and effective resolution tools and resolution powers in order to achieve the resolution objectives.

The main resolution tool is the bail-in tool. When applying the bail-in tool, the resolution authority shall exercise the write-down and conversion powers in accordance with the following sequence (also called "loss absorbing cascade"): (i) CET 1 items; (ii) AT 1 instruments; (iii) Tier 2 instruments; (iv) subordinated debt that is not AT 1 or Tier 2 capital; (v) unsecured claims resulting from debt instruments which meet the conditions pursuant to § 131(3)(1) to (3) BaSAG (so-called "non-preferred senior debt instruments"); and (vi) the rest of bail-inable liabilities (such as the senior Notes) in accordance with the hierarchy of claims in bankruptcy proceedings, including the ranking provided for deposits in § 131 BaSAG, to the extent required.

Furthermore, where the Issuer meets the conditions for resolution and the resolution authority decides to apply a resolution tool to the Issuer, the resolution authority shall exercise the write down or conversion power in relation to relevant capital instruments (i.e. CET 1, AT 1 and Tier 2 instruments) and certain eligible liabilities (such as the Non-Preferred Senior Eligible Notes) before applying any resolution tool (other than the bail-in tool).

If the power of write-down or conversion of relevant capital instruments and eligible liabilities or bail-in tool is applied to the Issuer, the principal amount of the Non-Preferred Senior Eligible Notes may be fully or partially written down or converted into instruments of ownership, although claims of other creditors of the Issuer might not be affected. For the avoidance of doubt, the aforesaid applies also to Non-Preferred Senior Eligible Notes issued as green bonds or social bonds.

In case of an insolvency of the Issuer, certain deposits and certain other claims have a higher ranking than claims resulting from the senior Notes.

According to § 131 BaSAG, in bankruptcy proceedings opened over the Issuer's assets, the following insolvency hierarchy applies to deposits and senior unsecured claims:

- (a) (i) covered deposits; and (ii) deposit guarantee schemes subrogating to the rights and obligations of covered depositors in insolvency;
- (b) (i) that part of eligible deposits from natural persons and micro, small and medium-sized enterprises which exceeds the covered deposits; and (ii) deposits that would be eligible deposits from natural persons, micro, small and medium-sized enterprises if they are not made through branches (located outside the EU) of institutions established within the EU;
- (c) the liquidity reserve within a liquidity association (Liquiditätsverbund) and a credit institution association (Kreditinstitute-Verbund) pursuant to § 30a BWG, in each case, to the extent required by § 27a BWG;
- (d) ordinary unsecured claims (such as claims resulting from the senior Notes); and
- (e) unsecured claims resulting from debt instruments which meet the conditions pursuant to § 131(3)(1) to (3) BaSAG (so-called "non-preferred senior debt instruments"), i.e. debt instruments that meet the following conditions: (i) the original contractual maturity of the debt instruments is of at least one year; (ii) the debt instruments contain no embedded derivatives and are not derivatives themselves; and (iii) the relevant contractual documentation and, where applicable, the prospectus related to the issuance explicitly refer to the lower ranking under § 131(3) BaSAG.

Therefore, in case of bankruptcy proceedings and any comparable proceedings (such as resolution proceedings) opened in relation to the Issuer, claims resulting from the senior Notes are junior to the claims listed in points (a) to (c). For this reason, any payments on claims resulting from the senior Notes would only be made, if and to the extent any senior ranking claims have been fully satisfied.

1.2.2.4 Risks in connection with eligible Notes

Holders of the eligible Notes are exposed to the risk of statutory loss absorption.

The Single Resolution Mechanism shall provide the relevant resolution authorities with uniform and effective resolution tools and resolution powers in order to achieve the resolution objectives.

The main resolution tool is the bail-in tool. When applying the bail-in tool, the resolution authority shall exercise the write-down and conversion powers in accordance with the following sequence (also called "loss absorbing cascade"): (i) CET 1 items; (ii) AT 1 instruments; (iii) Tier 2 instruments; (iv) subordinated debt that is not AT 1 or Tier 2 capital; (v) unsecured claims resulting from debt instruments which meet the pursuant to § 131(3)(1) to (3) BaSAG (so-called "non-preferred senior debt instruments", such as the non-preferred senior eligible Notes); and (vi) the rest of bail-inable liabilities (such as the ordinary senior eligible Notes) in accordance with the hierarchy of claims in bankruptcy proceedings, including the ranking in § 131 BaSAG, to the extent required.

Furthermore, where the Issuer meets the conditions for resolution and the resolution authority decides to apply a resolution tool to the Issuer, the resolution authority shall exercise the write down or conversion power in relation to relevant capital instruments (i.e. CET 1, AT 1 and Tier 2 instruments) and certain eligible liabilities (such as non-preferred senior eligible Notes) before applying any resolution tool (other than the bail-in tool).

If the power of write-down or conversion of relevant capital instruments and eligible liabilities or bail-in tool is applied to the Issuer, the principal amount of the eligible Notes may be fully or partially written down or converted into instruments of ownership, although claims of other creditors of the Issuer might not be affected. For the avoidance of doubt, the aforesaid applies also to Non-Preferred Senior Eligible Notes issued as green bonds or social bonds.

In case of an insolvency of the Issuer, certain deposits and certain other claims as well as potentially also senior unsecured claims have a higher ranking than claims resulting from the eligible Notes.

According to § 131 BaSAG, in bankruptcy proceedings opened over the Issuer's assets, the following insolvency hierarchy applies to deposits and senior unsecured claims:

- (a) (i) covered deposits; and (ii) deposit guarantee schemes subrogating to the rights and obligations of covered depositors in insolvency;

- (a) (i) that part of eligible deposits from natural persons and micro, small and medium-sized enterprises which exceeds the covered deposits; and (ii) deposits that would be eligible deposits from natural persons, micro, small and medium-sized enterprises if they are not made through branches (located outside the EU) of institutions established within the EU;
- (b) the liquidity reserve within a liquidity association and a credit institution association pursuant to § 30a BWG, in each case, to the extent required by § 27a BWG;
- (c) ordinary unsecured claims (such as claims resulting from the ordinary senior eligible Notes); and
- (d) unsecured claims resulting from debt instruments which meet the conditions pursuant to § 131(3)(1) to (3) BaSAG (so-called "non-preferred senior debt instruments", such as the non-preferred senior eligible Notes), i.e. debt instruments that meet the following conditions: (i) the original contractual maturity of the debt instruments is of at least one year; (ii) the debt instruments contain no embedded derivatives and are not derivatives themselves; and (iii) the relevant contractual documentation and, where applicable, the prospectus related to the issuance explicitly refer to the lower ranking under § 131(3) BaSAG.

Therefore, in case of bankruptcy proceedings and any comparable proceedings (such as resolution proceedings) opened in relation to the Issuer, claims resulting from the ordinary senior eligible Notes are junior to the claims listed in points (a) to (c) and claims resulting from the non-preferred senior eligible Notes are junior to the claims listed in points (a) to (d). For this reason, any payments on claims resulting from the eligible Notes would only be made, if and to the extent any senior ranking claims have been fully satisfied.

Holders of the eligible Notes are exposed to the risk that the Issuer may issue further (senior) debt instruments or incur further (senior) liabilities.

There are no restrictions (contractual or otherwise) on the amount of ordinary unsecured or subordinated debt or other liabilities that the Issuer may (or may have to) issue, borrow and/or incur, ranking senior to the eligible Notes.

Any issue of such instruments and/or any incurring such liabilities may reduce the amount recoverable by Holders of the eligible Notes upon the Issuer's insolvency. For the avoidance of doubt, the aforesaid applies also to Non-Preferred Senior Eligible Notes issued as green bonds or social bonds. A green bond or social bond classification does not affect the status of the Non-Preferred Senior Eligible Notes in terms of subordination and regulatory classification as eligible liabilities instruments.

The eligible Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Holders (if at all) only subject to the prior permission of the Resolution Authority.

If such right is foreseen in the Final Terms, Holders of the eligible Notes will have the right to call for the early redemption of their eligible Notes, provided however, only subject to certain conditions, in particular essentially the prior permission of the Resolution Authority.

Therefore, Holders of the eligible Notes may be required to bear the financial risks of an investment in the eligible Notes until their final maturity.

The eligible Notes may be redeemed at any time for regulatory reasons.

The Issuer may - subject to the prior permission of the competent authority - at its sole discretion, early redeem the eligible Notes before their stated maturity, at any time regulatory reasons.

Therefore, it may be that the eligible Notes will be early redeemed and thus, investors will not be able to hold the eligible Notes until the stated maturity and accordingly, might not achieve the expected yield.

The Issuer's rights to early redemption or repurchase of the eligible Notes is subject to the prior permission of the Resolution Authority.

The Issuer may - subject to the prior permission of the competent authority - at its sole discretion, early redeem the eligible Notes at any time either for regulatory reasons. In addition, if the Final Terms provide for such right, the Issuer may at its sole discretion redeem the eligible Notes before their stated maturity on a specified call redemption date.

Any early redemption and any repurchase of the eligible Notes are subject to the prior permission of the Resolution Authority. Under the CRR, the Resolution Authority may only permit institutions to early redeem or repurchase eligible liabilities instruments (such as the eligible Notes) if certain conditions are met with. These conditions, as well as a number of technical rules and standards relating to regulatory capital requirements applicable to the Issuer, should be taken into account by the Resolution Authority in its assessment of whether or not to permit any early redemption or repurchase. It is uncertain how the Resolution Authority will apply these criteria in practice and such rules and standards may change during the term of the eligible Notes. It is therefore not possible to assess whether, and if so, on what terms, the Resolution Authority will grant its prior permission for any early redemption or repurchase of the eligible Notes.

Furthermore, even if the Issuer would be granted the prior permission of the Resolution Authority, any decision by the Issuer as to whether it will early redeem the eligible Notes will be made at the sole discretion of the Issuer with regard to external factors (such as the economic and market impact of exercising an early redemption right, regulatory capital requirements and prevailing market conditions). Therefore, there is the risk that the Issuer will not exercise any early redemption right in relation to the eligible Notes and that the Holders will stay invested in the eligible Notes until their maturity date.

The eligible Notes do not give the right to accelerate future payments, and also may not be subject to set-off or any guarantee.

The Terms and Conditions of the eligible Notes do not provide for any events of default and the Holders of the eligible Notes do not have the right to accelerate any future scheduled payment of interest or principal. For the avoidance of doubt, the aforesaid applies also to Holders of Subordinated Notes issued as green bonds, sustainable bonds or social bonds.

Furthermore, the eligible Notes are not subject to any set off or netting arrangements that would undermine their capacity to absorb losses in resolution and are neither secured nor subject to a guarantee or any other arrangement that enhances the seniority of the claims under the eligible Notes.

1.2.2.5 Risks in connection with subordinated Notes

Holders of the subordinated Notes are exposed to the risk of statutory loss absorption.

The Single Resolution Mechanism shall provide the relevant resolution authorities with uniform and effective resolution tools and resolution powers in order to achieve the resolution objectives.

The main resolution tool is the bail-in tool. When applying the bail-in tool, the resolution authority will exercise the write-down and conversion powers in accordance with the following sequence (also called "loss absorbing cascade"): (i) CET 1 items; (ii) AT 1 instruments; (iii) Tier 2 instruments (such as the subordinated Notes); (iv) subordinated debt that is not AT 1 or Tier 2 capital; (v) unsecured claims resulting from debt instruments which meet the conditions pursuant to § 131(3)(1) to (3) BaSAG (so-called "non-preferred senior debt instruments"); and (vi) the rest of bail-inable liabilities in accordance with the hierarchy of claims in bankruptcy proceedings, including the ranking provided for deposits in § 131 BaSAG, to the extent required.

Furthermore, where the Issuer meets the conditions for resolution and the resolution authority decides to apply a resolution tool to the Issuer, the resolution authority shall exercise the write down or conversion power in relation to relevant capital instruments (i.e. CET 1, AT 1 and Tier 2 instruments) and certain eligible liabilities before applying any resolution tool (other than the bail-in tool).

If the power of write-down or conversion of relevant capital instruments or the bail-in tool is applied to the Issuer, the principal amount of the subordinated Notes may be fully or partially written down or converted into instruments of ownership, although claims of other creditors of the Issuer might not be affected. For the avoidance of doubt, the aforesaid applies also to Preferred Senior Eligible Notes issued as green bonds, sustainable bonds or social bonds.

In case of an insolvency of the Issuer, certain deposits and certain other claims and senior unsecured claims have a higher ranking than claims resulting from the Subordinated Notes.

According to § 131 BaSAG, in bankruptcy proceedings opened over the Issuer's assets, the following insolvency hierarchy applies to deposits and senior unsecured claims:

- (a) (i) covered deposits; and (ii) deposit guarantee schemes subrogating to the rights and obligations of covered depositors in insolvency;
- (b) (i) that part of eligible deposits from natural persons and micro, small and medium-sized enterprises which exceeds the covered deposits; and (ii) deposits that would be eligible deposits from natural persons, micro, small and medium-sized enterprises if they are not made through branches (located outside the EU) of institutions established within the EU;

- (c) the liquidity reserve within a liquidity association and a credit institution association pursuant to § 30a BWG, in each case, to the extent required by § 27a BWG;
- (d) ordinary unsecured claims; and
- (e) unsecured claims resulting from debt instruments which meet the conditions pursuant to § 131(3)(1) to (3) BaSAG (so-called "non-preferred senior debt instruments"), i.e. debt instruments that meet the following conditions: (i) the original contractual maturity of the debt instruments is of at least one year; (ii) the debt instruments contain no embedded derivatives and are not derivatives themselves; and (iii) the relevant contractual documentation and, where applicable, the prospectus related to the issuance explicitly refer to the lower ranking under § 131(3) BaSAG.

Further, according to § 90(3) BaSAG which implements Article 48(7) BRRD in Austria, all claims resulting from own funds items (such as the Subordinated Notes, to the extent the Subordinated Notes qualify as own funds items) have, in bankruptcy proceedings, a lower priority ranking than any claim that does not result from an own funds item. If an instrument is only partly recognised as an own funds item, the whole instrument shall be treated as a claim resulting from an own funds item and shall rank lower than any claim that does not result from an own funds item. In Austria, the relevant provisions entered into force on 29 May 2021.

In the event of bankruptcy proceedings being opened against the assets of the Issuer, the insolvency hierarchy set out in § 131 BaSAG shall apply. Therefore, in the event of bankruptcy or similar proceedings (e.g. liquidation proceedings) being opened against the Issuer, claims under the Subordinated Notes will be subordinated to deposits and senior unsecured claims, but also to certain subordinated claims (including any obligations of the Issuer under Tier 2 instruments and/or claims arising from other former own funds items, both of which are no longer recognised as own funds items, if any).

Therefore, in case of bankruptcy proceedings and any comparable proceedings (such as resolution proceedings) opened in relation to the Issuer, claims resulting from the subordinated Notes are junior to the claims listed in points (a) to (e) and junior to the claims under any other subordinated liabilities of the Issuer which, in accordance with the relevant Conditions or pursuant to mandatory statutory provisions, rank or are intended to rank senior to the Issuer's obligations under the Subordinated Notes at the relevant time. For this reason, any payments on claims resulting from the subordinated Notes would only be made, if and to the extent any senior ranking claims have been fully satisfied.

The rights of the Issuer to early redeem or repurchase the subordinated Notes are subject to the prior permission of the Competent Authority.

The Issuer may, at its sole discretion, early redeem the subordinated Notes at any time either for reasons of taxation or regulatory reasons. In addition, if the relevant Final Terms provide for such right, the Issuer may at its sole discretion redeem the subordinated Notes before their stated maturity, but not before five years after the date of their issuance, on a specified call redemption date.

Any early redemption and any repurchase of the subordinated Notes are subject to the prior permission of the Competent Authority. Under the CRR, the Competent Authority and the Resolution Authority may only permit institutions to early redeem or repurchase Tier 2 instruments (such as the subordinated Notes) if certain conditions are met. These conditions, as well as a number of technical rules and standards relating to regulatory capital requirements applicable to the Issuer, should be taken into account by the Competent Authority in its assessment of whether or not to permit any early redemption or repurchase. It is uncertain how the Competent Authority will apply these criteria in practice and such rules and standards may change during the term of the subordinated Notes. It is therefore not possible to assess whether, and if so, on what terms, the Competent Authority will grant its prior permission for any early redemption or repurchase of the subordinated Notes.

Furthermore, even if the Issuer would be granted the prior permission of the Competent Authority, any decision by the Issuer as to whether it will early redeem the subordinated Notes will be made at the sole discretion of the Issuer with regard to external factors (such as the economic and market impact of exercising an early redemption right, regulatory capital requirements and prevailing market conditions). Therefore, there is the risk that the Issuer will not exercise any early redemption right in relation to the subordinated Notes and that the Holders will stay invested in the Subordinated Notes until their maturity date.

Holders of the subordinated Notes are exposed to the risk that the Issuer may issue further debt instruments or incur further liabilities.

There are no restrictions (contractual or otherwise) on the amount of (ordinary unsecured or subordinated) debt that the Issuer may (or may have to) issue and/or borrow, ranking pari passu with or senior to the subordinated Notes.

Any issue of such instruments and/or any incurring such liabilities may reduce the amount recoverable by Holders of the subordinated Notes upon the Issuer's insolvency. For the avoidance of doubt, the aforesaid applies also to Subordinated Notes issued as green bonds, sustainable bonds or social bonds. A green bond or social bond classification does not affect the status of the Subordinated Notes in terms of subordination and regulatory classification as own funds or eligible liabilities instruments.

The subordinated Notes do not give the right to accelerate future payments, and also may not be subject to set-off or any guarantee.

The Terms and Conditions of the subordinated Notes do not provide for any events of default and Holders of the subordinated Notes do not have the right to accelerate any future scheduled payment of interest (if applicable) or principal. For the avoidance of doubt, the aforesaid applies also to Holders of Subordinated Notes issued as green bonds, sustainable bonds or social bonds.

Furthermore, the subordinated Notes are not subject to any set off or netting arrangements that would undermine their capacity to absorb losses in resolution and are neither secured nor subject to a guarantee or any other arrangement that enhances the seniority of the claims under the subordinated Notes.

The subordinated Notes may not be redeemed at the option of the Holders.

Holders of the subordinated Notes will have no rights to call for the early redemption of their subordinated Notes.

Therefore, Holders of the subordinated Notes may be required to bear the financial risks of an investment in the subordinated Notes until their final maturity.

The subordinated Notes may be redeemed at any time for reasons of taxation or regulatory reasons.

The Issuer may - subject to the prior permission of the Competent Authority - at its sole discretion, early redeem the subordinated Notes before their stated maturity (also before five years after the date of their issuance), at any time for reasons of taxation.

Similarly, the Issuer may at its sole discretion, early redeem the subordinated Notes before their stated maturity (also before five years after the date of their issuance), at any time for regulatory reasons.

Therefore, it may be that subordinated Notes will be early redeemed and thus, investors will not be able to hold the subordinated Notes until the stated maturity and accordingly, might not achieve the expected yield.

1.2.3 Risk Factors relating to certain provisions in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes

In the case of Note that do not provide for a right of Holders to early redemption, Holders may not have the option to terminate their investment early.

The Notes may provide that the Holders have no right of early redemption. If this is the case, a Holder therefore generally bears the risk of having to remain invested in the Notes until the end of their term and not being able to demand early redemption. Furthermore, investors should bear in mind that the Issuer may terminate Notes that do not bear fixed interest and for which the Issuer is granted a right of early redemption even in the event of a development of the relevant reference (interest) rate that is disadvantageous for the Issuer, which may deprive the Holders of the opportunity to obtain a higher yield. Conversely, in the event of a development of the reference (interest) rate that is disadvantageous to the Holders, the Holders will not be entitled to early redemption of the Notes and the Issuer could benefit from the development of the reference (interest) rate that is advantageous to it until the end of the term of the Notes.

Notes containing options are subject to risks associated with a possible change in the value of the options.

Certain Notes may contain or be combined with an option (such as a right of termination and early redemption by the Issuer). Such options themselves have a market price (i.e. it represents a value in itself to be able to exercise such an option, the "Option Price"). The Option Price may change and such change may also affect the market price of the Notes. The Option Price typically decreases towards the Expiration Date, after which the Option is completely worthless. Holders of such Notes bear the risk of an unfavourable development of the Option Price of any options attached to the Notes.

In the case of Notes with a right to early redemption by the Issuer, the Holder also bears a higher market price risk (risk of early redemption) in addition to the risk of early redemption.

If the Terms and Conditions of the Notes provide for a right of early redemption by the Issuer, the Issuer may redeem the Notes early at a specified amount (Optional Redemption Amount, Amortisation Amount or Early Redemption Amount) to the Holders either on specified dates (Optional Redemption Dates) or upon the occurrence of specified events (e.g. change of law, hedging disruption, increased hedging costs or for regulatory or tax reasons). In this context, the Holder bears the risk that the amount received upon early redemption is lower than the market price and/or the redemption amount and/or the amortisation amount of the Notes.

As all Holders are subject to the risk of early redemption by the Issuer (which constitutes an option), this exercise risk is also reflected in the market price of such Notes. This may lead to fluctuations in the price of the Notes if there are changes in interest rates or volatility.

1.2.4 Risk factors relating to the pricing of, costs associated with, market of and settlement of the Notes

The Issuer may be wholly or partially prevented or prohibited from making interest and/or principal repayments on the Notes.

Holders are exposed to the risk that the Issuer may be wholly or partially unable or prohibited from making the interest payments and/or principal repayments to which it is obligated under the relevant Terms and Conditions of the Notes. The lower the Issuer's credit rating, the higher this risk (credit risk). If this risk materialises, the Issuer may fail to make interest payments and/or repay the principal in whole or in part (total default).

Holders are exposed to the risk of adverse developments in the market prices of their Notes (market price risk).

The development of the market prices of the Notes depends on various factors, such as the creditworthiness of the Issuer, fluctuations in the level of market interest rates, the policies of central banks, macroeconomic developments, inflation rates or a lack of or excess demand for the relevant type of Notes. The significance of the individual factors is not directly quantifiable and fluctuates over time.

Holders are therefore exposed to the risk of negative market price developments of the Notes, which may materialise if Holders sell the Notes prior to their final maturity. If the net proceeds received by a Holder on a sale of Notes (including any distributions made on the Notes in the meantime) are less than the price (including any expenses and fees) at which the Holder acquired the Notes, the Holder will suffer a net loss.

Changes in the credit spread, i.e. the spread that the Issuer must pay to a Holder as a premium for the credit risk assumed by the Holder or the premium on the risk-free interest rate, also affect the market price of the Notes. If the Issuer's credit spread widens, the market price of the Notes will decline.

Furthermore, the market price of Notes issued at a significant discount or premium is generally more volatile in response to general changes in interest rates than market prices for conventional interest-bearing Notes.

Holders bear the risk that they may not be able to invest income from the Notes on the same or more favourable terms than those securitised in the Notes (reinvestment risk).

Reinvestment risk describes the risk associated with reinvesting the funds released from the Note.

For Holders of Notes, the yield of a Note depends not only on its price and nominal interest rate but also on whether interest income earned during the term of the Note can be reinvested at an interest rate equal to or better than the interest rate applicable to the Note. The risk that the general market interest rate will fall below the interest rate on the Notes during the term of the Notes is referred to as reinvestment risk. The amount of the reinvestment risk also depends on the structure of the respective Notes.

Incidental costs associated with the purchase and sale of Notes may materially affect the potential return on the Notes.

When buying or selling Notes, various types of incidental costs (including transaction fees and commissions) are usually incurred in addition to the purchase or sale price. Financial sector institutions usually charge commissions and expenses either as fixed minimum commissions and/or as percentage commissions depending on the order value. To the extent that additional parties - domestic or foreign - are involved in the execution of an order, such as domestic dealers or brokers in foreign markets, investors may also be charged brokerage fees, commissions and other fees and expenses of such parties (third-party costs). In addition to the costs directly associated with the purchase of the Notes (direct costs), investors must also take into account follow-on costs (such as custody fees).

Investors are subject to the risk that these incidental expenses may substantially reduce or even eliminate the return on the Notes, particularly if small amounts are invested in the Notes.

Holders must rely on the functionality of the relevant Clearing System.

The settlement of purchases and sales and the crediting of payments in connection with Notes will be effected through a Clearing System. The Issuer assumes no responsibility that the Notes are actually transferred by the Clearing System to the securities account of the relevant Holder. Holders must rely on the functioning of the Clearing System. There is a risk that, due to the use of the Clearing System, credits to the investor's account may not be made, may not be made within the period expected by the investor or may be made late.

The Notes are not covered by any statutory or voluntary protection scheme.

Holders' claims under the Notes are not covered by either statutory or voluntary protection scheme. In the event of liquidation or insolvency of the Issuer, Holders are therefore exposed to the risk of losing the entire capital invested in the Notes.

1.2.5 Risk factors relating to the admission of debt securities

A liquid secondary market may not develop for the Notes or, if it does develop, it may not continue to exist. In an illiquid market, therefore, Holders may not be able to sell their Notes at a fair market price or at all.

Notes issued under this Prospectus are in part new issues. In any event, there will be no liquid market for these Notes at the time of issue.

Regardless of any trading of the Notes on an exchange in the regulated market, a liquid secondary market for the Notes may not develop or, if it develops, may not remain in existence. If the Notes are not listed on an exchange, information about the market price of such Notes may be more difficult to obtain, which may adversely affect the liquidity of such Notes. In an illiquid market, a Holder may not be able to sell its Notes at all at any time or at reasonable prices or prices that provide a yield comparable to similar investments for which a developed secondary market exists. Notes of this type typically have a limited secondary market and their market price has a higher volatility than the market price of Notes for which a liquid market exists. Illiquidity can have a serious negative impact on the market price of Notes. The ability of Holders to sell Notes may be further restricted by country-specific circumstances (e.g. due to security-specific or regulatory requirements).

Holders of listed Notes are subject to the risk that trading in the Notes may be suspended, interrupted or terminated.

If Notes are listed on a regulated market, the listing of such Notes may - depending on the regulations applicable on such market - be suspended or interrupted by the relevant market itself or by a competent regulatory authority for various reasons, in particular the violation of price limits, breaches of statutory provisions, the occurrence of operational problems on the markets or, more generally, if this is deemed necessary to maintain a functioning market or to safeguard investor interests. Furthermore, trading in Notes may be terminated as a result of a decision by the stock exchange, a regulatory authority or at the request of the Issuer. In particular, it may be the case that Holders are unable to sell their Notes in the event of a suspension, interruption or termination of trading. Even in the event of a suspension, interruption or termination of trading in Notes, such measures may not be sufficient, adequate or timely to prevent price disruption or to protect the interests of investors. If trading in Notes is suspended, for example, after the publication of price-sensitive information relating to such Notes, the market price of the Notes may already have been adversely affected. Any of these risks, if they materialise, would have a material adverse effect on the Holders and could result in a loss to the Holders.

1.2.6 Risk factor in relation to any ratings of Notes

Any failure in the use of the proceeds for ESG Projects, in the implementation of ESG Projects or a change in the (re)allocation of the proceeds does not give the Holders rights or claims.

A rating of Notes may not adequately reflect all of the risks of an investment in such Notes. In addition, ratings may be suspended, downgraded or withdrawn. Any suspension, downgrade or withdrawal may adversely affect the market price of the Notes. A rating does not constitute a recommendation to buy, sell or hold any Notes and may be reviewed or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

1.2.7 Risk factors relating to Notes issued as green bonds or social bonds

In respect of any Notes issued with a specific use of proceeds, such as a green bond, sustainability bond or social bond, such use of proceeds might not be suitable for the investment criteria of an investor.

The relevant Final Terms relating to any specific Tranche of Notes may provide that it will be the Issuer's intention to apply an amount equal to the proceeds from an offer of those Notes specifically for projects and activities that promote climate-friendly and other environmental purposes, sustainability or social purposes (Environmental, Social and Governance - ESG) ("ESG Projects").

The relevant project(s) or use(s) the subject of, or related to, any ESG Projects might not be capable of being implemented in or substantially in such manner and/or accordance with any timing schedule and that accordingly such proceeds might not be totally or partially disbursed for such ESG Projects. Such ESG Projects might not be completed within any specified period or at all or with the results or outcome (whether or not related to the environment) as originally expected or anticipated by the Issuer. Further, the proceeds could be initially allocated by the Issuer to wrong assets or the allocation of the proceeds to specific ESG Projects could be changed as well as the assets initially qualified as ESG assets could be disqualified as such during the term of the Notes. In addition, the maturity of ESG assets might not match the minimum duration of the Notes so that the proceeds would have to be reallocated and replacement assets be required. Such reallocation could fail due to the lack of new ESG assets which comply with the Framework (as defined below) of the Issuer so that the amount equivalent to the proceeds of the issue of the Notes will not be used as stated in the relevant Final Terms.

Furthermore, the proceeds from an offer of Notes issued as green bonds or social bonds could not only be used for ESG Projects but also to cover all potential losses in the balance sheet of the Issuer regardless of whether (i) the Notes are labelled "ESG" and (ii) losses stem from ESG Projects or other assets of the Issuer.

Any such event or failure by the Issuer (a) will not (i) constitute an event of default under the Notes, (ii) lead to an obligation for the Issuer to redeem the Notes, (iii) be a factor whether or not an optional redemption right should be exercised and (iv) have a consequence on the Notes' permanence and loss absorbency and/or (b) will not give the Holders (i) the right to otherwise early terminate the Notes, (ii) the right to accelerate payments under the Notes and (iii) any claim against the Issuer.

Any aforesaid event or failure may have material adverse consequences for certain investors with mandates to invest in securities to be used for a particular purpose. Furthermore, the Holders may be required to bear the financial risks of an investment in such Notes until their final maturity or may be required to sell the Notes due to their portfolio mandates at an unfavourable market price.

Due to the still pending legislative initiatives, Notes issued as green bonds, social bonds or such other equivalent label might not satisfy any existing or future legislative or regulatory requirements or any present or future investor expectations or requirements.

Currently, there is no final definition (legal, regulatory or otherwise) of, nor market consensus as to what constitutes, a "green", "social" or an equivalently-labelled project or as to what precise attributes are required for a particular project to be defined as "green", "social" or such other equivalent label nor such a final definition or consensus might develop over time. While certain steps have been taken in defining the term "sustainable" within the EU by the Taxonomy Regulation and the Proposal for a Corporate Sustainability Reporting Directive and further regulatory developments have led to a more precise and uniform definition of "green bond", it is an area which has been, and continues to be, the subject of many and wide-ranging voluntary and regulatory initiatives to develop rules, guidelines, standards, taxonomies and objectives. Even if such voluntary or regulatory initiatives should arrive at a definition of "green" or "social" (or any equivalent label) they are not necessarily meant to apply to the Notes nor will the Issuer necessarily seek compliance of the Notes with all or some of such rules, guidelines, standards, taxonomies, principles or objectives (including, inter alia, the Taxonomy Regulation, the Proposal for a Corporate Sustainability Reporting Directive, the EU Taxonomy Climate Delegated Act, the EU Green Bond Standard, the Green Bond Principles). Also, the criteria for what constitutes an ESG Project may be changed from time to time.

The intended use of proceeds of the Notes by the Issuer for any ESG Projects in accordance with the Framework might not satisfy, either in whole or in part, (i) any existing or future legislative or regulatory requirements, or (ii) any present or future investor expectations or requirements with respect to investment criteria or guidelines with which any investor or its investments are required to comply under its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates, in particular with regard to any direct or indirect environmental impact of any projects or uses, the subject of or related to, any ESG Projects. In addition, the reporting in relation to the use of proceeds under the Framework might not meet investor needs or expectations.

Due to the still pending legislative initiatives, the Notes issued as green bonds, social bonds or such other equivalent label might not satisfy, either in whole or in part, (i) any existing or future legislative or regulatory requirements, or (ii) any present or future investor expectations regarding "green", "social" or other equivalently-labelled performance objectives or requirements with respect to investment criteria or guidelines with which any investor or its investments are required to comply under its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates.

This may have a material adverse effect on the market price of such Notes and/or result in adverse consequences for certain investors with portfolio mandates to invest in securities to be used for a particular purpose.

There may be risks relating to ESG ratings and/or opinions in connection with the Framework.

The suitability or reliability for any purpose whatsoever of any opinion (eg a second party opinion ("SPO")) of any third party (whether or not solicited by the Issuer) which may be made available in connection with the Framework and/or the issue of any Notes and in particular with any ESG Projects to fulfil any environmental, social and/or other criteria remains uncertain. Any such opinion may not address risks that may affect the market price of Notes or any ESG Projects to which the Issuer may assign the proceeds of the Notes. Any failure by the Issuer to obtain any opinion or any subsequent withdrawal of any such opinion will not constitute an event of default under the Notes and will not give the Holders any acceleration or redemption right or other claims against the Issuer.

Further, any withdrawal of any such opinion or any such opinion attesting that the Issuer is not complying in whole or in part with any matters which such opinion is opining may have a material adverse effect on the market price of such Notes and/or result in adverse consequences for certain investors with portfolio mandates to invest in securities to be used for a particular purpose.

Separately, the Issuer's exposure to ESG risks and the related management arrangements established to mitigate those risks may be assessed by ESG rating agencies in the future, among others, through ESG ratings. ESG ratings may vary amongst ESG rating agencies as the methodologies used to determine ESG ratings may differ. ESG ratings are not necessarily indicative of the Issuer's current or future operating or financial performance, or any future ability to service the Notes and are only current as of the dates on which they were initially issued. Any withdrawal of an ESG rating may have a material adverse effect on Notes which are intended to finance ESG Projects.

As of the date of this Prospectus, neither the issuance of ESG ratings or the issuance of SPOs on frameworks or note issuances are subject to comprehensive regulation and so far, no generally accepted industry standards have emerged. For this reason, any such ESG rating or SPO might not provide a fair and comprehensive summary of the relevant underlying facts or any such ESG rating or opinion might not address all relevant risks.

The listing or admission to trading of Notes issued as green bonds or social bonds on a dedicated "green", "environmental", "social" and/or other equivalently-labelled segment of any stock exchange or securities market (whether or not regulated) might not satisfy the investors' expectations or requirements.

In the event that any Notes are listed or admitted to trading on any dedicated "green", "environmental", "social" and/or other equivalently-labelled segment of any stock exchange or securities market (whether or not regulated), such listing or admission might not satisfy, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor or its investments are required to comply, whether by any present or future applicable law or regulations or by its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates, in particular with regard to any direct or indirect environmental impact of any projects or uses, the subject of or related to, any ESG Projects. Furthermore, the criteria for any such listings or admission to trading may vary from one stock exchange or securities market to another. Any such listing or admission to trading might not be obtained in respect of any such Notes or, if obtained, that any such listing or admission to trading might not be maintained during the life of the Notes.

Any such Notes no longer being listed or admitted to trading on any dedicated "green", "environmental", "social" and/or other equivalently-labelled segment of any stock exchange or securities market as aforesaid may have a material adverse effect on the market price of such Notes and also potentially the market price of any other Notes which are intended to finance ESG Projects and/or result in adverse consequences for certain investors with portfolio mandates to invest in securities to be used for a particular purpose.

1.2.8 Risk factors relating to tax and legal matters

Careful consideration should be given to the tax implications of investing in Notes.

Any interest payments on Notes or gains realised by a Holder on the sale or redemption of Notes may be taxable in the Holder's home country or in other countries. Holders are exposed to the risk that the real return on the Notes may be substantially lower than expected due to the impact of applicable tax laws. In addition, applicable tax regulations may change in the future to the disadvantage of the bondholders, which could lead to higher tax burdens and thus to a lower return on the bonds.

The Notes are governed by Austrian law, and changes in applicable laws, regulations or regulatory requirements may have adverse effects on the Issuer, the Notes and the Holders.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes are governed by Austrian law. Investors should note that the law applicable to the Notes may not be the law of their own country and that the law applicable to the Notes may not afford them similar or adequate protection. The effect of any judicial decision or change in Austrian law (or in the law applicable in Austria) or in administrative practice after the date of this Prospectus is not currently foreseeable. Holders are therefore subject to the risk that the law applicable to the Notes may be unfavourable to Holders and may change.

An Austrian court could appoint a trustee for the Notes to exercise the rights and represent the interests of Holders on their behalf in which case the ability of Holders to pursue their rights under the Notes individually may be limited.

Pursuant to the Austrian Trustee Act and the Austrian Trustee Supplemental Act, a trustee (Kurator) may be appointed by an Austrian court at the request of a party (e.g. a Holder) or upon the initiative of the competent court, for the purposes of representing the common interests of the Holders in matters concerning their collective rights. In particular, this may occur if insolvency proceedings are initiated against the Issuer, in connection with any amendments to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes or changes relating to the Issuer, or under other similar circumstances. If a trustee is appointed, then it shall exercise the common rights of all Holders and represent the interests of all Holders and may make declarations on their behalf which are binding on all Holders. In cases where a trustee represents the interests of the Holders and exercises the rights of the Holders, this may result in a disadvantage or a collision with the interests of individual or all Holders.

1.2.9 Risk factor in relation to currencies

Holders may be exposed to the risk of unfavourable exchange rate developments or the risk of authorities imposing or modifying exchange controls (currency risk - foreign exchange risk).

Redemption and payment of interest (if applicable) on the Notes will be made in the currency specified in the Terms and Conditions (the "Specified Currency"). This involves certain risks relating to currency conversions in the event that Holder's financial transactions are primarily denominated in a currency other than the Specified Currency. These risks include the risk of a significant change in the exchange rate (including changes due to a devaluation of the Specified Currency or a revaluation of the other currency) and the risk that the authorities responsible for the other currency introduce or change exchange controls. An appreciation of the other currency against the Specified Currency would result in (i) a reduction in the equivalent value in the other currency of the proceeds of the Notes, (ii) a reduction in the equivalent value in the other currency of the principal amount payable on the Notes and (iii) a reduction in the equivalent value in the other currency of the market value of the Notes.

Governmental and monetary authorities may (as has happened in the past in some cases) impose or remove exchange controls and currency pegs that could adversely affect a prevailing exchange rate. As a result, Holders may receive lower than expected interest or redemption amounts or none at all.

2. THE PROGRAMME

Note: The following is certain general information relating to the Programme and the Notes. Investors should note that this information does not contain a complete description of the Notes. Notes may be issued as one-off or tap issues. One-off issues represent Notes which may be subscribed for and issued during a specified offering period. In the case of tap issues, it is at the Issuer's discretion when the Notes will be available for subscription and issue during the whole (or part of the) term. In the case of tap issues, the Issuer is entitled to increase or decrease the aggregate principal amount at any time.

Categories of investors to whom the Notes are offered:

The Notes may be offered to both institutional and retail clients.

Reasons for the offer and use of the issue proceeds:

Unless otherwise specified in the Final Terms, the net proceeds from the issue of the Notes will be used by the Issuer to generate profits and for its general funding needs and issues of Notes evidencing subordinated capital will be used to strengthen the Issuer's capital resources.

If one or more Market Makers are appointed in respect of a Series of Notes, the identity of such Market Makers will be disclosed in the Final Terms. The Dealer or Dealers appointed as Market Makers in respect of a particular Series of Notes (or their agents) may effect over-allotments

Green Bonds,
Sustainable Bonds,
Social Bonds:

of Notes and/or other transactions to support the market price of the Notes at a higher level. However, there is no guarantee that the Market Maker(s) (or their agents) will undertake any such stabilisation. Any stabilisation action may commence on or after the date on which the Final Terms of the relevant Series of Notes are duly published and may be completed at any time thereafter, but must be completed no later than the earlier of thirty days after the date of issue of the relevant Series of Notes or sixty days after the date of allotment of the relevant Series of Notes. Any over-allotment and stabilisation action shall be carried out by the Market Maker(s) (or their agents) in accordance with applicable law.

The Issuer will provide more details with regard to its prospective green bond, sustainable bonds or social bond issues in its sustainable bond framework (the "ESG Framework") which will be disclosed on the Issuer's website ("www.volksbankwien.at/investor-relations") and provide further details in the relevant Final Terms under "use of proceeds". Such a ESG Framework may be updated from time to time. The ESG Framework is not, nor shall be deemed to be, incorporated into and/or form part of this Prospectus.

Neither the Issuer, the Arranger, any Dealer, any of their affiliates nor any other person mentioned in the Prospectus makes any representation as to the suitability of any Notes to fulfil environmental, social and/or sustainability criteria required or expected by any prospective investors as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such prospective investor or its investments are required to comply. The Issuer has not undertaken, nor is responsible for, any assessment of such Frameworks, any verification of whether ESG Projects meet the criteria set out in such Frameworks or the monitoring of the use of proceeds.

Payment of principal and interest of green bonds, sustainable bonds and social bonds will be made from the general funds of the Issuer and will not be directly linked to the performance of any ESG Projects.

Prior to issuances of green bonds, sustainable bonds or social bonds, the Issuer will mandate a recognised provider of ESG research and analysis, such as Sustainalytics, for the issuance of a Second Party Opinion ("SPO"). This SPO will also cover the issuance of green bonds, sustainable bonds and social bonds by the Issuer. The SPO provider will evaluate the robustness and credibility of the Issuer's ESG Framework and intended use of proceeds in terms of its alignment with relevant industry standards. On such basis, the SPO provider will submit its SPO which will be published on the Issuer's website ("www.volksbankwien.at/investor-relations"). Such SPO is not intended to address any credit, market or other aspects of an investment in any Notes, including without limitation market price, marketability, investor preference or suitability of any security. Such SPO is a statement of opinion, not a statement of fact. For the avoidance of doubt, any such SPO is not, nor shall be deemed to be, incorporated by reference into and/or form part of this Prospectus. Any such SPO is not, nor should be deemed to be, a recommendation by the Issuer, the Arranger, any dealer or any other person to buy, sell or hold any such Notes. Any such SPO is only current as of the date that SPO was initially issued and may be updated, suspended or withdrawn by the relevant provider(s) at any time. Prospective investors must determine for themselves the relevance of any such SPO and/or the information contained therein and/or the provider of such SPO for the purpose of any investment in such Notes. Currently, the SPO providers are not subject to any specific regulatory or other regime or oversight. Holders might not have any recourse against such provider(s). Neither the Issuer, the Arranger, any dealer nor any of their affiliates nor any other person mentioned in this Prospectus makes any representation as to the suitability or reliability for any purpose whatsoever of any opinion or certification of any SPO provider (whether or not solicited by the Issuer) which may be made available in connection with the issue of any Notes issued as green bonds or social bonds and in particular with any ESG assets to fulfil any environmental and/or other criteria.

The Notes issued as green bonds, sustainable bonds or social bonds are fully subject to the application of the CRR eligibility criteria and BRRD requirements for own funds and eligible liabilities instruments and thus carry the related risks of loss-absorption. Any failure by the Issuer with regards to the use of proceeds from such Notes or the expected performance of the eligible ESG assets will not jeopardize the qualification of (i) the Preferred Senior Eligible Notes and the Non-Preferred Senior Eligible Notes as eligible liabilities instruments and (ii) the Subordinated Notes as Tier 2 instruments.

Provision of the reference (interest) rates
underlying the Notes

The reference (interest) rates on which the Notes may be based are provided by several administrators. As at the date of this Prospectus, the European Money Markets Institute (EMMI), which provides the Euro Interbank Offered Rate (EURIBOR), is registered with ESMA pursuant to Article 36 of the Benchmark Regulation. The register is published on ESMA's website at "www .esma.europa.eu". Details of any other swap rates or reference (interest) rates underlying the Notes and further details, in particular of the administrators and reference (interest) rates referred to above, may be given in the relevant Final Terms of the Notes.

3. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON THE NOTES

This chapter contains certain information, other than the Terms and Conditions, relating to the Notes which may be issued under the Programme. It contains (i) information which is required to be included in the Prospectus pursuant to the Prospectus Regulation but which is not contained in the Terms and Conditions (e.g. because some of the information does not relate to legal circumstances) and (ii) certain further details and explanations of information about the Notes contained in the Terms and Conditions which the Issuer considers useful for a better understanding of the Notes.

Warning: The rights and obligations arising under a Series of Notes of the Issuer and the holders of the Notes (the "Holders"), and thus the operation of such Notes, arise exclusively from the Terms and Conditions applicable to the relevant issue, i.e. the Final Terms (which are published for each Series of Notes on the Issuer's website at www.volksbankwien.at under the path: "Börsen&Märkte/Anleihen/Volksbank Emissionen" and are included as a sample in this document from page 159), and the set of terms and conditions of the Notes (see from page 82 the prospectus). The Terms and Conditions are legally binding and the following information is provided for the information of investors only. Investors should not base their decision to purchase Notes on this chapter alone, but are urged to study the entire Prospectus, any supplements thereto, including the relevant Final Terms (in particular, with respect to the Notes, the chapters "2. Risk Factors" and "6. Terms and Conditions").

3.1 RANKING OF THE NOTES AND ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURES

The Notes issued under the Programme have one of the following characteristics with regard to their ranking, i.e. with regard to the order to be observed by the Issuer in servicing its obligations, which are made optional in § 2 of the Form Terms and Conditions and consequently result from the Final Terms: (i) senior, (ii) "ordinary senior" eligible, (iii) "non-preferred senior" eligible, (iv) subordinated or (v) covered Notes.

3.1.1 Senior Notes

The Notes constitute direct, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer ranking in the event of insolvency or liquidation of the Issuer pari passu among themselves and pari passu with all other unsecured and unsubordinated instruments or obligations of the Issuer except for any instruments or obligations preferred or subordinated by law.

3.1.2 "Ordinary senior" eligible Notes.

The Notes constitute direct, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer ranking in the event of insolvency or liquidation of the Issuer pari passu among themselves and pari passu with all other unsecured and unsubordinated instruments or obligations of the Issuer except for any instruments or obligations preferred or subordinated by law.

3.1.3 Non-preferred senior eligible Notes.

The Notes constitute direct, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, provided that in the event of normal insolvency proceedings (bankruptcy proceeding) of the Issuer, claims on the principal amount of the Notes rank:

- (a) junior to all other present or future unsecured and unsubordinated instruments or obligations of the Issuer which do not meet the criteria for debt instruments pursuant to § 131(3)(1) to (3) BaSAG;
- (b) pari passu: (i) among themselves; and (ii) with all other present or future non-preferred senior instruments or obligations of the Issuer which meet the criteria for debt instruments pursuant to § 131(3)(1) to (3) BaSAG (other than senior instruments or obligations of the Issuer ranking or expressed to rank senior or junior to the Notes); and
- (c) senior to all present or future claims under: (i) ordinary shares and other Common Equity Tier 1 instruments pursuant to Article 28 CRR of the Issuer; (ii) instruments of participation capital pursuant to § 23 (4) and (5) BWG in the version prior to the entry into force of the CRR of the Issuer; (iii) Additional Tier 1 instruments pursuant to Article 52 CRR of the Issuer; (iv) Tier 2 instruments pursuant to Article 63 CRR of the Issuer; and (v) all other subordinated instruments or obligations of the Issuer;

all in accordance with and making explicit reference to the lower ranking of the Notes pursuant to § 131(3) BaSAG.

3.1.4 Subordinated Notes

The Subordinated Notes issued under the Programme shall constitute Tier 2 instruments under Article 63 CRR, are subject to each of the provisions and restrictions therein and have a minimum maturity of five years.

The Notes constitute direct, unsecured and subordinated obligations of the Issuer, provided that claims on the principal amount under the Notes in the event of the insolvency or liquidation of the Issuer and to the extent that the Notes are (at least partly) recognized as own funds items, will rank:

- (a) junior to all present or future claims from: (i) unsecured and unsubordinated instruments or obligations of the Issuer; (ii) eligible liabilities instruments pursuant to Article 72b CRR of the Issuer; (iii) instruments or obligations of the Issuer that do not result from own funds items of the Issuer; and (iv) any other subordinated obligations of the Issuer which, in accordance with their terms or pursuant to mandatory provisions of law, rank or are expressed to rank senior to the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes at the relevant time;
- (b) pari passu: (i) among themselves; and (ii) with all other present or future Tier 2 Instruments and other subordinated instruments or obligations of the Issuer (other than subordinated instruments or obligations of the Issuer ranking or expressed to rank senior or junior to the Notes); and
- (c) senior to all present or future claims under: (i) Additional Tier 1 instruments pursuant to Article 52 CRR of the Issuer; (ii) ordinary shares and other Common Equity Tier 1 instruments pursuant to Article 28 CRR of the Issuer; (iii) instruments of participation capital pursuant to § 23 (4) and (5) BWG in the version prior to the entry into force of the CRR of the Issuer; and (iv) all other subordinated instruments or obligations of the Issuer ranking or expressed to rank junior to the Notes.

3.1.5 Covered Bank Bonds³

The Notes shall constitute covered bank bonds in accordance with the FBSchVG and constitute direct, unconditional and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer ranking pari passu among themselves and pari passu with all other senior covered notes of the same Cover Pool (as defined below) of the Issuer.

The Notes are secured by separate cover assets designated to provide preferential cover for the claims under the Notes pursuant to the FBSchVG.

Pursuant to the FBSchVG, the cover assets must at all times at least cover the redemption amount and the interest of the issued Covered Notes as well as the anticipated administrative costs in the event of an insolvency of the Issuer.

If insolvency proceedings are commenced by a competent Austrian court in respect of the assets of the Issuer, Covered Notes (but not other Notes) will not become due and payable if the cover pool has been transferred to an eligible credit institution and Holders may assert their claims under the Covered Notes to the extent of the default (or deemed default, as the case may be) to the extent such claims are not covered by the liquidation proceeds of the cover pool. In cases where the cover pool is not transferred to another credit institution in accordance with Austrian law and provided that the assets listed in the cover pool register are insufficient to satisfy the claims of all Holders of the Notes, the cover pool for the Notes will be liquidated at the request of the administrator of the cover pool and upon approval by the competent bankruptcy court, and the Notes will be deemed to be due and payable in accordance with applicable law.

3.1.6 Covered Bonds⁴

Rank

The Covered Bonds will constitute direct and unsubordinated liabilities of the Issuer ranking pari passu with each other and with all other unsubordinated Covered Bonds of the same cover pool of the Issuer.

Additional disclosures

This section on Covered Bonds contains a brief summary of certain aspects of the PfandBG that are relevant in connection with an issue of Covered Bonds. This summary does not purport to be exhaustive of all possible aspects of the Covered Bonds and the Covered Bonds which may be relevant to an issue of the Covered Bonds and further details may be contained in a supplement to this Prospectus. This summary does not address specific situations that may be relevant to certain potential Noteholders of the Covered Bonds. The following statements are of a general nature and are for information purposes only. They do not constitute, nor should they be construed as, legal advice. This summary is based on the provisions of the PfandBG as at the date of this Prospectus, as the same may be amended from time to time. Prospective Holders of the Covered Bonds should consult their legal advisers with respect to an investment in Covered Bonds.

³ The information in this section is relevant for Covered Bank Bonds issued until the PfandBG enters into force on 8 July 2022.

⁴ The information in this section is relevant for Covered Bonds issued after the PfandBG enters into force on 8 July 2022.

Possible effects of the insolvency of the Issuer

In the event of the insolvency or liquidation of the Issuer, payment obligations of the Issuer under the Covered Bonds are not subject to automatic early redemption (so-called "insolvency remoteness"). The Holders have a priority claim in respect of the principal amount and any accrued and future interest from the cover assets which, in the event of the opening of bankruptcy proceedings, form a special estate to satisfy the claims of the Holders of the covered bonds. Until such priority claim is satisfied, all Covered Assets are protected from third party claims and are not part of the Issuer's insolvency estate. In addition, in the event of the insolvency of the Issuer and in the event that the aforementioned senior claim cannot be satisfied in full, the Holders will have an insolvency claim against the Issuer.

Aged claims of the Holders under the Covered Bonds (i.e. existing claims which will only become due at a certain future date) shall not be deemed to be due in any bankruptcy proceedings relating to the assets of the Issuer.

The bankruptcy court shall appoint a trustee (§ 95a IO) to enforce the aforementioned priority claims and any insolvency claims upon commencement of the bankruptcy proceedings.

Role of the special administrator and deferral of maturity

The insolvency court shall immediately appoint a special administrator for the administration of the special assets (§ 86 IO). The FMA shall be heard prior to the appointment of the administrator. The rights and duties of the internal or external trustee pursuant to the PfandBG remain unaffected.

The special administrator shall meet due claims of the Holders of the bonds from the special assets and take the necessary administrative measures for this purpose with effect for the special assets, e.g. by collecting due mortgage claims, selling individual cover assets or by means of interim financing.

Furthermore, in the event of the insolvency of the Issuer, the special administrator may trigger a postponement of maturity pursuant to § 22 PfandBG, provided that the special administrator is convinced at the time of the postponement of maturity that the liabilities under the covered bonds can be serviced in full by the Issuer at the extended maturity date (objective triggering event). The maturity of Covered Bonds may be postponed once by up to twelve months upon the occurrence of the Objective Triggering Event. The postponement of the maturity is not at the discretion of the Issuer.

A Maturity Deferral shall not change the ranking of the Holders of the Covered Bonds or the sequence of the original schedule of maturities of the Covered Bond Programme. In the event of a Maturity Deferral, the maturity of other Covered Bonds within a Covered

Bond Programme shall be deemed to be deferred in each case for so long as is necessary to maintain the sequence of the original Maturity Schedule.

Role of the FMA

As the competent authority, the FMA shall supervise the issuance of covered bonds and compliance with the provisions of the PfandBG, without prejudice to the duties assigned to it under other federal laws, and shall take into account the economic interest in a functioning capital market. Among other things, the FMA has the authority to grant or refuse approval for covered bond programmes pursuant to § 30 PfandBG and to demand that the issuer submit the conditions for possible postponements of maturity pursuant to § 22 PfandBG.

Within the scope of the prospectus approval procedure, the FMA does not examine whether an approval for covered bond programmes pursuant to § 30 PfandBG has been granted.

Note on quarterly publication

The Issuer intends to provide detailed information to the Bondholders pursuant to § 23 (2) PfandBG on a quarterly basis on its website at "<https://www.volksbankwien.at/investor-relations/investor-relations>".

Lending limit

Potential investors in Covered Bonds should note that, as at the date of this Prospectus, the Issuer has not exercised the option pursuant to § 6 (7) PfandBG and therefore the loan-to-value ratio for residential real estate is 80%. The lending limit of 60% set out in the Articles of Association of the Issuer as at the date of this Prospectus relates only to covered bank bonds under the FBSchVG and, in the absence of any express provision in the Articles of Association of the Issuer, is not applicable to the lending limit of residential real estate securing issues of Covered Bonds.

3.2 PAYOUT PROFILES, INTEREST RATES

The Notes issued under the Programme fall into one of the following four Options (each an "Option") with respect to their interest rates, which are structured as different optional set of Terms and Conditions; the Final Terms will specify which Option of the set of Terms and Conditions is applicable: (i) Option 1 – Fixed Interest Rate, (ii) Option 2 - Zero Coupon Notes, (iii) Option 3 - Floating Interest Rate or (iv) Option 4 - Fixed to Floating Interest Rate or Fixed to Fixed Interest Rate.. Each of the set of Terms and Conditions for an Option has, inter alia, with respect to interest, further options (each a "Variant") which are selected in the Final Terms. With regard to the interest rate, the variants and options result in the following structuring options for the Notes.

3.2.1 Option 1 - Fixed Interest Rate

Notes with a fixed interest rate bear interest at a percentage rate fixed in advance (e.g. 2.5% of the nominal amount per annum) over their entire term. This fixed interest rate can either be the same for the entire term of the Notes (option 1) or increase (option 2) (e.g. 2.0% of the nominal amount per annum in the first four years of the term and 2.8% of the nominal amount per annum thereafter).

3.2.2 Option 2 - Zero Coupon Notes

Notes representing zero coupon Notes do not accrue interest but typically have a redemption amount equal to or greater than their principal amount and/or are issued at an issue price equal to or less than their principal amount. Any return to the Holder will be the difference between the redemption amount or price received by a Holder on a sale of the Notes and the issue price of the Notes or the price paid by the investor on acquisition of the Notes, excluding any inflation, duties, charges and fees in connection with the acquisition, holding or sale of the Notes.

3.2.3 Option 3 – Floating Interest Rate

In the case of floating rate Notes, the interest rate is not fixed over the term but is firmly linked to a Reference (Interest) Rate. The floating interest rate corresponds to the reference (interest) rate or a part or multiple of the reference (interest) rate plus or minus a margin, e.g. $0.8 * 3M\text{-Euribor} + 20$ basis points per annum. On certain days (so-called Interest Determination Days) during the term of the Notes, the Calculation Agent will determine the amount of the Reference (Interest) Rate and, on the basis of the determined value of the Reference (Interest) Rate, fix the Floating Interest Rate for a certain period (so-called Interest Period) during the term of the Notes, i.e. the interest rate specified on such Interest Determination Day in accordance with the provisions of the Terms and Conditions will then apply for one Interest Period. On the next Interest Determination Date, the Floating Interest Rate will be recalculated and fixed for one Interest Period (if one follows). Floating Rate Notes may also have a Minimum Interest Rate and/or a Maximum Interest Rate, in which case, if the above calculation would result in an interest rate that is less than the Minimum Interest Rate, the Minimum Interest Rate will apply for the relevant Interest Period and, if the above calculation would result in an interest rate that is greater than the Maximum Interest Rate, the Maximum Interest Rate will apply. The floating interest rate of the Notes will be capped at the Maximum Interest Rate and/or capped at the Minimum Interest Rate, as applicable, and may never be less than the Minimum Interest Rate or greater than the Maximum Interest Rate, as applicable.

The reference rates for the floating rate notes are EURIBOR and a CMS (constant maturity swap) rate.

EURIBOR. EURIBOR is the abbreviation for "Euro Interbank Offered Rate", a system of reference interest rates in the Euromarket which came into force within the framework of the European Economic and Monetary Union. EURIBOR is the reference rate for one-week deposits, one to three-month deposits, six-month deposits and twelve-month deposits. For this purpose, EURIBOR is determined on target days. For this purpose, the EURIBOR panel banks transmit their interest rates (determined via a waterfall principle on the basis of strict specifications) in interbank trading in the euro area to a screen service, which publishes the EURIBOR at 11.00 a.m. CET.

CMS. CMS stands for constant maturity swap. As with all other forms of interest rate swaps, two different interest rates are exchanged. In contrast to a standard swap, in which an agreed fixed interest rate is exchanged for a floating interest rate, a constant maturity swap involves the exchange of two floating interest rates. In a CMS, a short-term money market interest rate is swapped for a long-term capital market interest rate, but with the difference that the capital market interest rate to be paid is also reset regularly and periodically and is therefore also floating. The amount of these payments depends on an interest rate for swaps that always have the same term. For example, if the swap is based on the 10-year CMS rate, the payment amount of the swap is adjusted once a year on a predefined date to the interest rate for 10-year maturities. If this interest rate rises over the course of the swap term, then the swap partner that has to pay the CMS rate must also make higher payments to the other swap partner. The reverse is true if interest rates fall, in which case the amounts to be paid decrease analogously. The reference for the CMS rate is the respective ICE swap rate.

3.2.4 Option 4 - Fixed to Floating or Fixed to Fixed Interest Rate

Notes may also be structured initially with a fixed interest rate and subsequently with a floating interest rate or initially with a fixed interest rate and later on with another fixed interest rate. This means for the case of fixed to variable interest rates, that the fixed interest rate (as described in item 3.2.1) is changed to a floating interest rate (as described in item 3.2.3) after a time specified in the Final Terms and that, in the case of fixed to fixed interest, that the fixed interest rate is changed to another fixed interest rate after a time specified in the Final Terms.

3.3 METHOD OF DETERMINING THE ISSUE PRICE OF THE NOTES

The issue price of the Notes will be determined by the Issuer taking into account various price-relevant factors such as the current level of interest rates and other product-specific criteria. In addition, the issue price may also include an issue premium, which is intended to cover commissions for the Issuer or other ancillary costs incurred in connection with the issue and hedging of the Notes. Furthermore, the method of determining the issue price of a series of Notes depends on the distribution method.

In the case of a non-syndicated distribution, the Issuer will set the issue price at its own discretion prior to the issue date on the basis of generally prevailing market conditions and thereafter adjust it on an ongoing basis to prevailing market conditions in the case of continuous issues.

In the case of the syndicated distribution of Notes, a bookbuilding process is conducted with institutional investors prior to the commencement of the public offering of the Notes, in the course of which the demand of institutional investors is measured in relation to the issue price. The result of the bookbuilding process is included in the issue price of the Notes, which the Issuer is free to set.

Investors can obtain information on the current issue price from their respective custodian bank.

3.4 YIELD OF THE NOTES

The yield of the Notes depends, inter alia, on their interest rate and can therefore only be stated in advance for those Notes for which the applicable interest rates are fixed in advance for the entire term. This applies to Option 1 - Fixed Interest Rate Notes and Option 2 - Zero Coupon Notes, for which the Yield will be specified in the relevant Final Terms. The stated yield will only apply if the Notes are not sold or terminated with ordinary or extraordinary notice prior to the Final Maturity Date. In the case of Notes under Option 3 - Floating Interest Rate and Option 4 - Fixed to Floating Interest Rate or Fixed to Fixed Interest Rate, no Yield can be calculated due to the indeterminate yield of the Notes. Please refer to chapter 6.1 Terms and Conditions of the Notes from page 82 onwards for more information on the individual variants of the Prospectus.

Any yield stated in the Final Terms is calculated on the (initial) issue date on the basis of the initial issue price and is not an indication of a yield in the future. The yield is calculated using the internal rate of return (IRR) method.

3.5 REPRESENTATION OF THE HOLDERS

In principle, all rights arising from issues must be asserted by the individual Holders themselves or by the legal representative appointed by them against the Issuer directly, at the Issuer's registered office during normal business hours, as well as in writing or by ordinary legal proceedings.

No organised representation of the Holders is envisaged on the part of the Issuer.

The Holders may, however, be represented in any court proceedings or insolvency proceedings which may be instituted in Austria against the Issuer by a trustee (Kurator) appointed by and responsible to the Commercial Court of Vienna pursuant to the Act of 24 April 1874, Imperial Law Gazette No 49 as amended (the "Kuratorengesetz") and the Act of 5.12.1877, Reichsgesetzblatt Nr 111 idgF (the "Kuratorenergänzungsgesetz"), if the rights of the creditors of the Notes are endangered due to the lack of a joint representation or if the rights of another person would be delayed thereby and a curator is appointed by the competent court. The Curator Act and the Supplementary Curator Act can be accessed on the internet at www.ris.bka.gv.at.

There is no publication of contracts governing such representations of interest on the Issuer's website.

3.6 TRANSFERABILITY OF THE NOTES

If the Terms and Conditions of the Notes provide for the Notes to be held in safe custody with the Issuer, the Holder shall, upon acquisition of the Notes, be obliged to open a securities account with the Issuer or another credit institution within the Association of Volksbank. In this case, the Notes may therefore not be transferred to a securities account at another credit institution outside the association of Volksbank. This restricts the transferability of the Notes.

If the Terms and Conditions of the Notes provide for the Notes to be held in custody at OeKB CSD GmbH, Clearstream Banking AG, Clearstream Banking S.A. or Euroclear Bank SA/NV, the Notes may be freely transferred in accordance with the applicable provisions.

3.7 INVESTOR CATEGORIES AND DEDICATED TRANCHES FOR SPECIFIC MARKETS

The invitation to the offering is generally not made to any specific or limited target group. The Issuer does not intend to issue its own tranches for specific markets, as there are no plans to issue tranches.

3.8 SUBSCRIPTION PROCEDURE

The invitation to make an offer to initial purchasers will be made by the Issuer and any distribution partners. The offer to subscribe for the Notes must be made by the investors through their custodian credit institution. The Issuer reserves the right to accept the subscription offers (in whole or in part).

3.9 ALLOCATIONS, REIMBURSEMENT OF AMOUNTS

A reduction of the subscriptions is basically not provided. However, the Issuer has the right to reduce the subscriptions at its discretion; if the Issuer exercises this right, the amounts overpaid by the Holders will be refunded by the Issuer through their custodian credit institution.

Holders will be notified of the Notes allotted to them either via their custodian credit institution or in accordance with another procedure specified in the relevant Final Terms. Accordingly, no indication is given as to whether trading may commence prior to the notification procedure.

4.3 RISK FACTORS

See section "1. Risk Factors".

4.4 INFORMATION ON THE ISSUER

4.4.1 Business history and business development

The Issuer was newly established in 2001 by means of a spin-off from Österreichische Volksbanken-Aktiengesellschaft ("ÖVAG") in the course of transferring the "branch business" division. The company was first entered into the Austrian companies register under the legal name "VOLKSBANK WIEN AG" on 27 July 2001. In the same year, the banking business of "Volksbank in Wien und Klosterneuburg registrierte Genossenschaft mit beschränkter Haftung" was integrated into the VOLKSBANK WIEN AG. In 2010, ÖVAG, as the main shareholder up to that point, sold its shares in VOLKSBANK WIEN AG to the associated credit institutions of the Association of Volksbanks.

In 2013 and 2014, the banking companies of VOLKSBANK BADEN e.Gen. and Gärtnerbank were integrated into the Issuer as part of a contribution in kind pursuant to § 92 BWG by universal succession. With the entry in the Austrian companies register on 15 October 2013, the legal name of the Issuer was also changed to "Volksbank Wien-Baden AG".

In the course of restructuring the Association of Volksbanks (Volksbanken-Verbund) and the conversion of ÖVAG into a wind-down company (immigon portfolioabbau ag), the branch of activity of ÖVAG enabling the Issuer to acquire and fulfil the function as central organisation (Zentralorganisation) and central institution (Zentralinstitut) in the new credit institution Association of Volksbanks formed by the association agreement (Verbundvertrag) were transferred to the Issuer by a spin-off for acquisition (Abspaltung zur Aufnahme) by way of universal legal succession (Gesamtrechtsnachfolge) pursuant to the Austrian De-Merger Act (Spaltungsgesetz – "SpaltG"), carried out in accordance with a spin-off agreement dated 1 June 2015 and registered with the Austrian companies register on 4 July 2015.

In the years 2015 to 2018, the banking companies of Volksbank Ost registrierte Genossenschaft mit beschränkter Haftung, der Volksbank Obersdorf Wolkersdorf – Deutsch-Wagram (with simultaneous renaming of Volksbank Wien-Baden AG to VOLKSBANK WIEN AG), Volksbank Weinviertel e. Gen., Volksbank Niederösterreich Süd eG, Volksbank Südburgenland eG der e.Gen., SPARDA-BANK AUSTRIA eGen and, most recently, Waldviertler Volksbank Horn registrierte Genossenschaft mit beschränkter Haftung were transferred to the Issuer by way of universal legal succession pursuant to § 92 BWG.

Since 4 July 2015, the Issuer has the function as central organisation of the Association of Volksbanks formed on the basis of the Association Agreement and as central institution of the historic banking sector of Volksbanks. As of 31 December 2021, the Issuer has 324,921 customers throughout Austria as well as 56 subsidiaries. As of 31 December 2021, the Association of Volksbanks has 1,021,805 customers throughout Austria and 243 subsidiaries.

4.4.2 Legal and Commercial Name of the Issuer

The Issuer is a stock corporation incorporated for an indefinite period of time and registered with the Austrian companies register (Firmenbuch) of the commercial court (Handelsgericht) of Vienna under registration number FN 211524s under the name "VOLKSBANK WIEN AG". It operates under the commercial name "VOLKSBANK WIEN". The LEI number (legal entity identifier) of the Issuer is 529900D4CD6DIB3CI904. The Issuer is incorporated in Austria and operates under the laws of the Republic of Austria.

The registered office and business address of the Issuer is 1030 Vienna, Dietrichgasse 25. The central telephone number is +43 (0)1 401 37 0. Its website is www.volksbankwien.at. The information on the Issuer's website is not part of this Prospectus unless incorporated by reference in this Prospectus (see "INFORMATION INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE").

4.4.3 Recent events particular to the Issuer and which are to a material extent relevant to an evaluation of the issuer's solvency

Impact of the COVID-19 pandemic

The measures taken by countries, companies and others to prevent the spread of the virus due to the COVID-19 pandemic have an impact on the global economy and may also have a material impact on the business activities of the Issuer and the Association of Volksbanks. In this context, it cannot be excluded, inter alia, that the quality of the loan portfolio of the Issuer and other members of the Association of Volksbanks will deteriorate, as customers which are particularly affected by the pandemic may not be economically viable after the end of the government assistance programmes. The number of non-performing loans could also increase because repayment by customers of the Issuer and other members of the Association of Volksbanks is not possible as agreed. If the economic conditions deteriorate beyond the assessment and provisioning of any risks from the lending business, this could lead to credit losses that would possibly exceed the amount of the risk provisions formed. The assessment and provisioning of any risks from the lending business due to the COVID-19 pandemic was also a reason to increase risk provisioning expenses for VOLKSBANK WIEN AG from EUR -7.2 million in 2019 to EUR -26.6 million in 2020 and for the Association of Volksbanks from EUR -22.1 million as in 2019 to EUR -126.0 million in 2020. Given that the deterioration in credit quality did not occur to the expected extent despite the severe economic impact of the Corona crisis, risk provisions were released in 2021. The positive risk provisions of the issuer amounted to EUR 16.6 million and those of the Association of Volksbanks to EUR 89.5 million in 2021.

In addition, the COVID-19 pandemic could also increase the refinancing costs of the Issuer and other members of the Association of Volksbanks and restrict access to refinancing and capital markets.

Insolvency of Commerzialbank Mattersburg and other deposit guarantee cases

Additional burdens have also resulted from the insolvencies of Austrian credit institutions, in particular Commerzialbank Mattersburg im Burgenland AG. The payment of the protected customers' deposits is the responsibility of the Deposit Guarantee and Investor Compensation Fund when a protection event occurs.

The issuer as a member institution will incur an additional annual burden in the low double-digit million euro range from the increased contributions for the purpose of replenishing the deposit guarantee scheme over the next three years. The exact additional burden is difficult to quantify, given that it may be reduced by the return flows from the mass of insolvent banks to the Deposit Guarantee Scheme. At the time of this writing, it is unclear when and in what amount these returns will take place.

Contrary to original assumptions, the deposit guarantee case triggered by the failure of Sberbank Europe AG, Vienna, which was officially prohibited from continuing its business operations with immediate effect as of 1 March 2022, will not have any negative effects on the Issuer and/or the Association of Volksbanks as a result of higher contributions being prescribed by Einlagensicherung AUSTRIA Ges.m.b.H. The Issuer is not aware of any such negative effects.

Project "Adler"

Within the frame of Project "Adler", VOLKSBANK WIEN and the associated banks have agreed in the course of an action plan on how an increase in efficiency within the Association of Volksbanks can be safeguarded by six partial projects. Said action plan has been transposed in a business and capital plan, which has been resolved by the management and supervisory boards of each of the Volksbanks and has been submitted to the ECB.

The individual partial projects deal with the evaluation of a cooperation with possible cooperation partners, the optimisation of the central organisation function by reviewing processes, the bundling of processes in the back office area, sales optimisation as well as measures to improve the quality of capital instruments and the clear regional market positioning of the Association of Volksbanks. These extensive measures have been implemented, reported and controlled in the Association of Volksbanks according to plan since 2019. The Issuer plans to complete the project "Adler" by the end of 2022.

Supervisory Review and Evaluation Process

Depending on the business model, governance and risk management, capital adequacy and the liquidity situation of the credit institution, the ECB as competent authority shall set each year individual additional own funds requirements for each credit institution. This requirement also takes into account results from the latest stress tests and needs to be met by additional capital requirements set by the ECB. Depending on the financial situation of the Association of Volksbanks (incl. the issuer), the requirements of the Supervisory Review and Evaluation Process ("SREP") may vary annually.

In 2021, the Association of Volksbanks again underwent the annual SREP as part of the ECB's Single Supervisory Mechanism. With the ECB's decision of 2 February 2022, VOLKSBANK WIEN, as the central organisation of the Association of Volksbanks, received the result of the supervisory review and assessment process. The following capital ratios will result for the Association of Volksbanks as of 01.03.2022:

The capital recommendation (CET 1 Demand) set for the Association of Volksbanks is 10.66% and is made up as follows: Pillar 1 CET 1 requirement of 4.5%, Pillar 2 requirement of 1.41%, capital conservation buffer of 2.5%, systemic risk buffer of 0.50%, buffer for systemically important institutions of 0.50% and Pillar 2 capital recommendation of 1.25%. A possible AT1/Tier 2 shortfall increases the CET1 requirement accordingly.

The Tier 1 capital requirement is 11.38% (Pillar 1 requirement of 6.0%, Pillar 2 requirement of 1.88%, capital conservation buffer of 2.5%, systemic risk buffer of 0.50%, buffer for systemically important institutions of 0.50%).

The total capital requirement is 14.00% (Pillar 1 requirement of 8.0%, Pillar 2 requirement of 2.50%, capital conservation buffer of 2.5%, systemic risk buffer of 0.50%, buffer for systemically important institutions of 0.50%).

With the entry into force of the amendment to the BWG in 2021, which requires the systemic risk buffer and the buffer for systemically important institutions to be held in addition, the ratios were reduced from 1.00% to 0.50% in 2021.

As the central organisation of the Association of Volksbanks, VOLKSBANK WIEN has to fulfil the SREP requirements on a consolidated basis for all members of the Association of Volksbanks pursuant to section 30a BWG.

MREL ratio for the Association of Volksbanks

In order to ensure the effectiveness of bail-in and other resolution tools introduced by the BRRD, in addition to complying with the composite ratio, all individual composite banks must achieve an individual MREL requirement calculated as a percentage of the amount of own funds and eligible liabilities (a) in the Total Risk Exposure Amount (TREA) calculated in accordance with Article 92(3) CRR; and (b) the leverage ratio exposure calculated in accordance with Articles 429 and 429a CRR and prescribed by the relevant resolution authorities. The SRB, implemented by the FMA decision of 29 March 2022, has required the Association of Volksbanks to meet own funds and eligible liabilities (MREL) on a consolidated basis of 22.97% of their Total Risk Exposure Amount (TREA, plus 3.5% Combined buffer Requirement) and 5.91% of their Leverage Ratio Exposure (LRE) as of 31 December 2024 and to comply at all times thereafter.

To ensure the build-up of available own funds and eligible liabilities, the Association of Volksbanks must meet a minimum amount of own funds and eligible liabilities on a consolidated basis of 16.49% of its total risk exposure plus 3.5% combined buffer requirement) and 5.91% of its total risk exposure measure as of 1 January 2022. This ratio applies to the Association of Volksbanks. Individual members of the Association of Volksbanks have been prescribed individual quotas.

On 15 March 2021, the placement of a senior non-preferred bond with an issue volume of EUR 500 million and a value date of 23 March 2021 was completed. The notes serve to comply with the statutory MREL provisions and fulfil the requirements of § 131 (3)(1) to (3) BaSAG. The term of the bond is five years.

Capital buffer requirements for the Association of Volksbanks

The Issuer and the Association of Volksbanks must at all times comply with the combined capital buffer requirement within the meaning of § 22a BWG in the form of CET 1 capital. For the Association of Volksbanks, this represents the sum of the capital buffer requirement for compliance with (i) the capital conservation buffer of 2.5%, (ii) the countercyclical capital buffer for material credit risk positions located in Austria of 0%, (iii) the capital buffer for systemic vulnerability of 0.5%, the capital buffer for systemically important institutions (O-SII) of 0.5%, calculated in accordance with Article 92(3) CRR. For VOLKSBANK WIEN AG, the capital conservation buffer of 2.5% and the countercyclical capital buffer for material credit risk positions located in Austria of 0% apply.

Impact of the Ukraine crisis

Since the invasion of Ukraine by Russian troops, there has been a war between Ukraine and Russia. The further effects of this war and the development of the geopolitical situation are continuously evaluated by the Issuer. From a macroeconomic perspective, the Russia/Ukraine war is expected to have a negative impact on GDP due to additional supply chain problems, increased commodity and energy prices and a possibly high inflation rate.

Given that there are numerous uncertainties regarding the further (economic) development and the time horizon, a qualitative and quantitative impact assessment for the issuer and the Association of Volksbanks is not possible. Due to the regional orientation and the customer composition of the Association of Volksbanks, a short-term direct impact is currently considered to be low, given that the Association of Volksbanks as a whole does not have any direct economic and financial activities in Eastern Europe and in particular in Ukraine and Russia. No bonds from issuers from these regions are held either.

The extent to which the indirect effects of the war in Russia/Ukraine and the sanctions will affect the banks operating in Austria and their business partners and customers - beyond a time horizon that cannot be estimated at present - cannot be estimated in its entirety at this time either.

Intended changes at the outsourcing partner for the core banking system (ARZ Allgemeines Rechenzentrum GmbH)

It is intended that the current outsourcing service provider ARZ Allgemeines Rechenzentrum GmbH, in which the Issuer holds a significant interest, will sell its operations to the extent necessary for the core banking system by way of an asset deal (sale of the assets and business assets required for the operation) to a third party, which is to provide the services required for the core banking system as the new outsourcing service provider in the future. This is intended to improve efficiency, access to resources (programming services, cloud solutions, IT infrastructure, etc.) and management capacities. From today's perspective, the Issuer does not expect the implementation of this change to have any significant financial impact on the net assets, financial position and results of operations of the Issuer and/or the Association of Volksbanks.

4.4.5 Information on material changes in the Issuer's borrowing and funding structure since the last financial year

In order to strengthen its liquidity position, the Issuer has participated in the ECB's Targeted Longer-Term Refinancing Operations ("TLTRO") III Programme. The use of the TLTRO III programme serves, in addition to reasons of cost efficiency, primarily to secure the increasing liquidity needs of the Issuer's customers due to support measures (deferrals or bridge financing resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic) of the real economy. With this set of instruments, the ECB provides banks with refinancing with the provision of eligible collateral with a 3-year term, which can be repaid early if required, starting in September 2021. Furthermore, there have been no significant changes in the Issuer's borrowing and funding structure since the last financial year.

4.4.6 Description of the expected financing of the Issuer's activities

The Issuer's funding and liquidity profile is and will be consistent with its business model, which is and will be predominantly focused on retail and corporate banking in Austria. Accordingly, the main sources of funding are and will be, in order of importance, customer and savings deposits, deposits of associated banks held by the Issuer in its role as the central organisation for the Association of Volksbanks, and debt securities, in particular covered bonds (fundierte Bankschuldverschreibungen).

4.6 ORGANISATIONAL STRUCTURE

4.6.1 Association of Volksbanks

- 1) Die VOLKSBANK WIEN AG ist regionale Volksbank, aber kein zugeordnetes Kreditinstitut. Die Anzahl der zugeordneten Kreditinstitute inkludiert daher die VOLKSBANK WIEN AG nicht.
- 2) Die Volksbank Vertriebs- und Marketing eG gilt als Mitglieder des Volksbanken-Verbandes, verfügt jedoch über keine Konzession als Kreditinstitut gemäß BWG und ist somit kein Teil des Kreditinstitute-Verbandes gemäß § 30a BWG.
- 3) Die ESA nimmt die gesetzliche Einlagensicherung & Anlegerentschädigung für alle in Österreich domizilierten CRR-Kreditinstitute wahr (ausgenommen ERSTE Bank u. Sparkassen)
- 4) VOLKSBANK WIEN AG und VOLKSBANK VORARLBERG e. Gen.: Prüfung durch KPMG / Der ÖGV hat gem. § 61 BWG gemeinsam mit der Einlagensicherung Austria „Aufgaben im Rahmen eines Früherkennungssystems bei den ihm angeschlossenen Kreditinstituten wahrzunehmen“

In 2014, the primary institutions of the Austrian Volksbank sector ("Volksbank sector"), which at that time meant the regional Volksbanks belonging to the Association of Volksbanks with ÖVAG as the central organisation, the special credit institutions, the credit cooperative bank and and a building society (start:bausparkasse), decided on the fundamental restructuring and reorganisation of this Association of Volksbanks.

Following the withdrawal of ÖVAG (now "immigon portfolioabbau ag") from the Association of Volksbanks and its continuation as a wind-down company, VOLKSBANK WIEN has been the central organisation of the Association of Volksbanks since 4 July 2015. The strategic restructuring of the Association of Volksbanks includes the creation of a target structure consisting of up to eight regional Volksbanks (including VOLKSBANK WIEN) and up to three special credit institutions. This planning objective has been realised at the end of June 2018 through mergers and the sale of the start:gruppe (start:bausparkasse AG and IMMO-BANK Aktiengesellschaft).

In 2016, the ECB approved the association formed between VOLKSBANK WIEN as the central organisation and the member credit institutions affiliated to the central institution as an association of credit institutions pursuant § 30a BWG effective from 1 July 2016.

For implementation, the Volksbanks chose a legal structure with the greatest possible integration within the framework of Art. 10 CRR. Consequently, the Association of Volksbanks is characterised by a very high degree of interconnectedness. A number of regulatory requirements (such as capital and liquidity requirements) only have to be met at the level of the Association of Volksbanks and by VOLKSBANK WIEN AG ("VOLKSBANK WIEN") as the central organisation, but not by the other members of the Association of Volksbanks.

VOLKSBANK WIEN as the central organisation and the legally independent regional Volksbanks (Volksbank Niederösterreich AG, Volksbank Oberösterreich AG, Volksbank Steiermark AG, Volksbank Tirol AG, Volksbank Kärnten eG, Volksbank Salzburg eG, VOLKSBANK VORARLBERG e. Gen.) as well as the special credit institution (Österreichische Ärzte- und Apothekerbank AG) as member credit institutions form an association of credit institutions pursuant to § 30a BWG on the basis of the Association Agreement, which represents a Joint Liquidity and Liability Association.

The central objective of the Joint Liability Association is to safeguard the continued existence of the members of the Association of Volksbanks, which results in a mutual obligation on the part of the member institutions. In its function as the central organisation, VOLKSBANK WIEN is also dependent on the economic situation of the other members of the Association of Volksbanks due to the strong mutual interdependencies (see also item 4.6.3 Agreements regulating the Association of Volksbanks).

The members of the Association of Volksbanks are a) VOLKSBANK WIEN (as the central organisation and regional Volksbank) and b) the member credit institutions.

VOLKSBANK WIEN is also one of (in total) eight regional Volksbanks and part of the Association of Volksbanks, but in its role as a central organisation and not as member credit institution. As a result, eight regional Volksbanks and one special credit institution are members of the Association of Volksbanks.

Volksbank Vertriebs- und Marketing eG is considered a member of the Association of Volksbanks, but does not have a licence as a credit institution pursuant to BWG and is therefore not part of the association of credit institutions pursuant to § 30a BWG.

The members of the Association of Volksbanks are also members of the "Volksbank" group at the Österreichischer Genossenschaftsverband (Schulze-Delitzsch) (the "ÖGV"), a federation of cooperatives, and of the professional Association of Volksbanks (Fachverband der Volksbanken) at the Austrian Economic Chamber (Wirtschaftskammer Österreich – WKÖ).

The Association of Volksbanks and the individual members of the Association of Volksbanks are subject to direct supervision of the ECB. The Association of Volksbanks is a vertically organised system in which the members of the Association of Volksbanks work together. Based on joint objectives, said members remove certain individual functions from their autonomous area of responsibility and transfer these to other members of the Association of Volksbanks (principle of subsidiarity). This principle governs the relationship between the decentralised units (the individual members of the Volksbanks sector) and the central units, i.e. the central organisation and ÖGV.

4.6.2 Contracts regulating the Association of Volksbanks

4.6.2.1 Association Agreement (Verbundvertrag)

In order to ensure a sustainable Association of Volksbanks retaining the core competency as a regionally based financial services provider that ensures the comprehensive supply of financing to the economy and regional financial support for customers, the primary institutions of the Austrian Volksbanks sector, which includes the regional Volksbanks belonging to the Association of Volksbanks at that time, the special credit institutions, the credit cooperative banks and a building society (start:bausparkasse), decided, by means of a resolution in principle dated 2 October 2014, on the strategic restructuring of the Association of Volksbanks.

In order to secure and sustainably reinforce the existence and performance of the Austrian Association of Volksbanks, the Issuer (as the central organisation) concluded the Association Agreement with the member credit institutions of the Austrian Volksbanks sector, which came into effect in the current version on 1 July 2016. This Association Agreement forms the foundation of the Association of Volksbanks, serving both to ensure the regulated transfer of liquidity between the members (Liquidity Scheme) and the provision of other services between the members (Liability Scheme), thereby providing an indirect guarantee for the creditors of all members (see also risk factor: "association risk"), but does not establish any third-party rights of claim against the members of the Association of Volksbanks. In doing so, the central organisation is obligated, on the one hand, to manage liquidity in the Association in such a way that ensures compliance at all times with all relevant supervisory regulations and, on the other, is entitled, in the event of a liquidity emergency or violation by a member credit institution of general instructions concerning the transfer of liquidity, to take enforcement action.

On the basis of the Association Agreement as the Trustor, the central organisation provides services to avert a threatening deterioration in the business, financial condition and results of operations, including the liquidity situation, in the regulatory and economic capital, in credit defaults or cluster risks, in one or more members of the Association of Volksbanks. A need to avert a threatening deterioration in the business, financial condition and results of operations is to be assumed in particular if a member of the Association of Volksbanks is no longer able to meet, on an individual basis, the yellow threshold value plus a supplement defined in the most recent group restructuring plan prepared pursuant to BaSAG for the CET 1 ratio of individual members, or there is a risk that this may happen.

The obligation to promptly provide service only exists, however, if this is required to avert the above-mentioned threatening deterioration in the business, financial condition and results of operations and the services are covered by the sum of the resources available in the Trust Fund and/or by the amounts that can be expected to be contributed by members of the Association of Volksbanks according to the binding estimation by the central organisation for all members, and these are enough to prevent the occurrence of these circumstances for a reasonable period of time in the view of the central organisation.

The central organisation may issue general and individual instructions to the member credit institutions to fulfil its management function. The competence to issue general instructions serves to fulfil general requirements (such as in the areas of compliance with supervisory regulations, notably the solvency and liquidity of the Association; administrative, technical and financial supervision or risk assessment) for the entire Association of Volksbanks. Individual instructions serve to substantiate the rights and obligations following from the general instructions, and may be issued by the central organisation in the event of a violation of general instructions to restore the contractual and legal condition in the Association of Volksbanks vis-à-vis the individual credit institutions.

The Association Agreement contains the following points to achieve the target structure in particular:

- comprehensive governance regulations;
- widening of the liability of the members of the Association of Volksbanks to an unlimited liability;
- indefinite duration of the Agreement; the right of members to leave the Association of Volksbanks by terminating the Association Agreement is largely excluded until 2025 (minimum contractual period); any remaining legally required rights of members to terminate the Agreement may only be exercised with a notice period of two years starting at the end of a calendar year and only with effect for the terminating member (not for the other contracting parties); and
- granting of additional rights of the central organisation to issue instructions to members of the Association of Volksbanks.

As the central organisation, VOLKSBANK WIEN has comprehensive, legally defined management and instruction competences to which the member credit institutions are subject in accordance with § 30a BWG.

4.6.2.2 Trust Agreement Trust Fund (Treuhandvertrag Leistungsfonds)

In order to cover the measures to be taken by the central organisation, set out in the Association Agreement, to avert a threatening deterioration in the business, financial condition and results of operations, including the liquidity situation, in the regulatory and economic capital, in credit defaults or cluster risks, in one or more members of the Association of Volksbanks, the Issuer, as the central organisation, concluded the Trust Agreement Trust Fund with its member credit institutions for an indefinite period of time and which came into effect on 1 July 2016.

The Trust Fund was set up as earmarked trust assets of the contracting institutions held by the central organisation as the trustor and endowed in accordance with this Agreement. By 31 December 2021, the aim was to have a target endowment amount on the basis of the average risk position of the contracting parties, but no less than EUR 100 million, with initial endowment amounting to a minimum of EUR 50 million. The current endowment of the Trust Fund is EUR 100 million, which was reached in March 2021. The VOLKSBANK WIEN as the central organisation calculates the Trust Fund's target endowment based on the primary banks' average risk position.

If, according to the Association Agreement, it occurs that the central organisation is entitled to call on member contributions, it shall take these first from the Trust Fund. The resources from the Trust Fund are to be used to purchase assets that may be recognised on the balance sheet. In the event that, in isolated cases, there are no longer any resources in the Trust Fund for the central organisation to use, the central organisation shall retrieve the missing amount as ad hoc contributions from the individual contracting institutions in accordance with the proportions arising from the Association Agreement.

4.6.2.3 Cooperation Agreement (Zusammenarbeitsvertrag)

In the course of the restructuring of the Association of Volksbanks, Volksbank Vertriebs- und Marketing eG and the members of the association of credit institutions pursuant to § 30a BWG, including VOLKSBANK WIEN, concluded the cooperation agreement for an indefinite period of time and which came into effect on 1 July 2016. According to the Cooperation Agreement, Volksbank Vertriebs- und Marketing eG is authorised to make binding decisions for the members of the Association of Volksbanks so as to harness synergies in the Association of Volksbanks.

Unless covered by the instruction remit of the central organisation as per the Association Agreement, the Cooperation Agreement regulates the following areas:

- cross-association sales and marketing measures;
- optimisation and standardisation of operating processes;
- services through the association, including setting transfer prices; and
- association benchmarking.

The competence conferred to Volksbank Vertriebs- und Marketing eG includes the power to pass resolutions to limit the interests of individual or several members of the Association of Volksbanks. The resolutions passed by the Managing Board of Volksbank Vertriebs- und Marketing eG are binding for the contracting parties.

4.6.2.4 Agreement on the division of association costs (Vereinbarung über die Tragung der Verbundkosten)

In order to form the new Association of Volksbanks, the Issuer (as the central organisation) and the credit institutions member to it concluded an agreement to spread the costs incurred for the Issuer as the central organisation that are to be borne jointly by the members of the Association of Volksbanks. These costs include, among others, personnel service costs and material expenses for Association marketing, Association organisation, Association purchasing and the costs of all supervisory authorities. The costs are allocated using an allocation key defined in the agreement.

4.6.2.5 Restructuring Agreement 2015 / Implementation Agreement (Restrukturierungsvereinbarung 2015 / Umsetzungsvereinbarung)

VOLKSBANK WIEN, ÖVAG (now Immigon), Volksbanken Holding eGen, the Federal Government and FIMBAG Finanzmarktbeiligung Aktiengesellschaft des Bundes ("FIMBAG") concluded a restructuring agreement on 30 June 2015 (the "Restructuring Agreement 2015"). Originally, the Restructuring Agreement for the Association of Volksbanks essentially contained the following points:

- The obligations of Volksbanken Holding eGen to transfer 9.3% of the shares of Immigon to GPVAUBEOE Beteiligungen GmbH (the transfer has already happened) and to forward all amounts and assets received on the Immigon shares it holds as dividends or a share of the income from liquidation to the Federal Government for as long as and to the extent that the total amount of compensation going to the Federal Government does not exceed EUR 250 million;
- the obligation of the members of the Association of Volksbanks to only to a limited extent distribute profits from the scope of consolidation of the Association of Volksbanks or any equal measures to shareholders/members or holders of participation notes;

- the agreement of the Issuer via its wholly owned company VB Rückzahlungsgesellschaft mbH to issue the Federal Government's participation right (the issue has already occurred) and the agreement of the Issuer not to take any action or conclude any legal transactions that increase the risk of the Federal Government not being served by the Federal Government's participation right; and
- an acquisition ban (with certain exceptions) for the members of the Association of Volksbanks.

The implementation of these obligations and agreements within the Association of Volksbanks is content of the Implementation Agreement.

To create a transparent governance and capital structure, the cooperative holding companies were deconsolidated from the Association of Volksbanks in 2017 at the initiative of the ECB. The contractual implementation has been made with Addendum to the Restructuring Agreement concluded on 12 December 2017 and the Agreement to the Implementation Agreement concluded in November 2017.

In connection with the formal termination of the restructuring phase of the Association of Volksbanks as of 30 June 2020, some conditions under state aid law, such as the acquisition ban and restrictions regarding LiveBANK (no price leadership for interest rates in the deposit-taking business), ceased to apply.

4.6.2.6 Framework agreement concerning the placement of receivables in the cover pool (Rahmenvereinbarung betreffend Einstellung von Forderungen in den Deckungsstock)

The VOLKSBANK WIEN has concluded trust agreements with the members of the Association of Volksbanks regarding the inclusion of mortgages of these credit institutions in the cover pool of the VOLKSBANK WIEN for an indefinite period of time pursuant to § 1(6) sentence 2 of the Austrian Act on Covered Bonds (Gesetz betreffend fundierte Bankschuldverschreibungen – FBSchVG). The trust agreement may be terminated by either contracting party with a notice period of ten days on the last day of the month. However, for the receivables already included in the cover pool on the basis of the trust agreement up to the time of its termination, the provisions of the trust agreement continue to apply until the associated covered bonds of the VOLKSBANK WIEN have been repaid.

If the trust is ended by the respective member credit institution, e.g. by terminating the trust agreement, the permission from the respective member credit institution to include the receivables in the cover pool of the VOLKSBANK WIEN and the provisions of the trust agreement will remain unaffected thereby. The respective member credit institution is therefore not entitled to request the transfer of the receivable in question as long as the receivable is included in the cover pool of the VOLKSBANK WIEN.

In the course of spinning off the central organisation and central institution functions from ÖVAG to the VOLKSBANK WIEN, the cover pool and the legal relationships arising out of this trust agreement are transferred by universal succession to the VOLKSBANK WIEN pursuant to § 17 in conjunction with § 1(2) sentence 2 SpaltG.

4.6.3 Liquidity Scheme

The central organisation is obligated to control liquidity in the Association of Volksbanks in such a way to ensure compliance with all material supervisory regulations at all times. The member credit institutions of the Association of Volksbanks are obligated to invest their liquidity at the Issuer in accordance with the general instructions of the Issuer in its function as central organisation. In the event of a Liquidity Scheme emergency, the assets of all member credit institutions of the Association of Volksbanks may be drawn on to resolve the emergency. Through the participation of the members of the Association of Volksbanks in the Liquidity Scheme, obligations may arise for the them that are unable to influence. As a regional Volksbank, the Issuer is also subject to the obligation to balance liquidity and must, in the event of a Liquidity Scheme emergency, make assets available.

4.6.4 Joint Liability Scheme

The key elements of the Joint Liability Scheme are the VOLKSBANK WIEN as the central organisation (decision-making authority of the Managing Board of the VOLKSBANK WIEN, control by means of instructions, exercising of control functions vis-à-vis the member credit institutions) on the one hand, and the trust fund as a trust fund within the scope of consolidation on the other (Leistungsfonds – the "Trust Fund").

On the basis of the Association Agreement and the Trust Agreement Trust Fund, the central organisation takes measures to avert a threatening deterioration in the business, financial condition and results of operations, including the liquidity situation, in the regulatory and economic capital, in credit defaults or cluster risks, in one or more members. The current endowment of the Trust Fund in the amount of EUR 100 million was reached in March 2021.

A threatening deterioration in the business, financial condition and results of operations is to be assumed in particular if a member of the Association of Volksbanks on an individual basis no longer meets the yellow threshold plus a premium set for the CET 1 ratio of the individual members in the latest valid group recovery plan prepared by the central organisation for the Association of Volksbanks pursuant to the BaSAG or no longer threatens to meet another yellow threshold ("Threshold") set in the group recovery plan for the individual members.

The services provided to the members of the Association of Volksbanks may take the form of:

- equity injections;
- purchase of assets;
- short and medium-term liquidity support;
- guarantees and other liabilities;
- subordinated loans;
- payment of third-party claims;
- recovery funding;

- lost grants (services provided by the members of the Joint Liability Scheme with no repayment obligation); and
- management support in particular the directors in operational and organisational matters and by providing specialists for the respective fields.

The choice of one or more of these service forms are at the sole discretion of the central organisation although, in the case of services that boost equity, preference is to be given, where possible, to voting instruments of common equity and, when using resources from the Trust Fund, the stipulations of the Trust Agreement Trust Fund must be adhered to.

The members of the Association of Volksbanks are to provide reinsurance for these obligations. The assets in the Trust Fund endowed pursuant to the Trust Agreement Trust Fund by members of the Association of Volksbanks may be used by the central organisation to provide support. In the event that there are insufficient funds for the central organisation in the Trust Fund in isolated cases, the members of the Association of Volksbanks must make contributions in accordance with a key defined in the Association Agreement, with the obligation to make such payments being unlimited for every member at all times. However, in the case of the central organisation it is limited to the point where the central organisation still has to fulfil regulatory capital requirements and in the case of the other members to the point where any member would come close to a point of non-viability.

Every service to be provided by the central organisation shall be provided on the basis of an agreement to be concluded between the central organisation and the member concerned, which must regulate the form, scope, duration, conditions and any repayment of the service as well as the costs to be borne by the respective member (Leistungsvertrag - the "Benefit Agreement"). The central organisation is entitled, within the framework of its due discretion, to unilaterally define the content of the Benefit Agreement in consideration of the restructuring plans with a binding effect for the member concerned. The Benefit Agreement takes effect upon receipt of notification by the member concerned from the central organisation concerning the content thereof, without the need for any further explanation or legal action.

The Benefit Agreement must contain suitable conditions such as:

- (a) The right of the central organisation to require changes to the statutes and, where necessary, the rules of procedure of the bodies of the member concerned;
- (b) the right of the central organisation to dispatch a representative to be determined by the central organisation or a third-party expert with or without voting rights to meetings of the Managing Board and, where necessary, of the supervisory board of the member concerned;
- (c) the replacement of the board of directors of the member concerned and the appointment of the board of directors approved by the central organisation, or the right of the central organisation to effect the replacement of the board of directors of the member concerned;
- (d) information and cooperation duties of the member concerned vis-à-vis the central organisation or one of the representatives sent by the central organisation; and

- (e) conditions and repayment obligations of the member concerned in the event that the member concerned leaves or is excluded from the Association of Volksbanks.

The choice of requirements is, as with the entire content of the Benefit Agreement, at the sole discretion of the central organisation.

If the member concerned violates a condition stipulated in the Benefit Agreement, the member loses any right to further services under the Association Agreement. Furthermore, the central organisation may resolve on sanctions vis-à-vis the relevant member, e.g. the immediate return of received and repayable services, contractual penalties of up to 0.2% of the total assets of the member concerned and – as the ultima ratio – the exclusion of the relevant member from the Association of Volksbanks.

4.6.5 Participation of the Republic of Austria (Federal Government) in VOLKSBANK WIEN AG

In order to obtain the state aid law approval for the restructuring from the European Commission, a participation right (Genussrecht) in the aggregate principal amount of EUR 300 million was issued by VB Rückzahlungsgesellschaft mbH (a wholly owned subsidiary of VOLKSBANK WIEN) as of 20 October 2015 to the Federal Government of the Republic of Austria (the "Austrian Government Participation Right") to fulfil the commitments given by the Association of Volksbanks vis-à-vis the Republic of Austria in the course of measures to restructure the Association of Volksbanks.

The members of the Association of Volksbanks (including the VOLKSBANK WIEN) agreed to make contributions to the disbursements to the Austrian Government Participation Right.

In addition, the members of the Association of Volksbanks and other shareholders of VOLKSBANK WIEN agreed to transfer shares of VOLKSBANK WIEN without consideration as ownership transferred by way of security (Sicherungseigentum) to the Federal Government after receipt of a corresponding statement of purchase by the Federal Government, meaning that the Federal Government consequently holds a total of 25% plus one share in the Issuer. The Federal Government is obliged to transfer said shares back to the shareholders without consideration, as soon as the sum of the dividends, on the participation right held by the Federal Government, received from the Federal Government and other creditable amounts (in total the "Eligible Amounts") reaches EUR 300 million. As of the date of this Prospectus EUR 100 million of the Austrian Government Participation Right is still outstanding.

4.6.6 Membership of the Issuer in the Austrian Association of Cooperatives

The ÖGV was founded in 1872 and is the statutory auditing association of the Austrian Volksbanks with the exception of VOLKSBANK WIEN. Every credit institution within the Association of Volksbanks is a member of the ÖGV, with cooperatives outside the finance sector (from industry and trade) also being members thereof.

4.6.7 Membership of the Issuer in Einlagensicherung AUSTRIA GmbH

Every credit institution that accepts deposits or provides services in investment and securities subject to compulsory insurance is, due to EU directives, legally obligated to belong to a deposit guarantee scheme. In Austria the EU Deposit Guarantee Schemes

Directive is transposed into the Austrian Deposit Guarantee and Investor Compensation Act (Einlagensicherungs- und Anlegerentschädigungsgesetz – ESAEG).

As Austrian credit institutions, all members of the Association of Volksbanks, including VOLKSBANK WIEN, are subject without restriction to the provisions of the ESAEG and are members of the statutory deposit guarantee scheme of the Volksbanks, Einlagensicherung AUSTRIA GmbH, with its registered office at Wipplingerstraße 44, 1010 Vienna, Austria. Einlagensicherung AUSTRIA GmbH is the statutory deposit guarantee scheme of the Volksbank sector, banks and bankers, mortgage banks and Raiffeisen banks.

The Einlagensicherung AUSTRIA GmbH protects credit balances on accounts and savings books of member institutions up to EUR 100,000 per customer and per credit institution. In certain cases (e.g. deposit from the sale of a private residential property), the protected amount is increased to up to EUR 500,000 per customer and per credit institution. The benefits of the Einlagensicherung AUSTRIA GmbH can only be called upon if the Joint Liability Scheme is no longer able to ensure the viability of the Association of Volksbanks.

4.7 TREND INFORMATION

With exception of the events set out in section "4.4.3 Recent events particular to the Issuer and which are to a material extent relevant to an evaluation of the issuer's solvency", there has been no material adverse change in the prospects of the Issuer and no significant change in its financial condition and no significant change in its financial position since the date of the last published audited consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2021.

Known trends affecting the prospects of the Issuer and the industry in which it conducts its business are the challenging macroeconomic environment and the continuing difficult conditions in the financial and capital markets, which have been exacerbated by the war in Ukraine and the still existing COVID-19 pandemic and which do not currently allow any conclusions to be drawn as to the financial implications for the Issuer. These developments have in the past and may in the future have negative effects on the Issuer's business, financial condition and results of operations, in particular also on its cost of capital.

In addition, changes in the regulatory environment or regulatory enforcement initiatives may have a negative impact on the Issuer. In this regard, new challenges may also arise in the management of sustainability risks related to climate, environment, social or governance, as existing legal requirements oblige companies to consider environmental, social and governance risks in addition to risk management. In particular, new legal or regulatory requirements and a change in the requirements deemed necessary for own funds, liquidity and leverage ratios may lead to higher requirements and ratios for own funds and liquidity. Likewise, further regulatory measures (such as expanded financial market regulations through MIFID II, MiFIR, BRRD, etc) pose major challenges for the issuer and the financial industry.

4.8 EXPECTED OR ESTIMATED PROFIT

The Issuer has not included any profit forecasts or profit estimates in the Prospectus.

In respect of the individuals listed above, the Issuer has no knowledge of conflicts of interest between the formers' obligations towards the Issuer and their private or other interests.

- (4) [From (and including) the entry into force of the Austrian Pfandbrief Act (PfandBG) Federal Law Gazette I No. 199/2021 on 08.07.2022 as follows, the following applies:

In the event of a maturity extension, the Issuer will redeem the Notes in whole and not in part on the Extended Maturity Date at the principal amount together with any interest accrued to (but excluding) the Extended Maturity Date. From the Extended Maturity Date onwards, the Bondholders shall have no claim to further interest payments. Neither the non-payment of the outstanding aggregate principal amount on the Maturity Date nor the postponement of the Maturity Date shall constitute an Event of Default by the Issuer for any purpose or entitle any Noteholder to terminate the Notes or to receive any payment other than as expressly provided for in these Terms and Conditions.

In the event of the insolvency or resolution of the Issuer, payment obligations of the Issuer under the Notes shall not be subject to automatic acceleration and prepayment (bankruptcy remoteness). In each case, the Holders shall have a priority claim in relation to the principal amount and any accrued and future interest from the cover assets and in addition in case of insolvency, to the extent that the aforementioned priority claim cannot be satisfied in full, an insolvency claim against the Issuer.

As competent authority, the Austrian Financial Market Authority (FMA) supervises the issuance of covered bonds and compliance with the provisions of the PfandBG, taking into account the national economic interest in a functioning capital market.

In case of insolvency proceedings, the bankruptcy court shall without undue delay appoint a special administrator to administer priority claims in relation to the principal amount and any accrued and future interest from the cover assets (special estate) (§ 86 of the Austrian Insolvency Code). The special administrator shall satisfy due claims of the Holders from the special estate and shall take the necessary administrative measures for this purpose with effect for the special estate, for example by collecting due mortgage claims, selling individual cover assets or by bridge financing.]

[If, in the case of senior or covered Notes, "Early Redemption in case of Change of Law, Hedging Disruption and/or Increased Hedging Costs" is applicable, insert:

(3) Early Redemption in case of Change of Law, Hedging Disruption and/or Increased Hedging Costs. The Issuer may redeem the Notes at any time prior to the Maturity Date upon the occurrence of Change of Law and/or Hedging Disruption and/or Increased Hedging Costs (each as defined below) at their early redemption amount of [insert early redemption price] of the Denomination (the "Early Redemption Amount") together with accrued interest. The Issuer shall redeem the Notes in full (but not in part only) on the second Business Day (as defined in § 6) after which notice of the early redemption has been given in accordance with § 11, provided that such date is not later than two Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (the "Early Redemption Date") and will pay or cause to be paid the Early Redemption Amount in respect of the Notes to the Holders in accordance with any applicable tax laws or other legal or regulatory requirements and in accordance with and subject to these Terms and Conditions. Payments of taxes or early redemption charges shall be borne by the Holders and the Issuer shall have no liability therefor.

Whereas:

"Change of Law" means that (i) due to the enactment of changes in laws or regulations (including but not limited to tax laws) or (ii) changes in the interpretation of judicial or regulatory decisions relevant to the relevant laws or regulations (including statements by tax authorities), the Issuer determines that there has been a material increase in the costs associated with its obligations under the Notes (including, without limitation, increases in tax liabilities, reductions in tax benefits or other adverse effects on tax treatment) if such changes become effective on or after the Issue Date;

"Hedging Disruption" means that the Issuer, using commercially reasonable efforts, is unable to (i) enter into, continue or settle any transaction or acquire, exchange, hold or dispose of any asset that the Issuer deems necessary to hedge price risk with respect to its obligations under the Notes or (ii) realise, recover or pass on the proceeds of any transaction or asset; and

"Increased Hedging Costs" means that the Issuer is required to pay a materially higher amount of taxes, duties, expenses and fees (other than brokerage fees) in order to (i) enter into, continue or settle any transaction or to acquire, exchange, hold or dispose of any asset, which the Issuer deems necessary to hedge price risks in respect of its obligations under the Notes or (ii) to realise, recover or pass on proceeds from such transactions or assets, provided that amounts which have increased only because of the creditworthiness of the Issuer has declined shall not be deemed to be Increased Hedging Costs.]

[In the case of eligible Notes the following applies:

(3) Early Redemption for Regulatory Reasons. The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time on giving not less than 30 days' nor more than 60 days' prior notice of redemption, in accordance with § 11 of the Terms and Conditions to the Holders (which notice shall be irrevocable), at their early redemption amount of [insert early redemption price] of the Denomination together with interest accrued to (but excluding) the redemption date (the "Early Redemption Amount"), if there is a change in the regulatory classification of the Notes that would be likely to result in their exclusion in full or in part from liabilities eligible for the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities (MREL) pursuant to the BaSAG on an unlimited and upwardly unrestricted basis, and provided that the conditions laid down in § 5(4) are met.

(4) Conditions for Early Redemption and Repurchase.

Any early redemption pursuant to this § 5 and any repurchase pursuant to § 13 (2) are subject to the Issuer having obtained the prior permission of the Resolution Authority for the early redemption and the repurchase, in accordance with Articles 77 and 78a CRR, if and to the extent such prior permission is required at this time.

Notwithstanding the above conditions, if, at the time of any early redemption or repurchase, the prevailing supervisory regulations applicable to the Issuer permit the early redemption or repurchase only after compliance with one or more alternative or additional pre-conditions to those set out above, the Issuer shall comply with such other and/or, as appropriate, additional pre-conditions, if any.

For the avoidance of doubt, any refusal by the Resolution Authority to grant a required permission, authorisation or other consent does not constitute a default.

[In the case of subordinated Notes the following applies:

(3) Early Redemption for Reasons of Taxation or for Regulatory Reasons. The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time on giving not less than 30 days' nor more than 60 days' prior notice of redemption, in accordance with § 11 of the Terms and Conditions to the Holders (which notice shall be irrevocable), at their early redemption amount of [insert early redemption price] of the Denomination together with interest accrued to (but excluding) the redemption date (the "Early Redemption Amount"):

- (a) for regulatory reasons, if there is a change in the regulatory classification of the Notes that would be likely to result in their exclusion in full or in part from own funds or reclassification of own funds of lower quality; or
 - (b) for reasons of taxation, if there is a change in the applicable tax treatment of the Notes; and provided that the conditions laid down in § 5(4) are met.
- (4) Conditions for Early Redemption and Repurchase. An early redemption pursuant to this § 5 and any repurchase pursuant to § 13 (2) are subject to:
- (a) the Issuer having obtained the prior permission of the Competent Authority (as defined below) for the early redemption or any repurchase of the Notes in accordance with the Articles 77 and 78 CRR, whereas such permission may, inter alia, require that:
 - (i) earlier than or at the same time as the early redemption, the Issuer replaces the Notes with own funds instruments of at least equal quality at terms that are sustainable for the income capacity of the Issuer; or
 - (ii) the Issuer has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority that the own funds and eligible obligations of the Issuer would, following such early redemption or repurchase, exceed the requirements laid down in the CRR in Directives 2013/36/EU and 2014/59/EU, both as amended from time to time, by a margin that the Competent Authority considers necessary at such time; and
 - (b) in the case of any early redemption prior to the fifth anniversary of the date of issuance of the Notes:
 - (i) due to regulatory reasons pursuant to § 5 (3) (a), the Competent Authority considers such change to be sufficiently certain; and the Issuer has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority that the regulatory classification of the Notes was not foreseeable for the Issuer as at the date of issuance of the Notes, or
 - (ii) reasons of taxation pursuant to § 5 (3) (b), the Issuer has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority that such change is material and was not foreseeable as at the date of issuance of the Notes.
 - (iii) for circumstances other than those set out in items (i) or (ii) above if, earlier or at the same time with such action, the Issuer replaces the Notes with own funds instruments of at least equal quality at terms that are sustainable for the income capacity of the Issuer and the Competent Authority has permitted such action based on the determination that it is beneficial from a prudential point of view and justified by exceptional circumstances.

Notwithstanding the above conditions, if, at the time of any early redemption or repurchase, the prevailing supervisory regulations applicable to the Issuer permit the early redemption or repurchase only after compliance with one or more alternative or additional pre-conditions to those set out above, the Issuer shall comply with such other and/or, as appropriate, additional preconditions, if any.

For the avoidance of doubt, any refusal of the Competent Authority to grant any permission, approval or other authorisation shall not constitute a default.

- (2) [in the case of Covered Bonds which provide for conditions for a maturity extension, insert: or, if the maturity of the Notes is extended in accordance with the provisions contained in § 4 (1a), on such date as the special administrator (§ 86 Austrian Insolvency Code) may determine as the extended maturity date (the "Extended Maturity Date")] shall be repaid at their redemption amount of [insert redemption price] of the principal amount (the "Redemption Amount"). [In the case of Covered Bonds which provide for

The Non-payment Notice shall be irrevocable and shall be given in accordance with § 11.]

[From (and including) the entry into force of the Austrian Pfandbrief Act (PfandBG) Federal Law Gazette I No. 199/2021 on 08.07.2022 as follows, the following applies:

- (2) Conditions for a maturity extension: The maturity of the Notes may be postponed once by up to 12 months to the Extended Maturity Date upon the occurrence of the Objective Trigger Event described below.

Objective trigger event means triggering the maturity extension in the Issuer's insolvency by the special administrator (§ 86 of the Austrian Insolvency Code), provided that the special administrator is convinced at the time of the maturity extension that the liabilities under the Notes can be serviced in full on the Extended Maturity Date. The maturity extension is not at the Issuer's discretion. In the event of a maturity extension, the Issuer will redeem the Notes in whole and not in part on the Extended Maturity Date at the principal amount together with any interest accrued to (but excluding) the Extended Maturity Date. The occurrence of the Objective Trigger Event and any resulting adjustments of the Interest Period relating thereto shall be notified to the Fiscal Agent and the Holders without undue delay in accordance with § 11.

In such case, the Issuer will redeem the Notes in whole and not in part on the Extended Maturity Date at the Redemption Amount together with any interest accrued (exclusive) to the Extended Maturity Date. The Interest Payment Date(s) and Interest Period(s) are subject to the determination of the Extended Maturity Date by the Special Administrator (§ 86 of the Insolvency Code). From the Extended Maturity Date onwards, the Bondholders shall have no claim to further interest payments. Neither the non-payment of the outstanding aggregate principal amount on the Maturity Date nor the postponement of the Maturity Date shall constitute an Event of Default by the Issuer for any purpose or entitle any Noteholder to terminate the Notes or to receive any payment other than as expressly provided for in these Terms and Conditions.

In the event of the insolvency or resolution of the Issuer, payment obligations of the Issuer under the Notes shall not be subject to automatic acceleration and prepayment (bankruptcy remoteness). In each case, the Holders shall have a priority claim in relation to the principal amount and any accrued and future interest from the cover assets and in addition in case of insolvency, to the extent that the aforementioned priority claim cannot be satisfied in full, an insolvency claim against the Issuer.

As competent authority, the Austrian Financial Market Authority (FMA) supervises the issuance of covered bonds and compliance with the provisions of the PfandBG, taking into account the national economic interest in a functioning capital market.

In case of insolvency proceedings, the bankruptcy court shall without undue delay appoint a special administrator to administer priority claims in relation to the principal amount and any accrued and future interest from the cover assets (special estate) (§ 86 of the Austrian Insolvency Code). The special administrator shall satisfy due claims of the Holders from the special estate and shall take the necessary administrative measures for this purpose with effect for the special estate, for example by collecting due mortgage claims, selling individual cover assets or by bridge financing.]

- (2) No Early Redemption at the Option of a Holder. The Holders are not entitled to demand the early redemption of the Notes.]

[If, in the case of senior or covered Notes, "Early Redemption in case of Change of Law, Hedging Disruption and/or Increased Hedging Costs" is applicable, insert:

- (3) Early Redemption in case of Change of Law, Hedging Disruption and/or Increased Hedging Costs. The Issuer may redeem the Notes at any time prior to the Maturity Date upon the occurrence of Change of Law and/or Hedging Disruption and/or Increased Hedging Costs (each as defined below) at their early redemption amount. The Issuer shall redeem the Notes in full (but not in part only) on the second Business Day (as defined in § 6) after which notice of the early redemption has been given in accordance with § 11, provided that such date is not later than two Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (the "Early Redemption Date") and will pay or cause to be paid the Early Redemption Amount in respect of the Notes to the Holders in accordance with any applicable tax laws or other legal or regulatory requirements and in accordance with and subject to these Terms and Conditions. Payments of taxes or early redemption charges shall be borne by the Holders and the Issuer shall have no liability therefor.

Whereas:

"Change of Law" means that (i) due to the enactment of changes in laws or regulations (including but not limited to tax laws) or (ii) changes in the interpretation of judicial or regulatory decisions relevant to the relevant laws or regulations (including statements by tax authorities), the Issuer determines that there has been a material increase in the costs associated with its obligations under the Notes (including, without limitation, increases in tax liabilities, reductions in tax benefits or other adverse effects on tax treatment) if such changes become effective on or after the Issue Date;

"Hedging Disruption" means that the Issuer, using commercially reasonable efforts, is unable to (i) enter into, continue or settle any transaction or acquire, exchange, hold or dispose of any asset that the Issuer deems necessary to hedge price risk with respect to its obligations under the Notes or (ii) realise, recover or pass on the proceeds of any transaction or asset; and

"Increased Hedging Costs" means that the Issuer is required to pay a materially higher amount of taxes, duties, expenses and fees (other than brokerage fees) in order to: (i) enter into, continue or settle any transaction or to acquire, exchange, hold or dispose of any asset, which the Issuer deems necessary to hedge price risks in respect of its obligations under the Notes or (ii) to realise, recover or pass on proceeds from such transactions or assets, provided that amounts which have increased only because of the creditworthiness of the Issuer has declined shall not be deemed to be Increased Hedging Costs.]

[In the case of eligible Notes the following applies:

(3) Early Redemption for Regulatory Reasons. The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time on giving not less than 30 days' nor more than 60 days' prior notice of redemption, in accordance with § 11 of the Terms and Conditions to the Holders (which notice shall be irrevocable), at their early redemption amount, if there is a change in the regulatory classification of the Notes that would be likely to result in their exclusion in full or in part from liabilities eligible for the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities (MREL) pursuant to the BaSAG on an unlimited and upwardly unrestricted basis, and provided that the conditions laid down in § 5(4) are met.

(4) Conditions for Early Redemption and Repurchase.

Any early redemption pursuant to this § 5 and any repurchase pursuant to § 13 (2) are subject to the Issuer having obtained the prior permission of the Resolution Authority for the early redemption and the repurchase, in accordance with Articles 77 and 78a CRR, if and to the extent such prior permission is required at this time.

Notwithstanding the above conditions, if, at the time of any early redemption or repurchase, the prevailing supervisory regulations applicable to the Issuer permit the early redemption or repurchase only after compliance with one or more alternative or additional pre-conditions to those set out above, the Issuer shall comply with such other and/or, as appropriate, additional pre-conditions, if any.

For the avoidance of doubt, any refusal by the Resolution Authority to grant a required permission, authorisation or other consent does not constitute a default.

[In the case of subordinated Notes the following applies:

(3) Early Redemption for Reasons of Taxation or for Regulatory Reasons. The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time on giving not less than 30 days' nor more than 60 days' prior notice of redemption, in accordance with § 11 of the Terms and Conditions to the Holders (which notice shall be irrevocable), at their early redemption amount:

- (a) for regulatory reasons, if there is a change in the regulatory classification of the Notes that would be likely to result in their exclusion in full or in part from own funds or reclassification of own funds of lower quality; or
 - (b) for reasons of taxation, if there is a change in the applicable tax treatment of the Notes;
- and provided that the conditions laid down in § 5(4) are met.

(4) Conditions for Early Redemption and Repurchase. An early redemption pursuant to this § 5 and any repurchase pursuant to § 13 (2) are subject to:

- (a) the Issuer having obtained the prior permission of the Competent Authority (as defined below) for the early redemption or any repurchase of the Notes in accordance with the Articles 77 and 78 CRR, whereas such permission may, inter alia, require that:
 - (i) earlier than or at the same time as the early redemption, the Issuer replaces the Notes with own funds instruments of at least equal quality at terms that are sustainable for the income capacity of the Issuer; or
 - (ii) the Issuer has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority that the own funds and eligible obligations of the Issuer would, following such early redemption or repurchase, exceed the requirements laid down in the CRR in Directives 2013/36/EU and 2014/59/EU, both as amended from time to time, by a margin that the Competent Authority considers necessary at such time; and
- (b) in the case of any early redemption prior to the fifth anniversary of the date of issuance of the Notes:
 - (i) due to regulatory reasons pursuant to § 5 (3) (a), the Competent Authority considers such change to be sufficiently certain; and the Issuer has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority that the regulatory classification of the Notes was not foreseeable for the Issuer as at the date of issuance of the Notes, or
 - (ii) reasons of taxation pursuant to § 5 (3) (b), the Issuer has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority that such change is material and was not foreseeable as at the date of issuance of the Notes.
 - (iii) for circumstances other than those set out in items (i) or (ii) above if, earlier or at the same time with such action, the Issuer replaces the Notes with own funds instruments of at least equal quality at terms that are sustainable for the income capacity of the Issuer and the Competent Authority has permitted such action based on the determination that it is beneficial from a prudential point of view and justified by exceptional circumstances.

Notwithstanding the above conditions, if, at the time of any early redemption or repurchase, the prevailing supervisory regulations applicable to the Issuer permit the early redemption or repurchase only after compliance with one or more alternative or additional pre-conditions to those set out above, the Issuer shall comply with such other and/or, as appropriate, additional preconditions, if any.

For the avoidance of doubt, any refusal of the Competent Authority to grant any permission, approval or other authorisation shall not constitute a default.

Whereby:

"Competent Authority" means the competent authority pursuant to Article 4 (1)(40) CRR, which is responsible to supervise the Issuer on an individual and/or consolidated basis.]

[[If CMS has been specified as the Reference Rate, insert:

- (2) Floating Interest Rate. The interest rate (the "Interest Rate") for each Interest Period (as defined below) shall be equal to [insert participation factor] % of the [[insert number]-year swap rate] (the mid-swap rate against [●]-month Euribor, expressed as a percentage per annum) (the "[Number]-Year Swap Rate") (the "Reference Rate") per annum as published on the [insert

If the Reference [Interest] Rate does not appear on the Screen Page (as each defined above) at the Specified Time or the Screen Page is not available, the Calculation Agent will request from one principal office of each of the four Reference Banks (as each defined below) offered quotations (expressed as a percentage per annum) for deposits in the specified currency with a maturity equal to the maturity of the Reference [Interest] Rate for the relevant Interest Period at approximately the specified time on the Interest Determination Date.

If at least two of such Reference Banks quote such offered rates to the Calculation Agent, the Reference [Interest] Rate for the relevant Interest Period shall be the arithmetic mean (rounded up or down to the nearest thousandth of a per cent. if necessary, rounded up from 0.0005) of the said offered rates.

"Reference Banks" means the principal Euro Zone offices of four major Reference Banks (measured by their total assets) whose offered rates in the Euro Zone interbank market have been used to determine the last Reference [Interest] Rate appearing on the Screen Page, each of which shall be selected by the Calculation Agent.

"Euro Zone" means the territory of those member states of the European Union which have adopted or will adopt a single currency in accordance with the treaty establishing the European Community (signed in Rome on 25 March 1957), as amended by the treaty on European Union (signed in Maastricht on 7 February 1992), the treaty of Amsterdam of 2 October 1997 and the treaty of Lisbon of 13 December 2007, as amended from time to time.

In the event that the Reference [Interest] Rate cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the Reference [Interest] Rate shall be the offer rate, or the arithmetic mean of the offer rates, as the case may be, on the last day prior to the Interest Determination Date on which such offer rates were displayed.

In the case of a Benchmark Event (as defined below): (i) the Issuer shall use reasonable endeavors to appoint an Independent Adviser to determine, in the Independent Adviser's reasonable discretion (in consultation with the Calculation Agent and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner), a substitution Reference [Interest] Rate (the "Substitution Target") to replace the Original Reference [Interest] Rate affected by the Benchmark Event; or (ii) if the Independent Adviser is not appointed by the Issuer or cannot be appointed in a timely manner or if an Independent Adviser is appointed by the Issuer but such Independent Adviser does not determine a substitution Reference [Interest] Rate, then the Issuer may (taking into account the Substitution Target) determine which rate (if any) has replaced the original Reference [Interest] Rate affected by the Benchmark Event. A substitution Reference [Interest] Rate shall be effective from (and including) the Interest Determination Date determined by the Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be) in its reasonable discretion, but not earlier than the Interest Determination Date coinciding with or following the Benchmark Event, for the first time with effect for the Interest Period for which the Interest Rate is determined on such Interest Determination Date. The "Substitute Reference [Interest] Rate" means a rate (expressed as a percentage per annum) derived from an alternative reference [interest] rate (the "Alternative Reference [Interest] Rate") determined by the Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be) in its reasonable discretion, which is provided by a third party and which meets all applicable legal requirements for use in determining payment obligations under the Notes, with such adjustments (e.g. in the form of premiums or discounts) as the Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be) in its reasonable discretion may determine.

Notwithstanding to the generality of the foregoing, the Issuer may in particular, but without limitation, implement any Official Substitution Concept, any Industry Solution or any Generally Accepted Market Practice.

If the Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be) determines a Substitute Reference [Interest] Rate, it shall also have the right, in its reasonable discretion, to make such procedural determinations in relation to the determination of the current Substitute Reference [Interest] Rate (e.g. Interest Determination Date, Relevant Specified Time, relevant Screen Page for obtaining the Alternative Reference [Interest] Rate and default provisions in the event of the unavailability of the relevant Screen Page) and to make such adjustments to the definition of "Business Day" in § 6(3) and the Business Day Convention provisions in § 6(3) as may be necessary or expedient in accordance with generally accepted market practice to make the replacement of the Reference [Interest] Rate by the Substitute Reference [Interest] Rate practicable.

"Benchmark Event" means:

- (a) a public statement or release of information is made by or on behalf of the supervisory authority of the administrator of the reference[interest]rate indicating that such administrator has ceased or will cease to provide the reference rate permanently or indefinitely unless there is a successor administrator who will continue to provide the reference[interest]rate; or
- (b) a public statement or release of information is made by or on behalf of the administrator of the reference[interest]rate indicating that such administrator has ceased or will cease to provide the Reference Rate permanently or indefinitely unless there is a successor administrator who will continue to provide the reference[interest]rate; or
- (c) a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the reference [interest] rate that, in its view, the reference[interest]rate is no longer or will no longer be representative of the underlying market it purports to measure and that no action has been taken or is expected to be taken to remedy such situation, as required by the supervisor of the administrator of the reference [interest] rate; or
- (d) it has become unlawful for any reason under any law or regulation applicable to the Paying Agent, the Calculation Agent, the Issuer or any other party to use the reference Interest]rate; or

"Official substitution concept" means any binding or non-binding statement by a central bank, a supervisory authority or a supervisory or expert body of the financial sector established under public law or composed of publicly appointed members, pursuant to which a certain Reference [Interest] Rate subject to certain adjustments (if any), should or could be used to replace the Reference [Interest] Rate, making certain adjustments where appropriate, or that a certain procedure should or could be used to determine payment obligations which would otherwise be determined by reference to the Reference [Interest] Rate.

"Industry Solution" means any public statement by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association (ISDA), the International Capital Markets Association (ICMA), the Association for Financial Markets in Europe (AFME), the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association (SIFMA), the SIFMA Asset Management Group (SIFMA AMG), the Loan Markets Association (LMA), the Deutsche Derivate Verband (DDV), the Zertifikate Forum Austria or any other private association of the financial industry pursuant to which a certain reference rate, subject to certain adjustments (if any), should or could be used to replace the Reference [Interest] Rate or pursuant to which a certain procedure should or could be used in order to determine payment obligations which would otherwise be determined by reference to the Reference [Interest] Rate.

"Generally Accepted Market Practice" means the customary use of a certain reference rate, subject to certain adjustments (if any), as substitute for the Reference [Interest] Rate or of provisions, contractual or otherwise, providing for a certain procedure to determine payment obligations which would otherwise have been determined by reference to the Reference [Interest] Rate in other bond issues following the occurrence of a Benchmark Event, or any other generally accepted market practice to replace the Reference [Interest] Rate as reference rate for the determination of payment obligations.

For the purposes of this subparagraph, "Independent Advisor" means an independent financial institution of international repute or other independent financial advisor experienced in the international capital markets, in each case appointed by the Issuer at its own expense.

The Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be) shall be entitled, but not obliged, in its reasonable discretion, to determine a substitute Reference [Interest] Rate in respect of the same Benchmark Event more than once in accordance with the provisions if such subsequent determination is better suited than the preceding determination to achieve the Substitution Target. The provisions shall also apply mutatis mutandis in the event that a Benchmark Event occurs in respect of an alternative Reference [Interest] Rate previously determined by the Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be).

If the Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be) has determined a substitute Reference [Interest] Rate following the occurrence of a Benchmark Event, it shall be caused that the occurrence of the Benchmark Event, the substitute Reference [Interest] Rate determined by the Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be) and any further determinations made by the Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be) in connection therewith shall be notified in accordance with the foregoing provisions to the Calculation Agent and the Holders pursuant to § 11 as soon as practicable, but in no event later than the fourth Business Day following the determination of the substitute Reference [Interest] Rate and to each stock exchange on which the relevant Notes are listed at such time and the rules of which require notice to be given to the stock exchange as soon as possible but in no event later than the beginning of the Interest Period from which the substitute Reference [Interest] Rate is first to be applied.

[If the Notes have a Minimum Rate of Interest, insert:

Minimum Rate of Interest. If the Rate of Interest in respect of any Interest Period determined in accordance with the above provisions is less than [insert Minimum Rate of Interest] % per annum, (the "Minimum Rate of Interest") the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be the Minimum Rate of Interest.]

[If the Notes have a Maximum Rate of Interest, insert:

- (4) Amount of Interest. The Calculation Agent (as defined in § 9) will calculate prior to each Interest Payment Date the amount of interest payable on each Note (the "Interest Amount") for the relevant Interest Period (as defined below). The Interest Amount shall be determined by applying the Rate of Interest and the Day Count Fraction to the Denomination, whereas the resultant figure is rounded, if the Specified Currency is Euro, upwards or downwards to the nearest 0.01 Euro, rounding up 0.005 Euro, and, if the Specified Currency is not Euro, upwards or downwards to the smallest unit of the Specified Currency, rounding up 0.5 such units.
- (5) Notification of Interest Rate and Interest Amount. The Calculation Agent will cause to be notified to the Noteholders as soon as practicable after each Determination Date the Floating Interest Rate (if applicable) and the Interest Amount for the relevant Interest Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date by notice pursuant to § 11; the Calculation Agent shall also notify any stock exchange on which the Notes are listed at such time and the rules required for a notification to the stock exchange. In the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period, the notified Interest Amount and Interest Payment Date may be subsequently adjusted (or other appropriate adjustment measures may be taken) without prior notice. Any such adjustment shall be notified promptly to all stock exchanges on which the Notes are listed at that time and the rules required for a notification to the stock exchange, and to the Holders.
- (6) Interest Period. The period from, and including, the Interest Commencement Date to, and including, the calendar day preceding the first Interest Payment Date and each subsequent period from, and including, an Interest Payment Date to, and including, the calendar day preceding the immediately following Interest Payment Date shall be referred to as an interest period (each an "Interest Period"). The Interest Periods shall [not] be adjusted.
- (7) Calculation of interest for parts of periods. Where interest is to be calculated for a period of less than one year, the calculation shall be made on the basis of the Day Count Fraction (as defined below).

"Day Count Fraction" means, in respect of the calculation of the Interest Amount on any Note for any period of time (the "Calculation Period"):

[In the case Actual/Actual (ICMA) the following applies:

"Actual/Actual (ICMA)" means, if the Calculation Period is equal to or shorter than the Interest Period during which it falls, the actual number of days in the Calculation Period divided by the product of: (A) the actual number of days in the respective Interest Period and (B) the number of Interest Periods normally ending in one year.

If the Calculation Period is longer than an Interest Period, the sum of: (A) the actual number of days in the Calculation Period, during which the Interest Period falls, in which it started, divided by the product of: (x) the actual number of days in this Interest Period and (y) the number of Interest Periods normally ending in one year, and (B) the actual number of days of the Calculation Period, during which the next Interest Period falls, divided by the product of: (x) the actual number of days in this Interest Period and (y) the number of Interest Periods normally ending in one year.]

[In the case 30/360 the following applies:

"30/360" means the number of days of the Calculation Period divided by 360, the number of days to be calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days with twelve 30-day months (unless: (A) the last day of the Calculation Period is the 31st day of a month while the first day of the Calculation Period is neither on the 30th day nor the 31st day of a month, in which case the month containing such day shall not be treated as a month reduced to 30 days). nor the 31st day of a month, in which case the month containing that day shall not be treated as a month extended to 30 days, or (B) the last day of the Calculation Period falls is the last day of February, in which case the month of February shall not be treated as a month extended to 30 days).]

[In the case ACT/360 the following applies:

"ACT/360" means the actual number of days of the Calculation Period divided by 360.]

- (8) Accrued Interest. Interest on the Notes will cease to accrue at the end of the day (the "Interest End Date") preceding the date on which they become due for redemption. If the Issuer fails to redeem the Notes at maturity, interest will cease to accrue on the day preceding the day on which they are actually redeemed.
- (9) Accrued Interest. In the case of purchases and/or sales during the year, accrued interest is [payable / at least minimum rate of interest payable / [and] at most at the maximum rate of interest payable / not payable].

(Redemption)

- (1) Redemption at Maturity [in the case of Covered Bank Bonds, whose term shall be extended in case the Issuer does not pay the outstanding aggregate principal amount on the Maturity Date, or in case of Covered Bonds which provide for conditions for a maturity extension, the following applies: or at the Extended Maturity Date]. The Notes shall be, unless previously redeemed in whole or in part or repurchased and subject to adjustment in accordance with the provisions set out in § 6 (3), redeemed on [insert Maturity Date] (the "Maturity Date") [in the case of Covered Bank Bonds, whose term shall be extended in case the Issuer does not pay the outstanding aggregate principal amount on the Maturity Date, or in case of Covered Bonds which provide for conditions for a maturity extension, the following applies: or, in case the term of the Notes is extended in accordance with the provisions set out in § 4 (2), on [insert Extended Maturity Date] (the "Extended Maturity Date") at their redemption amount of [insert redemption price] of the Denomination (the "Redemption Amount"). [in the case of Covered Bonds which provide for conditions for a maturity extension, insert: or, if the maturity of the Notes is extended in accordance with the provisions contained in § 4 (1a), on such date as the special administrator (§ 86 Austrian Insolvency Code) may determine as the extended maturity date (the "Extended Maturity Date") shall be repaid at their redemption amount of [insert redemption price] of the principal amount (the "Redemption Amount"). [In the case of Covered Bonds which provide for conditions for a maturity extension, insert: The latest possible Extended Maturity Date shall be [insert date of latest possible Extended Maturity Date]].

[In the case of Covered Bank Bonds, whose term shall be extended in case the Issuer does not pay the outstanding aggregate principal amount on the Maturity Date, or in case of Covered Bonds which provide for conditions for a maturity extension, the following applies:

[Until the Austrian Covered Bond Act (PfandBG) Federal Law Gazette I No. 199/2021 enters into force on 08.07.2022 as follows, the following applies:

- (2) Extension of the Term of the Notes. If the Issuer notifies the Holders not less than 5 (five) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (the "Non-payment Notice") that the Issuer will be unable to pay the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Notes on the Maturity Date, the term of the Notes shall be extended to, but excluding, the Extended Maturity Date. In this case, the Issuer shall redeem all and not only some of the Notes on the Extended Maturity Date at the Redemption Amount together with accrued interest (if any) to, but excluding, the Extended Maturity Date. Neither the failure to pay the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Notes on the Maturity Date nor the extension of the term of the Notes shall constitute an event of default for any purpose or give any Holder any right to accelerate the Notes or to receive any payment other than as expressly set out in these Terms and Conditions. The Non-payment Notice shall be irrevocable and shall be given in accordance with § 11.]

[From (and including) the entry into force of the Austrian Pfandbrief Act (PfandBG) Federal Law Gazette I No. 199/2021 on 08.07.2022 as follows, the following applies:

- (2) Conditions for a maturity extension: The maturity of the Notes may be postponed once by up to 12 months to the Extended Maturity Date upon the occurrence of the Objective Trigger Event described below.

Objective trigger event means triggering the maturity extension in the Issuer's insolvency by the special administrator (§ 86 of the Austrian Insolvency Code), provided that the special administrator is convinced at the time of the maturity extension that the liabilities under the Notes can be serviced in full on the Extended Maturity Date. The maturity extension is not at the Issuer's discretion. In the event of a maturity extension, the Issuer will redeem the Notes in whole and not in part on the Extended Maturity Date at the principal amount together with any interest accrued to (but excluding) the Extended Maturity Date. The occurrence of the Objective Trigger Event and any resulting adjustments of the Interest Period relating thereto shall be notified to the Fiscal Agent and the Holders without undue delay in accordance with § 11.

In such case, the Issuer will redeem the Notes in whole and not in part on the Extended Maturity Date at the Redemption Amount together with any interest accrued (exclusive) to the Extended Maturity Date. The Interest Payment Date(s) and Interest Period(s) are subject to the determination of the Extended Maturity Date by the Special Administrator (§ 86 of the Insolvency Code). From the Extended Maturity Date onwards, the Bondholders shall have no claim to further interest payments. Neither the non-payment of the outstanding aggregate principal amount on the Maturity Date nor the postponement of the Maturity Date shall constitute an Event of Default by the Issuer for any purpose or entitle any Noteholder to terminate the Notes or to receive any payment other than as expressly provided for in these Terms and Conditions.

In the event of the insolvency or resolution of the Issuer, payment obligations of the Issuer under the Notes shall not be subject to automatic acceleration and prepayment (bankruptcy remoteness). In each case, the Holders shall have a priority claim in relation to the principal amount and any accrued and future interest from the cover assets and in addition in case of insolvency, to the extent that the aforementioned priority claim cannot be satisfied in full, an insolvency claim against the Issuer.

As competent authority, the Austrian Financial Market Authority (FMA) supervises the issuance of covered bonds and compliance with the provisions of the PfandBG, taking into account the national economic interest in a functioning capital market.

In case of insolvency proceedings, the bankruptcy court shall without undue delay appoint a special administrator to administer priority claims in relation to the principal amount and any accrued and future interest from the cover assets (special estate) (§ 86 of the Austrian Insolvency Code). The special administrator shall satisfy due claims of the Holders from the special estate and shall take the necessary administrative measures for this purpose with effect for the special estate, for example by collecting due mortgage claims, selling individual cover assets or by bridge financing.]

(Early Redemption)

[If the Issuer has the option to early redeem the Notes the following applies:

- (3) Early Redemption of the Notes at the Option of the Issuer. The Issuer may early redeem the Notes in whole or in part on the Optional Redemption Dates (Call) specified below (each an "Optional Redemption Date (Call)") at the Optional Redemption Amounts (Call) specified below (each an "Optional Redemption Amount (Call)") together with accrued interest.

Optional Redemption Date(s) (Call)	Optional Redemption Amount(s) (Call)
[each business day during the period from [●] (including) until [●] (excluding)]	[100%][principal amount][●]

In case of a partial redemption of Notes, Notes to be redeemed shall be selected no later than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption in accordance with the rules and procedures of the relevant Clearing System.]

[In the case of subordinated Notes the following applies:

Any such early redemption shall only be possible if the date of issuance was at least five years ago and the conditions for early redemption laid down in § 5 (4) are met.]

[In the case of eligible Notes the following applies:

Any such early redemption shall only be possible if the conditions laid down in § 5 (4) are met.]]

[If the Issuer does not have the option to early redeem the senior or covered Notes the following applies:

- (1) No Early Redemption of the Notes at the Option of the Issuer. An early redemption of the Notes at the option of the Issuer is excluded.]

[If the Issuer does not have the option to early redeem the eligible or subordinated Notes the following applies:

- (1) No Early Redemption of the Notes at the Option of the Issuer. Except for § 5 (3) of the Terms and Conditions the Issuer has no right to redeem the Notes prior to their Maturity Date.]

[If the Holders have the option to require early redemption of senior, eligible or covered Notes, insert:

- (2) Early Redemption at the Option of a Holder. The Issuer shall, if a Holder notifies the Issuer of its intention to do so at least [insert minimum notice period (Put)] and no more than [insert maximum notice period (Put)] Business Days (as defined in § 6) in advance, early redeem the relevant Notes of such Holder on any of the following Optional Redemption Dates (Put) (each an "Optional Redemption Date (Put)") at their relevant Optional Redemption Amount (Put) as defined below (the "Optional Redemption Amount (Put)") together with accrued interest.

Optional Redemption Dates (Put)	Optional Redemption Amounts (Put)

In order to exercise this right, the Holder must submit a duly completed exercise notice in the form available from the Paying Agent and the Issuer. Revocation of an exercise of this right is not possible.]

[If the Holders have no option to require the early redemption of the senior, eligible or covered Notes and in the case of subordinated Notes insert:

- (2) No Early Redemption at the Option of a Holder. The Holders are not entitled to demand the early redemption of the Notes.]

[If, in the case of senior or covered Notes, "Early Redemption in case of Change of Law, Hedging Disruption and/or Increased Hedging Costs" is applicable, insert:

- (3) Early Redemption in case of Change of Law, Hedging Disruption and/or Increased Hedging Costs. The Issuer may redeem the Notes at any time prior to the Maturity Date upon the occurrence of Change of Law and/or Hedging Disruption and/or Increased Hedging Costs (each as defined below) at their early redemption amount of [insert early redemption price] of the Denomination (the "Early Redemption Amount") together with accrued interest. The Issuer shall redeem the Notes in full (but not in part only) on the second Business Day (as defined in § 6) after which notice of the early redemption has been given in accordance with § 11, provided that such date is not later than two Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (the "Early Redemption Date") and will pay or cause to be paid the Early Redemption Amount in respect of the Notes to the Holders in accordance with any applicable tax laws or other legal or regulatory requirements and in accordance with and subject to these Terms and Conditions. Payments of taxes or early redemption charges shall be borne by the Holders and the Issuer shall have no liability therefor.

Whereas:

"Change of Law" means that (i) due to the enactment of changes in laws or regulations (including but not limited to tax laws) or (ii) changes in the interpretation of judicial or regulatory decisions relevant to the relevant laws or regulations (including statements by tax authorities), the Issuer determines that there has been a material increase in the costs associated with its obligations under the Notes (including, without limitation, increases in tax liabilities, reductions in tax benefits or other adverse effects on tax treatment) if such changes become effective on or after the Issue Date;

"Hedging Disruption" means that the Issuer, using commercially reasonable efforts, is unable to: (i) enter into, continue or settle any transaction or acquire, exchange, hold or dispose of any asset that the Issuer deems necessary to hedge price risk with respect to its obligations under the Notes; or (ii) realise, recover or pass on the proceeds of any transaction or asset; and

"Increased Hedging Costs" means that the Issuer is required to pay a materially higher amount of taxes, duties, expenses and fees (other than brokerage fees) in order to: (i) enter into, continue or settle any transaction or to acquire, exchange, hold or dispose of any asset, which the Issuer deems necessary to hedge price risks in respect of its obligations under the Notes; or (ii) to realise, recover or pass on proceeds from such transactions or assets, provided that amounts which have increased only because of the creditworthiness of the Issuer has declined shall not be deemed to be Increased Hedging Costs.]

[In the case of eligible Notes the following applies:

- (3) *Early Redemption for Regulatory Reasons. The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time on giving not less than 30 days' nor more than 60 days' prior notice of redemption, in accordance with § 11 of the Terms and Conditions to the Holders (which notice shall be irrevocable), at their early redemption amount of [insert early redemption price] of the Denomination together with interest accrued to (but excluding) the redemption date (the "Early Redemption Amount"), if there is a change in the regulatory classification of the Notes that would be likely to result in their exclusion in full or in part from liabilities eligible for the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities (MREL) pursuant to the BaSAG on an unlimited and upwardly unrestricted basis, and provided that the conditions laid down in § 5(4) are met.
- (4) *Conditions for Early Redemption and Repurchase.

Any early redemption pursuant to this § 5 and any repurchase pursuant to § 13 (2) are subject to the Issuer having obtained the prior permission of the Resolution Authority for the early redemption and the repurchase, in accordance with Articles 77 and 78a CRR, if and to the extent such prior permission is required at this time.

Notwithstanding the above conditions, if, at the time of any early redemption or repurchase, the prevailing supervisory regulations applicable to the Issuer permit the early redemption or repurchase only after compliance with one or more alternative or additional pre-conditions to those set out above, the Issuer shall comply with such other and/or, as appropriate, additional pre-conditions, if any.

For the avoidance of doubt, any refusal by the Resolution Authority to grant a required permission, authorisation or other consent does not constitute a default.

[In the case of subordinated Notes the following applies:

- (3) Early Redemption for Reasons of Taxation or for Regulatory Reasons. The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time on giving not less than 30 days' nor more than 60 days' prior notice of redemption, in accordance with § 11 of the Terms and Conditions to the Holders (which notice shall be irrevocable), at their early redemption amount of [insert early redemption price] of the Denomination together with interest accrued to (but excluding) the redemption date (the "Early Redemption Amount"):
- (a) for regulatory reasons, if there is a change in the regulatory classification of the Notes that would be likely to result in their exclusion in full or in part from own funds or reclassification of own funds of lower quality; or
 - (b) for reasons of taxation, if there is a change in the applicable tax treatment of the Notes; and provided that the conditions laid down in § 5(4) are met.
- (4) Conditions for Early Redemption and Repurchase. An early redemption pursuant to this § 5 and any repurchase pursuant to § 13 (2) are subject to:
- (a) the Issuer having obtained the prior permission of the Competent Authority (as defined below) for the early redemption or any repurchase of the Notes in accordance with the Articles 77 and 78 CRR, whereas such permission may, inter alia, require that:
 - (i) earlier than or at the same time as the early redemption, the Issuer replaces the Notes with own funds instruments of at least equal quality at terms that are sustainable for the income capacity of the Issuer; or
 - (ii) the Issuer has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority that the own funds and eligible obligations of the Issuer would, following such early redemption or repurchase, exceed the requirements laid down in the CRR in Directives 2013/36/EU and 2014/59/EU, both as amended from time to time, by a margin that the Competent Authority considers necessary at such time; and
 - (b) in the case of any early redemption prior to the fifth anniversary of the date of issuance of the Notes:
 - (i) due to regulatory reasons pursuant to § 5 (3) (a), the Competent Authority considers such change to be sufficiently certain; and the Issuer has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority that the regulatory classification of the Notes was not foreseeable for the Issuer as at the date of issuance of the Notes, or

- (ii) reasons of taxation pursuant to § 5 (3) (b), the Issuer has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority that such change is material and was not foreseeable as at the date of issuance of the Notes.
- (iii) for circumstances other than those set out in items (i) or (ii) above if, earlier or at the same time with such action, the Issuer replaces the Notes with own funds instruments of at least equal quality at terms that are sustainable for the income capacity of the Issuer and the Competent Authority has permitted such action based on the determination that it is beneficial from a prudential point of view and justified by exceptional circumstances.

Notwithstanding the above conditions, if, at the time of any early redemption or repurchase, the prevailing supervisory regulations applicable to the Issuer permit the early redemption or repurchase only after compliance with one or more alternative or additional pre-conditions to those set out above, the Issuer shall comply with such other and/or, as appropriate, additional preconditions, if any.

For the avoidance of doubt, any refusal of the Competent Authority to grant any permission, approval or other authorisation shall not constitute a default.

Whereby:

"Competent Authority" means the competent authority pursuant to Article 4 (1)(40) CRR, which is responsible to supervise the Issuer on an individual and/or consolidated basis.]

If any date fixed for the payment of principal [in the case of non-adjusted Interest Periods, insert: and interest] is postponed, Holders shall not be entitled to payment prior to the adjusted due date and shall not be entitled to claim further interest and other payments due to such postponement.

If a day relevant for a payment within the meaning of these Terms and Conditions falls on a day which is not a Business Day, the relevant day shall be postponed to the next following Business Day ("Following Business Day Convention").]

[If Modified Following Business Day Convention applies, insert:

If a day relevant for a payment within the meaning of these Terms and Conditions falls on a day which is not a Business Day, the relevant day shall be postponed to the next following Business Day unless it would thereby fall in the next calendar month, in which case the relevant day shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day ("Modified Following Business Day Convention").]

If and to the extent that the deposit is effected, and the right of withdrawal is waived, the respective claims of such Holders against the Issuer shall cease.
- (6) Default Interest. If the Issuer fails to make any payment due on the Notes for any reason, the outstanding amount shall bear interest at the rate of two percentage points above the base rate from, and including, the due date to, but excluding, the date of payment in full. The base interest rate applicable on the last calendar day of a half-year shall be decisive for the next half-year.

§ 7 (Taxation)

All payments of principal and interest in respect of the Notes will be made without withholding or deduction for or on account of any taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature (the "Taxes") imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by the Republic of Austria or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax, unless such withholding or deduction is required by law in the future. In such case, the Issuer will withhold or deduct the relevant Taxes and pay the amounts withheld or deducted to the relevant authorities. The Issuer shall not be obliged to pay any additional amounts of principal and/or interest on account of any such withholding or deduction.

(Debtor substitution)

- (1) Substitution. The Issuer shall be entitled at any time, without the consent of the Holders, to substitute another company which is directly or indirectly controlled by the Issuer as the new issuer for all obligations arising from or in connection with the Notes with discharging effect for the Issuer (the "New Issuer"), provided that

- (2) References.
- (a) In the event of a substitution of the debtor pursuant to § 10 (1), any reference in these Terms and Conditions to the "Issuer" shall be deemed to be a reference to the "New Issuer" and any reference to the Republic of Austria shall be deemed to be a reference to the state in which the New Issuer is resident for tax purposes.
 - (b) In § 7, if such reference would be missing due to the preceding paragraph, an alternative reference to the Republic of Austria shall be deemed to be included (in addition to the reference in accordance with the preceding sentence to the state in which the New Issuer is resident for tax purposes).
- (3) Notice and Effectiveness of the Substitution. Notice of the substitution of the Issuer shall be given in accordance with § 11. Upon notice of the substitution, the substitution shall become effective and the Issuer and, in the case of a repeated application of this § 10, any former new issuer shall be released from all of its obligations under the Notes (without prejudice to the guarantee under § 10 (1) (d)). In the event of such substitution of a debtor, any regulated markets on which the Notes are listed shall be notified.

- (2) Notification to the Clearing System. The Issuer shall be entitled to replace a publication pursuant to § 11 (1) by a notice to the Clearing System (pursuant to § 1 (4)) for onward transmission to the Holders. Any such notice shall be deemed to be validly given on the fifth Business Day after the date of the notice to the depository.

§ 12 (Invalidity. Amendments)

- (1) Severability. If at any time one or several provisions of the Terms and Conditions are or will be invalid, illegal or unenforceable under the laws of any jurisdiction, then such provisions shall be ineffective only to the extent necessary with respect to such jurisdiction without affecting or preventing the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of the Terms and Conditions.
- (2) Amendments. The Issuer shall be entitled to correct obvious typographical or arithmetical errors or other obvious mistakes, to amend or supplement contradictory or incomplete provisions in these Terms and Conditions without the consent of the Holders, whereby only such amendments or supplements shall be permissible which, taking into account the interests of the Issuer, are reasonable for the Holders, i.e. which do not materially worsen their financial situation. There is no obligation to publish amendments or supplements to these Terms and Conditions, provided that the financial situation of the Holders is not significantly worsened.

- (1) Further Issues of Notes. The Issuer may from time to time, without the consent of the Holders, issue further Notes having the same terms as the Notes in all respects (or in all respects except for the issue date, the interest commencement date and/or the issue price) so as to form a single series with the Notes.
- (2) Repurchase. The Issuer may at any time repurchase Notes in the open market or otherwise at any price to the extent permitted by law. Notes repurchased by the Issuer may, at the option of the Issuer, be held, resold or surrendered to the Paying Agent for cancellation. [In the case of eligible Notes and subordinated Notes, insert: Such repurchase is only possible in compliance with all applicable regulatory and other statutory restrictions and provided that the conditions pursuant to § 5 (4) are met.]

rules of private international law as far as such rules would lead to the application of foreign law. The place of performance is Vienna, Republic of Austria.

- (2) Place of Jurisdiction. The non-exclusive place of jurisdiction for all legal disputes with the Issuer arising from the legal relationships governed by these Terms and Conditions is, to the extent permitted by law, Vienna, Austria. A substitution-[Reference[Interest]Rate][benchmark rate] shall be effective from (and including) the [Interest Determination Date][Interest Change Determination Date] determined by the Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be) in its reasonable discretion, but not earlier than the [Interest Determination Date][Interest Change Determination Date] coinciding with or following the Benchmark Event, for the first time with effect for the Interest Period for which the Interest Rate is determined on such [Interest Determination Date][Interest Change Determination Date]. the Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be) in its reasonable discretion may determine.

Notwithstanding to the generality of the foregoing, the Issuer may in particular, but without limitation, implement any Official Substitution Concept, any Industry Solution or any Generally Accepted Market Practice.

If the Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be) determines a Substitute [Reference [Interest]Rate][benchmark rate], it shall also have the right, in its reasonable discretion, to make such procedural determinations in relation to the determination of the current Substitute- [Reference [Interest]Rate][benchmark rate] (e.g. [Interest Determination Date][Interest Change Determination Date], Relevant Specified Time, relevant Screen Page for obtaining the Alternative [Reference [Interest]Rate][benchmark rate] and default provisions in the event of the unavailability of the relevant Screen Page) and to make such adjustments to the definition of "Business Day" in § 6(3) and the Business Day Convention provisions in § 6(3) as may be necessary or expedient in accordance with generally accepted market practice to make the replacement of the [Reference [Interest]Rate][Original-benchmark rate] by the [Substitute Reference [Interest]Rate] [benchmark rate] practicable.

"Benchmark Event" means:

- a public statement or release of information is made by or on behalf of the supervisory authority of the administrator of the reference [interest]rate indicating that such administrator has ceased or will cease to provide the reference rate permanently or indefinitely unless there is a successor administrator who will continue to provide the reference [interest]rate; or
- (b) a public statement or release of information is made by or on behalf of the administrator of the reference [interest]rate indicating that such administrator has ceased or will cease to provide the Reference Rate permanently or indefinitely unless there is a successor administrator who will continue to provide the reference [interest]rate; or
- (c) a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the reference [interest] rate that, in its view, the reference [interest]rate is no longer or will no longer be representative of the underlying market it purports to measure and that no action has been taken or is expected to be taken to remedy such situation, as required by the supervisor of the administrator of the reference [interest] rate; or
- (d) it has become unlawful for any reason under any law or regulation applicable to the Paying Agent, the Calculation Agent, the Issuer or any other party to use the reference Interest]rate; or
- (e) the reference [interest]rate ceases to be published permanently without prior official notice from the Competent Authority or the Administrator; or
- (f) a material change is made to the methodology of the reference [Interest]rate.

"Official substitution concept" means any binding or non-binding statement by a central bank, a supervisory authority or a supervisory or expert body of the financial sector established under public law or composed of publicly appointed members, pursuant to which a certain [Reference [Interest]Rate][Original-benchmark rate] subject to certain adjustments (if any), should or could be used to replace the [Reference [Interest]Rate][Original-benchmark rate], making certain adjustments where appropriate, or that a certain procedure should or could be used to determine payment obligations which would otherwise be determined by reference to the Reference [Interest] Rate.

"Industry Solution" means any public statement by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association (ISDA), the International Capital Markets Association (ICMA), the Association for Financial Markets in Europe (AFME), the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association (SIFMA), the SIFMA Asset Management Group (SIFMA AMG), the Loan Markets Association (LMA), the Deutsche Derivate Verband (DDV), the Zertifikate Forum Austria or any other private association of the financial industry pursuant to which a certain reference rate, subject to certain adjustments (if any), should or could be used to replace the [Reference[Interest]Rate][Original-benchmark rate] or pursuant to which a certain procedure should or could be used in order to determine payment obligations which would otherwise be determined by reference to the [Reference[Interest]Rate][Original-benchmark rate] .

"Generally Accepted Market Practice" means the customary use of a certain reference rate, subject to certain adjustments (if any), as substitute for the [Reference[Interest]Rate][Original-benchmark rate] or of provisions, contractual or otherwise, providing for a certain procedure to determine payment obligations which would otherwise have been determined by reference to the [Reference[Interest]Rate][Original-benchmark rate] Rate in other bond issues following the occurrence of a Benchmark Event, or any other generally accepted market practice to replace the [Reference[Interest]Rate][Original-benchmark rate] as reference rate for the determination of payment obligations.

For the purposes of this subparagraph, "Independent Advisor" means an independent financial institution of international repute or other independent financial advisor experienced in the international capital markets, in each case appointed by the Issuer at its own expense.

The Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be) shall be entitled, but not obliged, in its reasonable discretion, to determine a substitute [Reference[Interest]Rate][benchmark rate] in respect of the same Benchmark Event more than once in accordance with the provisions if such subsequent determination is better suited than the preceding determination to achieve the Substitution Target. The provisions shall also apply mutatis mutandis in the event that a Benchmark Event occurs in respect of an alternative [Reference[Interest]Rate][benchmark rate] previously determined by the Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be).

If the Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be) has determined a substitute [Reference[Interest]Rate][benchmark rate] following the occurrence of a Benchmark Event, it shall be caused that the occurrence of the Benchmark Event, the substitute-[Reference[Interest]Rate][benchmark rate] Rate determined by the Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be) and any further determinations made by the Independent Adviser or the Issuer (as the case may be) in connection therewith shall be notified in accordance with the foregoing provisions to the Calculation Agent and the Holders pursuant to § 11 as soon as practicable, but in no event later than the fourth Business Day following the determination of the substitute [Reference[Interest]Rate][benchmark rate] and to each stock exchange on which the relevant Notes are listed at such time and the rules of which require notice to be given to the stock exchange as soon as possible but in no event later than the beginning of the Interest Period from which the substitute [Reference[Interest]Rate][benchmark rate] is first to be applied.

[In the case of Notes with a fixed to floating interest rate, insert:

[If the Notes have a Minimum Rate of Interest, insert:

- (6) Amount of Interest. The Calculation Agent (as defined in § 9) will calculate prior to each Interest Payment Date the amount of interest payable on each Note (the "Interest Amount") for the relevant Interest Period (as defined above). The Interest Amount shall be determined by applying the (Fixed interest rate or [Floating interest rate]*[Interest Change interest rate]) Rate of Interest and the Day Count Fraction to the Denomination, whereas the resultant figure is rounded, if the Specified Currency is Euro, upwards or downwards to the nearest 0.01 Euro, rounding up 0.005 Euro, and, if the Specified Currency is not Euro, upwards or downwards to the smallest unit of the Specified Currency, rounding up 0.5 such units.

[In the case of Notes with a fixed to floating interest rate, insert:

In the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period, the notified Interest Amount and Interest Payment Date may be subsequently adjusted (or other appropriate adjustment measures may be taken) without prior notice. Any such adjustment shall be notified promptly to all stock exchanges on which the Notes are listed at that time and the rules required for a notification to the stock exchange, and to the Holders.
- (8) Calculation of interest for parts of periods. Where interest is to be calculated for a period of less than one year, the calculation shall be made on the basis of the Day Count Fraction (as defined below).

"Day Count Fraction" means, in respect of the calculation of the Interest Amount on any Note for any period of time of a Fixed Interest Period [Actual/Actual (ICMA)] [30/360] [ACT/360] [In the case of Notes with a fixed to floating interest rate, insert: and for any period of a Floating Interest Period [Actual/Actual (ICMA)] [30/360] [ACT/360]] each an "Calculation Period":

- (10) Accrued Interest. In the case of a fixed interest period purchases and/or sales during the year, accrued interest is [payable / not payable.] [In the case of Notes with a fixed to floating interest rate, insert: In the case of a floating interest period purchases and/or sales during the year, accrued interest is [payable / minimum rate of interest payable / [and] at most at the maximum rate of interest payable / not payable].]

(Redemption)

- (1) Redemption at Maturity [in the case of Covered Bank Bonds, whose term shall be extended in case the Issuer does not pay the outstanding aggregate principal amount on the Maturity Date, or in case of Covered Bonds which provide for conditions for a maturity extension, the following applies: or at the Extended Maturity Date]. [in the case of Covered Bonds which provide for conditions for a maturity extension, insert: or, if the maturity of the Notes is extended in accordance with the provisions contained in § 4 (1a), on such date as the special administrator (§ 86 Austrian Insolvency Code) may determine as the extended maturity date (the "Extended Maturity Date")] shall be repaid at their redemption amount of [insert redemption price] of the principal amount (the "Redemption Amount"). [In the case of Covered Bonds which provide for conditions for a maturity extension, insert: The latest possible Extended Maturity Date shall be [insert date of latest possible Extended Maturity Date]].

[Until the Austrian Covered Bond Act (PfandBG) Federal Law Gazette I No. 199/2021 enters into force on 08.07.2022 as follows, the following applies:

- (3) Extension of the Term of the Notes. If the Issuer notifies the Holders not less than 5 (five) Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (the "Non-payment Notice") that the Issuer will be unable to pay the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Notes on the Maturity Date, the term of the Notes shall be extended to, but excluding, the Extended Maturity Date. In this case, the Issuer shall redeem all and not only some of the Notes on the Extended Maturity Date at the Redemption Amount together with accrued interest (if any) to, but excluding, the Extended Maturity Date. Neither the failure to pay the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Notes on the Maturity Date nor the extension of the term of the Notes shall constitute an event of default for any purpose or give any Holder any right to accelerate the Notes or to receive any payment other than as expressly set out in these Terms and Conditions. The Non-payment Notice shall be irrevocable and shall be given in accordance with § 11.]

[From (and including) the entry into force of the Austrian Pfandbrief Act (PfandBG) Federal Law Gazette I No. 199/2021 on 08.07.2022 as follows, the following applies:

Conditions for a maturity extension: The maturity of the Notes may be postponed once by up to 12 months to the Extended Maturity Date upon the occurrence of the Objective Trigger Event described below.

Objective trigger event means triggering the maturity extension in the Issuer's insolvency by the special administrator (§ 86 of the Austrian Insolvency Code), provided that the special administrator is convinced at the time of the maturity extension that the liabilities under the Notes can be serviced in full on the Extended Maturity Date. The maturity extension is not at the Issuer's discretion. In the event of a maturity extension, the Issuer will redeem the Notes in whole and not in part on the Extended Maturity Date at the principal amount together with any interest accrued to (but excluding) the Extended Maturity Date. The occurrence of the Objective Trigger Event and any resulting adjustments of the Interest Period relating thereto shall be notified to the Fiscal Agent and the Holders without undue delay in accordance with § 11.

In such case, the Issuer will redeem the Notes in whole and not in part on the Extended Maturity Date at the Redemption Amount together with any interest accrued (exclusive) to the Extended Maturity Date. The Interest Payment Date(s) and Interest Period(s) are subject to the determination of the Extended Maturity Date by the Special Administrator (§ 86 of the Insolvency Code). From the Extended Maturity Date onwards, the Bondholders shall have no claim to further interest payments. Neither the non-payment of the outstanding aggregate principal amount on the Maturity Date nor the postponement of the Maturity Date shall constitute an Event of Default by the Issuer for any purpose or entitle any Noteholder to terminate the Notes or to receive any payment other than as expressly provided for in these Terms and Conditions.

In the event of the insolvency or resolution of the Issuer, payment obligations of the Issuer under the Notes shall not be subject to automatic acceleration and prepayment (bankruptcy remoteness). In each case, the Holders shall have a priority claim in relation to the principal amount and any accrued and future interest from the cover assets and in addition in case of insolvency, to the extent that the aforementioned priority claim cannot be satisfied in full, an insolvency claim against the Issuer.

As competent authority, the Austrian Financial Market Authority (FMA) supervises the issuance of covered bonds and compliance with the provisions of the PfandBG, taking into account the national economic interest in a functioning capital market.

In case of insolvency proceedings, the bankruptcy court shall without undue delay appoint a special administrator to administer priority claims in relation to the principal amount and any accrued and future interest from the cover assets (special estate) (§ 86 of the Austrian Insolvency Code). The special administrator shall satisfy due claims of the Holders from the special estate and shall take the necessary administrative measures for this purpose with effect for the special estate, for example by collecting due mortgage claims, selling individual cover assets or by bridge financing.]

(Early Redemption)

[If the Issuer has the option to early redeem the Notes the following applies:

- (4) Early Redemption of the Notes at the Option of the Issuer. The Issuer may early redeem the Notes in whole or in part on the Optional Redemption Dates (Call) specified below (each an "Optional Redemption Date (Call)") at the Optional Redemption Amounts (Call) specified below (each an "Optional Redemption Amount (Call)") together with accrued interest.

[In the case of eligible Notes the following applies:

Any such early redemption shall only be possible if the conditions laid down in § 5 (4) are met.]]

[If the Issuer does not have the option to early redeem the senior or covered Notes the following applies:

- (1) No Early Redemption of the Notes at the Option of the Issuer. An early redemption of the Notes at the option of the Issuer is excluded.]

[If the Issuer does not have the option to early redeem the eligible or subordinated Notes the following applies:

- (1) No Early Redemption of the Notes at the Option of the Issuer. Except for § 5 (3) of the Terms and Conditions the Issuer has no right to redeem the Notes prior to their Maturity Date.]

[If the Holders have the option to require early redemption of senior, eligible or covered Notes, insert:

- (2) Early Redemption at the Option of a Holder. The Issuer shall, if a Holder notifies the Issuer of its intention to do so at least [insert minimum notice period (Put)] and no more than [insert maximum notice period (Put)] Business Days (as defined in § 6) in advance, early redeem the relevant Notes of such Holder on any of the following Optional Redemption Dates (Put) (each an "Optional Redemption Date (Put)") at their relevant Optional Redemption Amount (Put) as defined below (the "Optional Redemption Amount (Put)") together with accrued interest.

[If the Holders have no option to require the early redemption of the senior, eligible or covered Notes and in the case of subordinated Notes insert:

(2) No Early Redemption at the Option of a Holder. The Holders are not entitled to demand the early redemption of the Notes.]

[If, in the case of senior or covered Notes, "Early Redemption in case of Change of Law, Hedging Disruption and/or Increased Hedging Costs" is applicable, insert:

(3) Early Redemption in case of Change of Law, Hedging Disruption and/or Increased Hedging Costs. The Issuer may redeem the Notes at any time prior to the Maturity Date upon the occurrence of Change of Law and/or Hedging Disruption and/or Increased Hedging Costs (each as defined below) at their early redemption amount of [insert early redemption price] of the Denomination (the "Early Redemption Amount") together with accrued interest. The Issuer shall redeem the Notes in full (but not in part only) on the second Business Day (as defined in § 6) after which notice of the early redemption has been given in accordance with § 11, provided that such date is not later than two Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (the "Early Redemption Date") and will pay or cause to be paid the Early Redemption Amount in respect of the Notes to the Holders in accordance with any applicable tax laws or other legal or regulatory requirements and in accordance with and subject to these Terms and Conditions. Payments of taxes or early redemption charges shall be borne by the Holders and the Issuer shall have no liability therefor.

Whereas:

"Change of Law" means that (i) due to the enactment of changes in laws or regulations (including but not limited to tax laws) or (ii) changes in the interpretation of judicial or regulatory decisions relevant to the relevant laws or regulations (including statements by tax authorities), the Issuer determines that there has been a material increase in the costs associated with its obligations under the Notes (including, without limitation, increases in tax liabilities, reductions in tax benefits or other adverse effects on tax treatment) if such changes become effective on or after the Issue Date;

"Hedging Disruption" means that the Issuer, using commercially reasonable efforts, is unable to: (i) enter into, continue or settle any transaction or acquire, exchange, hold or dispose of any asset that the Issuer deems necessary to hedge price risk with respect to its obligations under the Notes; or (ii) realise, recover or pass on the proceeds of any transaction or asset; and

"Increased Hedging Costs" means that the Issuer is required to pay a materially higher amount of taxes, duties, expenses and fees (other than brokerage fees) in order to: (i) enter into, continue or settle any transaction or to acquire, exchange, hold or dispose of any asset, which the Issuer deems necessary to hedge price risks in respect of its obligations under the Notes; or (ii) to realise, recover or pass on proceeds from such transactions or assets, provided that amounts which have increased only because of the creditworthiness of the Issuer has declined shall not be deemed to be Increased Hedging Costs.]

[In the case of eligible Notes the following applies:

(3) Early Redemption for Regulatory Reasons. The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time on giving not less than 30 days' nor more than 60 days' prior notice of redemption, in accordance with § 11 of the Terms and Conditions to the Holders (which notice shall be irrevocable), at their early redemption amount of [insert early redemption price] of the Denomination together with interest accrued to (but excluding) the redemption date (the "Early Redemption Amount"), if there is a change in the regulatory classification of the Notes that would be likely to result in their exclusion in full or in part from liabilities eligible for the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities (MREL) pursuant to the BaSAG on an unlimited and upwardly unrestricted basis, and provided that the conditions laid down in § 5(4) are met.

(4) Conditions for Early Redemption and Repurchase.

Any early redemption pursuant to this § 5 and any repurchase pursuant to § 13 (2) are subject to the Issuer having obtained the prior permission of the Resolution Authority for the early redemption and the repurchase, in accordance with Articles 77 and 78a CRR, if and to the extent such prior permission is required at this time.

Notwithstanding the above conditions, if, at the time of any early redemption or repurchase, the prevailing supervisory regulations applicable to the Issuer permit the early redemption or repurchase only after compliance with one or more alternative or additional pre-conditions to those set out above, the Issuer shall comply with such other and/or, as appropriate, additional pre-conditions, if any.

For the avoidance of doubt, any refusal by the Resolution Authority to grant a required permission, authorisation or other consent does not constitute a default.

[In the case of subordinated Notes the following applies:

(3) Early Redemption for Reasons of Taxation or for Regulatory Reasons. The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time on giving not less than 30 days' nor more than 60 days' prior notice of redemption, in accordance with § 11 of the Terms and Conditions to the Holders (which notice shall be irrevocable), at their early redemption amount of [insert early redemption price] of the Denomination together with interest accrued to (but excluding) the redemption date (the "Early Redemption Amount"):

(a) for regulatory reasons, if there is a change in the regulatory classification of the Notes that would be likely to result in their exclusion in full or in part from own funds or reclassification of own funds of lower quality; or

(b) for reasons of taxation, if there is a change in the applicable tax treatment of the Notes;

and provided that the conditions laid down in § 5(4) are met.

(4) Conditions for Early Redemption and Repurchase. An early redemption pursuant to this § 5 and any repurchase pursuant to § 13 (2) are subject to:

- (a) the Issuer having obtained the prior permission of the Competent Authority (as defined below) for the early redemption or any repurchase of the Notes in accordance with the Articles 77 and 78 CRR, whereas such permission may, inter alia, require that:
- (i) earlier than or at the same time as the early redemption, the Issuer replaces the Notes with own funds instruments of at least equal quality at terms that are sustainable for the income capacity of the Issuer; or
 - (ii) the Issuer has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority that the own funds and eligible obligations of the Issuer would, following such early redemption or repurchase, exceed the requirements laid down in the CRR in Directives 2013/36/EU and 2014/59/EU, both as amended from time to time, by a margin that the Competent Authority considers necessary at such time; and
- (b) in the case of any early redemption prior to the fifth anniversary of the date of issuance of the Notes:
- (i) due to regulatory reasons pursuant to § 5 (3) (a), the Competent Authority considers such change to be sufficiently certain; and the Issuer has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority that the regulatory classification of the Notes was not foreseeable for the Issuer as at the date of issuance of the Notes, or
 - (ii) reasons of taxation pursuant to § 5 (3) (b), the Issuer has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority that such change is material and was not foreseeable as at the date of issuance of the Notes.
 - (iii) for circumstances other than those set out in items (i) or (ii) above if, earlier or at the same time with such action, the Issuer replaces the Notes with own funds instruments of at least equal quality at terms that are sustainable for the income capacity of the Issuer and the Competent Authority has permitted such action based on the determination that it is beneficial from a prudential point of view and justified by exceptional circumstances.

Notwithstanding the above conditions, if, at the time of any early redemption or repurchase, the prevailing supervisory regulations applicable to the Issuer permit the early redemption or repurchase only after compliance with one or more alternative or additional pre-conditions to those set out above, the Issuer shall comply with such other and/or, as appropriate, additional preconditions, if any.

For the avoidance of doubt, any refusal of the Competent Authority to grant any permission, approval or other authorisation shall not constitute a default.

- (5) Deposit with the court. The Issuer may deposit with the competent court any principal not claimed by Holders within 12 months after the relevant due date even though such Holders may not be in default of acceptance of payment. If and to the extent that the deposit is effected, and the right of withdrawal is waived, the respective claims of such Holders against the Issuer shall cease.
- (6) Default Interest. If the Issuer fails to make any payment due on the Notes for any reason, the outstanding amount shall bear interest at the rate of two percentage points above the base rate from, and including, the due date to, but excluding, the date of payment in full. The base interest rate applicable on the last calendar day of a half-year shall be decisive for the next half-year.

§ 7 (Taxation)

All payments of principal and interest in respect of the Notes will be made without withholding or deduction for or on account of any taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature (the "Taxes") imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by the Republic of Austria or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax, unless such withholding or deduction is required by law in the future. In such case, the Issuer will withhold or deduct the relevant Taxes and pay the amounts withheld or deducted to the relevant authorities. The Issuer shall not be obliged to pay any additional amounts of principal and/or interest on account of any such withholding or deduction.

§ 8 (Prescription)

It will ensure that at all times: (i) a Principal

(5) Determinations Binding. All certificates, communications, opinions, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of these Terms and Conditions by the Issuer, a Paying Agent and/or the Calculation Agent shall (in the absence of manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, the Paying Agent(s) and the Holders.

(6) Exclusion of liability. Neither the Paying Agent(s) nor the Calculation Agent shall have any liability for any error or omission or any subsequent correction based thereon in the calculation or publication of any amount or determination in respect of the Notes except in the case of gross negligence and wilful misconduct.

§ 10 (Debtor substitution)

(1) Substitution. The Issuer shall be entitled at any time, without the consent of the Holders, to substitute another company which is directly or indirectly controlled by the Issuer as the new issuer for all obligations arising from or in connection with the Notes with discharging effect for the Issuer (the "New Issuer"), provided that

- (c) the New Issuer has obtained all approvals necessary for the substitution of the Notes and the performance of the obligations under or in connection with the Notes;
- (d) the Issuer unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the obligations of the New Issuer

under the Notes on terms which ensure that each Holder will be placed in an economic position at least equal to that which it would be in the absence of the substitution; and

- (e) the New Issuer is able to pay to the Clearing System in the Specified Currency all amounts required to satisfy the payment obligations under the Notes without deduction or withholding of any taxes or other duties of any kind imposed, levied or collected by the country (or countries) in which the New Issuer has its registered office or tax residence.

(2) References.

- (a) In the event of a substitution of the debtor pursuant to § 10 (1), any reference in these Terms and Conditions to the "Issuer" shall be deemed to be a reference to the "New Issuer" and any reference to the Republic of Austria shall be deemed to be a reference to the state in which the New Issuer is resident for tax purposes.
- (b) In § 7, if such reference would be missing due to the preceding paragraph, an alternative reference to the Republic of Austria shall be deemed to be included (in addition to the reference in accordance with the preceding sentence to the state in which the New Issuer is resident for tax purposes).

- (3) Notice and Effectiveness of the Substitution. Notice of the substitution of the Issuer shall be given in accordance with § 11. Upon notice of the substitution, the substitution shall become effective and the Issuer and, in the case of a repeated application of this § 10, any former new issuer shall be released from all of its obligations under the Notes (without prejudice to the guarantee under § 10 (1) (d)). In the event of such substitution of a debtor, any regulated markets on which the Notes are listed shall be notified.

(Notices)

- (1) Notices. All notices of the Issuer concerning the Notes shall be deemed to have been validly given if they are available on the website [insert website] or if they are forwarded to the Holders directly or via the custodians relevant to them and, to the extent required by law, have been published in the media specified by law. Any notice so given will be deemed to have been validly given on the fifth day following the date of such publication (or, if published more than once, on the fifth day following the date of the first such publication).
- (2) Notification to the Clearing System. The Issuer shall be entitled to replace a publication pursuant to § 11 (1) by a notice to the Clearing System (pursuant to § 1 (4)) for onward transmission to the Holders. Any such notice shall be deemed to be validly given on the fifth Business Day after the date of the notice to the depositary.

(Invalidity. Amendments)

- (1) Severability. If at any time one or several provisions of the Terms and Conditions are or will be invalid, illegal or unenforceable under the laws of any jurisdiction, then such provisions shall be ineffective only to the extent necessary with respect to such jurisdiction without affecting or preventing the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of the Terms and Conditions.

- (2) Amendments. The Issuer shall be entitled to correct obvious typographical or arithmetical errors or other obvious mistakes, to amend or supplement contradictory or incomplete provisions in these Terms and Conditions without the consent of the Holders, whereby only such amendments or supplements shall be permissible which, taking into account the interests of the Issuer, are reasonable for the Holders, i.e. which do not materially worsen their financial situation. There is no obligation to publish amendments or supplements to these Terms and Conditions, provided that the financial situation of the Holders is not significantly worsened.

(Further Issues of Notes and Repurchase)

- (1) Further Issues of Notes. The Issuer may from time to time, without the consent of the Holders, issue further Notes having the same terms as the Notes in all respects (or in all respects except for the issue date, the interest commencement date and/or the issue price) so as to form a single series with the Notes.
- (2) Repurchase. The Issuer may at any time repurchase Notes in the open market or otherwise at any price to the extent permitted by law. Notes repurchased by the Issuer may, at the option of the Issuer, be held, resold or surrendered to the Paying Agent for cancellation. [In the case of eligible Notes and subordinated Notes, insert: Such repurchase is only possible in compliance with all applicable regulatory and other statutory restrictions and provided that the conditions pursuant to § 5 (4) are met.]

(Applicable Law. Place of Performance. Place of Jurisdiction)

- (1) Applicable Law. Place of Performance. The form and content of the Notes as well as the contractual and non-contractual rights and obligations of the Holders and the Issuer in connection with the Notes shall be governed exclusively by the laws of the Republic of Austria, excluding its rules of private international law as far as such rules would lead to the application of foreign law. The place of performance is Vienna, Republic of Austria.
- (2) Place of Jurisdiction. The non-exclusive place of jurisdiction for all legal disputes with the Issuer arising from the legal relationships governed by these Terms and Conditions is, to the extent permitted by law, Vienna, Austria. The agreement on the place of jurisdiction does not limit the right of a Holder, if and to the extent ordered by applicable law, to bring proceedings before a consumer court.
